Affidavit - Notice of Understanding and Intent And Claim of Right

I, a flesh and blood living soul commonly known as John-Henry of the Doe family, living on a geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand, having no corporate status, do hereby state under oath that the following is my Truth and my Law.

Whereas:

It is my understanding that:

1. The only and true jurisdiction that Man can be part of is the one from his creator: Life. Life is also known as the Universe, God, the Source, Nature, Love or the Creation. Life is self aware and speaks to itself through the Heart, and;
2. The only Laws that apply to Man are the Laws of Creation also known as the Divine Laws, the Laws of Nature, the Laws of Love or the Laws of the Universe and those Laws are written into the Heart of Man, and;
3. I am a Man, and;
4. Any system of laws that are not of Life are of man, and;
5. The only jurisdiction to which I willfully and completely consent is the one from within my own Heart and I call it Love, and;
6. Out of necessity, compassion, love and to the best interest of peace for all of those who believe that only the laws of man exist and apply to all, I allow myself to be seen by systems created by man through the different interfaces that those systems provide without, nevertheless, me consenting to their jurisdiction over me, and;

7. A Man is born out of Love whereas a corporation is born out of money. It is therefore impossible for a Man to give or receive money since the only thing a Man can give or receive is Love, and;

8. All the people living on the geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand enjoy the protection of the common law, and;

9. Equality before the law is paramount and mandatory, and;

10. The law of agent and principal applies, therefore, service upon one is service upon both, and;

21. Acts are statutes restricted in scope and applicability by the Constitution Act, and;

11. A statute is defined as a legislated rule of society which has been given the force of law, and;

13. A society is defined as a number of people joined by mutual consent to deliberate, determine and act for a common goal, and;

14. For something to exist legally, it must have a name, and;

15. The Law Societies and Bar Associations of New Zealand are the ones who create the statutes and therefore they are applicable only to their members and to those that consent, and;

16. The only form of government recognized as lawful in the area commonly referred to as New Zealand is a representative one, and;

17. All governments are corporations which provide services, and;

18. All governments and corporations, including all of their agents, are bound by the Crimes Act 1961, and;

19. Representation requires mutual consent, and;

20. In the absence of mutual consent neither representation nor governance can exist and;

22. Those who have an IRD (Inland Revenue Department) Number and are using it for employment are in fact employees of the federal government and thus are bound by the statutes created by the federal government for its employees, and;

23. It is lawful to abandon an IRD number, and,

24. People living on the geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand have the right to revoke or deny consent to be represented and thus governed, and;

25. If anyone does revoke or deny consent they exist free of government control and statutory restraints, and;

26. Section 53 of the Crimes Act 1961 establishes a claim of right as a Lawful excuse, and;

27. If one is in possession of personal property under a claim of right, one is justified to protect or to appoint anyone to protect that property with protection from criminal responsibility for defending that property, even against a person entitled by law to possession of it and that factual truth is expressed in Section 53 of the Crimes Act 1961, and;

28. Section 107 of the Crimes Act 1961 acknowledges the right to disobey statutes if one has a lawful excuse, or a claim of right, and;
29. Section 56C of the Judicature Act 1908 acknowledges the right to disobey court orders if one has a lawful excuse, or a claim of right, and
30. A Freeman-on-the-Land is one who has lawfully revoked consent and does exist free of statutory restrictions, obligations, and limitations, and;
31. I, known as John-Henry: Doe, am a Freeman-on-the-Land, and;
32. Acting peacefully within common law standards is not unlawful, and;
33. All transactions of security interests require the consent of both parties, and;
34. Any action for which one can apply and receive a license must itself be a fundamentally lawful action, and,
35. I, known as John-Henry: Doe, a Freeman-on-the-Land who operates with full responsibility am not a child of the state. I do not need to ask permission to engage in lawful/legitimate and peaceful activities, especially from those who claim limited liability, and;
36. Peace officers have two roles, first as peace officers and secondly as policy enforcement officers (also known as police officers) and that the latter acting against a Freeman-on-the-Land is in fact breaking the Law, and;
37. A by-law is defined as a rule of a corporation, and;
38. Corporations are legal fictions that require contracts in order to claim authority or control over other parties, and;
39. For any party to be justified to order payment from another party, there must be a valid contract, and;
40. I can use a Notary Public to perform duties found under any Act. Thus they have the power to hold court and hear evidence and issue binding legal judgments, and;
41. If the Notary fails in their Duty, then they have abandoned their post, and;
41. Personal property is defined as any thing lawfully in the possession of someone, and;
42. I have a right to use my personal property without having to pay for the use or enjoyment of it, and,
43. No one is obliged to have a legal name or to give it freely to anyone demanding it, and;
44. I have a right to claim an amount of acres that I will judge appropriate and fair, of uninhabited land anywhere on the geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand or the Commonwealth, and;
45. A Freeman-on-the-Land can travel freely within the commonwealth, and;
46. A summons is merely an invitation to attend and the ones issued by the New Zealand Securities Commission create no obligation or dishonor if ignored, and;
46. Peace officers have a duty to distinguish between statutes and Law and those who attempt to enforce statutes against a Freeman-on-the-Land are in fact breaking the law, and;
47. I have the power and right to refuse any transaction or interaction with peace officers who have not observed me breach the peace, and;

FREEMAN ON THE LAND
JOHN-HENRY :DOE

48. Breach the peace is defined as intentionally, physically hurting another human being or intentionally damaging someone else's personal property or committing any kind of unlawful action in a contract, and;

49. Permanent estoppel by acquiescence barring any peace officer or prosecutor from bringing charges against a Freeman-on-the-Land under any Act is created if this claim is not responded to in the stated fashion and time mentioned hereunder, and;

Therefore be it resolved and known to any and all concerned and effected parties, that I, known as John-Henry: Doe, a Freeman-on-the-Land, do hereby state clearly, specifically and unequivocally my intent:

50. To peacefully and lawfully exist free of all statutory obligations and/or restrictions, and maintain all rights at law to trade, exchange or barter, and;

51. To travel peacefully and lawfully on the geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand and the Commonwealth by whatever means I deem necessary, and;

52. To be a Steward of the land and waters of the geographical area commonly referred to as New Zealand and the Commonwealth including the land to which I lay claim, and;

53. To not pay taxes, for the collection of taxes is a function of government and with my denial of consent I will free myself completely from all governing bodies, agencies and institutions, and;

Furthermore I claim:

53. That these actions are not outside my neighbors standards and will in fact support said neighbors in our common desire for truth and maximum freedom, and;

54. The right to engage in these actions and further claim that all personal property held by me is held under a Claim of Right in accordance with Section 53 of the Crimes Act 1961, and;

55. The right to, at any time, appoint peace officers to protect me and/or my personal property from anyone who would attempt to take it, and;

That anyone, their principals or their agents who interfere with my lawful activities after having been served notice of this claim and who fail to properly dispute or make lawful counterclaim is breaking the law, cannot claim good faith or colour of right and that such transgressions will be dealt with in a properly convened court de jure, and;

57. That the courts in New Zealand are de facto and are in fact in the profitable business of conducting, witnessing and facilitating the transactions of security interests and I further claim they require the consent of both parties prior to providing any such services, and;

Notice of Denial of Consent

DATE: _____

Whereas:

1. New Zealand enjoys a common law jurisdiction, and;
2. Equality before the law is paramount and mandatory, and;
3. In a common law jurisdiction no one can claim the right or power to adjudicate any matter without the consent of both parties, and;
4. Without my consent no lawful adjudication concerning myself may occur, and;
5. I do hereby, claim the right inalienable by any government agent to engage in discussion either

FREEMAN ON THE LAND

directly or through an agent prior to consenting to any adjudication or administrative tribunal or other process which may generate a security interest, and;

6. I do claim said right has been denied to me by human beings acting as government agents in a common law jurisdiction, and;

7. I do hereby, re-extend my offer of discussion and negotiation in order to avoid conflict, and;

8. Seeking conflict as a government agent in a court of law in the absence of discussion or negotiation is a denial of basic fundamental rights, a dishonor, and an abuse of process, and;

9. Said dishonor, denial and abuse does cause the administration of justice to appear to be dragged into disrepute, and;

10. I am compelled by my honour and Faith to refuse to be party to any action which may be seen to drag the administration of justice into disrepute, and;

11. I do believe the path of peace is always available to those of good will, and;

12. I am peaceful and of goodwill, and;

13. I do believe peace is a fundamental right and the basic justification for government, and;

14. Consenting to an adversarial relationship in the absence of good faith discussion and negotiation is a breach of my Faith, and;

15. Abusing the judicial process and forcing me to breach the terms of my Faith is completely unacceptable to me,

Therefore be it resolved and known to any and all concerned:

That I, a human being in a common law jurisdiction in no way consent to any adjudication process of any sort by any party and that said denial of consent remains in force until any plaintiff or claimant honours the existing offer to discuss and negotiate in good faith and pure trust and under full commercial liability. This notice is served in the interest of justice, without malice of forethought, ill will, vexation or frivolity and suffices as notice of a claim by the Affiant that a plaintiff or claimant is apparently abusing process for financial or other gain and thus causing the administration to be dragged into disrepute.
