In a number of corporate states of the Union, there is often a legal requirement to provide a Social Security Number when applying for a various types of licenses, privileges, and benefits or when going to work for a company. The only exception to this rule in most cases is if:

- 5 1. The applicant has a religious objection to having or using a Social Security Number
- 6 2. The applicant is NOT eligible for Social Security.
- 7 Below is an example of such a requirement from the California DMV Driver's License Application, Form DMV-44:

COMPLETE THIS SECTION ONLY IF YOU ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER:

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that no Social Security Number has ever been issued to me and I am not presently eligible for a Social Security Number. I understand that pursuant to Vehicle Code Section 12801 I must provide my Social Security Number to the Department of Motor Vehicles when one is assigned to me.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

 SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER COLLECTION DISCLOSURE — You are required by law to provide your Social Security Number, if you are eligible for one, or your application will be denied. An applicant who is legally present in the United States, but not authorized to work and therefore ineligible for a Social Security Number may still be eligible for a California Driver License/Identification Card.

Authority to collect the social security number is 42 U.S.C. 405 and California Vehicle Code §1653.5, §4150, §4150.2, §12800, and §12801. It will be used in the administration of driver license laws and motor vehicle registration laws and to respond to requests for information from the:

- Franchise Tax Board for tax administration
- Any agency operating pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.
  - It will be used to aid in the collection of monies owed in connection with:
  - ✓ failure to pay fines or failure to appear in court by an applicant
  - ✓ Aid to Families with Dependent Children
  - ✓ Child Support
  - ✓ Establishment of Paternity
- DMV verifies your social security number, name and birth date on our records with the Social Security Administration. You will not be issued or be able to renew your driver license or identification card until the Social Security Administration verifies the information you have provided is correct. By applying for a driver license or identification card, you authorize and consent to a search of any and all databases at the Social Security Administration by the California Department of Motor Vehicles, to verify the information you have provided.
- The mailing address listed on the front of this application will be the address shown on your driver license or identification card.

The purpose of this pamphlet is to introduce exculpatory, court admissible evidence showing why the average American is not, never has been, and never will be eligible to participate in Social Security. The audience for the pamphlet is anyone who demands that you produce a Social Security Number in order to qualify for a job, government service, privilege, or benefit. This might include:

- 17 1. The Department of Motor Vehicles, in the case of driver's licenses.
- 18 2. Private employers who are accepting your job application.
- 19 3. Financial institutions where you are opening new accounts.

- 1 4. Business associates and partners.
- <sup>2</sup> 5. Schools who want your child to provide a SSN on a school form.

You are encouraged to provide this pamphlet attached to any application in which the recipient is likely to challenge your statement that you aren't eligible for Social Security, don't have a Social Security Number, and/or never applied for one. We will conclude this pamphlet with a brief series of questions based on the evidence presented, which will leave the reader with no option but to acknowledge the conclusions of this pamphlet. If you are denied a job, a financial account, a license of any kind, a business opportunity, or an education for your child because of failure to disclose a Social Security number, we strongly recommend that you use the following form to develop legal evidence useful in court in prosecuting and filing criminal complaints against those who discriminated against you:

3 Requirements for Joining Social Security

<sup>2</sup> The process of applying for a Social Security Number is started by filling out the SSA form SS-5 available at:

3 http://www.socialsecurity.gov/online/ss-5.html

- <sup>4</sup> The requirements for joining Social Security are as follows:
- "noncitizens", which are those who are not statutory "U.S. citizens" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401, cannot apply for a Social Security Number for the exclusive purpose of getting a Driver's License. See SSA website FAQs. Below is the question on their website relating to this:

8		Can a noncitizen obtain a Social Secuirty number to get a drivers license?
9		QUESTION: Can a noncitizen obtain a Social Security number to get a drivers license?
10		ANSWER: No. We no longer can assign an SSN to a noncitizen solely for the purpose of obtaining a driver's
11		license. Noncitizens otherwise ineligible for an SSN can, however, obtain one for purposes other than
12		employment when-
13		• A Federal statute or regulation requires the noncitizen to provide an SSN to get a particular benefit
14		or service; or
15		• A State or local law requires the noncitizen to provide a SSN to get general assistance benefits.
16	2.	Only "U.S. citizens" and "lawful permanent residents" (aliens), both of whom have in common a legal domicile within
17		the "United States" (federal territory) can lawfully apply for a Social Security Number and card. See 20 CFR §422.104
18		at:

http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov/cgi/t/text/text-1 idx?c=ecfr&sid=29edc22b3b6cf25bba8e4f1e7c8161d9&rgn=div8&view=text&node=20:2.0.1.1.10.2.455.3&idno 2 =203 Since the above regulation is found in Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and the name of that title is 4 "Employee's Benefits", those who join the Social Security program agree to act as federal "employees" from that point 5 forward. Look at the name of the Title yourself at: http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov/. 6 The current Social Security Act, Section 1101, contains definitions of key terms used on the Social Security Website. 7 3. The definitions of "State" and "United States", which we repeat in section 2 earlier, indicate that a statutory "U.S. 8 citizen" as used in the Act, means a person born in the District of Columbia or a federal territory or possession and 9 domiciled there. The definition of the term does not include the states of the Union, and under the Rules of Statutory 10 Construction, it is safe to conclude that what is not explicitly included is purposefully excluded. 11 "expressio unius, exclusio alterius"—if one or more items is specifically listed, omitted items are purposely 12 excluded. Becker v. United States, 451 U.S. 1306 (1981) 13 "Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one 14 thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles, 15 170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons 16 or things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be 17 inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects 18 19 of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded." [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581] 20 Persons domiciled in states of the Union on other than federal territory are NOT eligible for Social Security because: 21 The Supreme Court has indicated that Congress has NO LEGISLATIVE JURISDICTION within states of the Union: 1. 22 "It is no longer open to question that the general government, unlike the states, Hammer v. Dagenhart, 247 23 U.S. 251, 275, 38 S.Ct. 529, 3 A.L.R. 649, Ann.Cas.1918E 724, possesses no inherent power in respect of the 24 internal affairs of the states; and emphatically not with regard to legislation. [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238, 56 S.Ct. 855 (1936)] 25 26 "The difficulties arising out of our dual form of government and the opportunities for differing opinions 27 concerning the relative rights of state and national governments are many; but for a very long time this court 28 has steadfastly adhered to the doctrine that the taxing power of Congress does not extend to the states or 29 their political subdivisions. The same basic reasoning which leads to that conclusion, we think, requires like 30 limitation upon the power which springs from the bankruptcy clause. United States v. Butler, supra." 31 [Ashton v. Cameron County Water Improvement District No. 1, 298 U.S. 513; 56 S.Ct. 892 (1936)] 32 By implication, the Social Security program can ONLY be offered to those domiciled in the District of Columbia and 33 the territories and possessions of the United States and NOT to persons domiciled in states of the Union. 34 A person born within and domiciled within states of the Union is classified as a "national" but not a "citizen" under 35 2. federal law. He is NOT a "U.S. citizen" under 8 U.S.C. §1401. See references below for exhaustive proof of this: 36 2.1. Why You are a "National" or a "State National" and not a "U.S. Citizen", Form #05.006: 37 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm 38 2.2. Tax Deposition Questions, Form #03.016, Section 14: Citizenship 39 http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/Discovery/Deposition/Deposition.htm 40 Because people born in and domiciled within states of the Union are neither "U.S. citizens" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 nor 41 "lawful permanent residents", which are "aliens", then they do not qualify for the Social Security Program. If they sign 42 up, then they must commit perjury on the SS-5 form by indicating that they are "U.S. citizens". Consequently, the vast 43 majority of persons within states of the Union who signed up for the program are NOT eligible, and the moneys they 44 contributed to the program were contributed illegally. 45 The reason the U.S. government is willing to "look the other way" by accepting unqualified applicants from states of 4. 46 the Union is because Social Security is the main method by which the IRS manufactures "taxpayers", which are person 47 subject to federal jurisdiction and the Internal Revenue Code Subtitle A. A person who does not sign up for Social 48 Security or a Social Security Number, unless he completes and submits a W-4 or 1040 form voluntarily, cannot be 49 made liable for federal income taxes under I.R.C. Subtitle A. 50 5. Offering of Social Security to people in states of the Union is an enlargement of federal powers beyond what the 51 Constitution authorizes over citizens of the states who would otherwise be "foreign" and outside of the jurisdiction of 52

the federal government. The U.S. Supreme Court said that the states CANNOT consent to such an enlargement of federal powers or the breakdown of the Separation of Powers that it causes.

State officials thus cannot consent to the enlargement of the powers of Congress beyond those enumerated in the Constitution. Indeed, the facts of this case raise the possibility that powerful incentives might lead both federal and state officials to view departures from the federal structure to be in their personal interests. Most citizens recognize the need for radioactive waste disposal sites, but few want sites near their homes. As a result, while it would be well within the authority of either federal or state officials to choose where the disposal sites will be, it is likely to be in the political interest of each individual official to avoid being held accountable to the voters for the choice of location. If [505 U.S. 144, 183] a federal official is faced with the alternatives of choosing a location or directing the States to do it, the official may well prefer the latter, as a means of shifting responsibility for the eventual decision. If a state official is faced with the same set of alternatives - choosing a location or having Congress direct the choice of a location - the state officials thus may not coincide with the Constitution's intergovernmental allocation of authority. Where state officials purport to submit to the direction of Congress in this manner, federalism is hardly being advanced." [New York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144 (1992)]

6. If the State government cannot do it, then neither can the sovereign people in the states without violating the Constitution and destroying the protection for our liberties effected by the Separation of Powers:

The answer follows from an understanding of the fundamental purpose served by our Government's federal structure. The Constitution does not protect the sovereignty of States for the benefit of the States or state governments as abstract political entities, or even for the benefit of the public officials governing the States. To the contrary, the Constitution divides authority between federal and state governments for the protection of individuals. State sovereignty is not just an end in itself: "Rather, federalism secures to citizens the liberties that derive from the diffusion of sovereign power." Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 759 (1991) (BLACKMUN, J., dissenting). "Just as the separation and independence of the coordinate branches of the Federal Government serve to prevent the accumulation of excessive power in any one branch, a healthy balance of power between the States and the Federal Government will reduce the risk of tyranny and abuse from either front." Gregory v. [505 U.S. 144, 182] Ashcroft, 501 U.S., at 458. See The Federalist No. 51, p. 323. (C. Rossiter ed. 1961).

Where Congress exceeds its authority relative to the States, therefore, the departure from the constitutional plan cannot be ratified by the "consent" of state officials. An analogy to the separation of powers among the branches of the Federal Government clarifies this point. The Constitution's division of power among the three branches is violated where one branch invades the territory of another, whether or not the encroachedupon branch approves the encroachment. In Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 118-137 (1976), for instance, the Court held that Congress had infringed the President's appointment power, despite the fact that the President himself had manifested his consent to the statute that caused the infringement by signing it into law. See National League of Cities v. Usery, 426 U.S., at 842, n. 12. In INS v. Chadha, 462 U.S. 919, 944-959 (1983), we held that the legislative veto violated the constitutional requirement that legislation be presented to the President, despite Presidents' approval of hundreds of statutes containing a legislative veto provision. See id., at 944-945. The constitutional authority of Congress cannot be expanded by the "consent" of the governmental unit whose domain is thereby narrowed, whether that unit is the Executive Branch or the States. [New York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144 (1992)]

Any attempt to compel a person domiciled within a state of the Union on other than federal territory and protected by the Bill of Rights, to sign up for Social Security or to have or to use a Social Security Number against their will and without their consent, and in violation of the Separation of Powers Doctrine within the Constitution therefore constitutes:

- <sup>46</sup> 1. Conspiracy Against Rights in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment and 18 U.S.C. §241
- 47 2. Violation of 42 U.S.C. §408.

- 7 When a person signs up for social security, their legal status changes as follows:
- Signing up for Social Security makes one into a "Trustee", agent, and fiduciary of the United States government under 26 U.S.C. §6903. The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state of the Union, but it becomes a "domestic" corporation when you are acting as an "employee" and agent.

<sup>14</sup> 2. The United States Government is defined as a "federal corporation" in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A):

(A) a Federal corporation;
(B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or
(C) an instrumentality of the United States.

- The Trust you are acting as a Trustee for is an "employee" of the United States government within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code under 26 CFR §31.3401(c)-1.
- 4. You, when acting as a Trustee, are an "officer or employee" of a federal corporation called the "United States".
- 5. The legal "domicile" of the Trust you are acting on behalf of is the "District of Columbia". This is where the "res" or "corpus" of the Social Security Trust has its only legal existence as a "person". See:
   http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/DomicileBasisForTaxation.htm
- 6. The Social Security Number is the "Trustee License Number". Whenever you write your name anywhere on a piece of paper, and especially in conjunction with your all caps name, such as "JOHN SMITH", you are indicating that you are acting in a Trustee capacity. The only way to remove such a presumption is to black out the number or not put it on the form, and then to correct whoever sent you the form or notice to clarify that you are not acting as a Trustee or government employee, but instead are acting as a natural person. See:
- 35 http://sedm.org/ProductInfo/RespLtrs/AboutSSNs/AboutSSNs.htm
- As an "officer or employee of a corporation", you are the proper subject of the penalty and criminal provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under:

- 8. The Internal Revenue Code becomes enforceable against you without the need for implementing regulations. The following statutes say that implementing regulations published in the Federal Register are not required in the case of federal employees or contractors:
  - 8.1. 5 U.S.C. §553(a)(2)
  - 8.2. 44 U.S.C. §1505(a)(1)
- 45 9. As a Trustee over the Social Security Trust, you are a "public officer" engaged in a "trade or business" as defined in 26
   46 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26). Consequently, the earnings of the federal corporation you preside over as Trustee are taxable
   47 under the Internal Revenue Code. You are exercising the functions of a "public office" because you are exercising 48 fiduciary duty over payments paid to the Federal Government. You are in business with Uncle Sam and essentially become a "Kelly Girl". Income taxes are really just the "profits" of the Social Security trust created when you signed up for the program, which are "kicked back" to the mother corporation called the "United States".

10. All items that you take deductions on under 26 U.S.C. §162, earned income credit under 26 U.S.C. §32, or a graduated 3 rate of tax under 26 U.S.C. §1 become "effectively connected with a trade or business", which is a code word for 4 saying that they are public property, because a "trade or business" is a "public office". This "trade or business" then 5 becomes a means of earning you "revenue" or "profit" as a private individual, because it serves to reduce your tax 6 liability as a Trustee filing 1040 returns for the Social Security Trust. What the government doesn't tell you, however, 7 is that you can't reduce a liability you wouldn't have if had just been smart enough not so sign up for Social Security to 8 begin with! See the following article for more details on "The trade or business scam" for further details: 9

http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/TradeOrBusinessScam.htm 10

11. Below is what the Supreme Court said about all property you donated for "public use" by the Trust in acquiring 11 reduced tax liability: 12

"Surely the matters in which the public has the most interest are the supplies of food and clothing; yet can it be that by reason of this interest the state may fix the price at which the butcher must sell his meat, or the vendor of boots and shoes his goods? Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;' and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property which a man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor's benefit; second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due compensation. [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

Therefore, whatever you take deductions on comes under the jurisdiction of the Internal Revenue Code, which is the 22 vehicle by which the "public" controls the use of your formerly private property. Every benefit has a string attached, 23 and in this case, the string is that you as Trustee, and all property you donate for temporary use by the Trust then comes 24 under the jurisdiction of the Internal Revenue Code and the Social Security Act. 25

- 12. Your Trust employer, the "United States" government, is your new boss. As your new boss, it does not need territorial 26 jurisdiction over you. All it needs is "in rem" jurisdiction over the property you donated to the trust, which includes all 27 your earnings. All this property, while it is donated to a public use, becomes federal property under government 28 management. That is why the Slave Surveillance Number is assigned to all accounts: to track government property, 29 contracts, and employees. 30
- 13. Because the property already is government property while you are using it in connection with a "trade or business", 31 then you implicitly have already given the government permission to repossess that which always was theirs. That is 32 why they can issue a "Notice of Levy" without any judicial process and immediately and conveniently take custody of 33 your bank accounts, personal property, and retirement funds: Because they have the mark of the Beast, the Slave 34 Surveillance Number on them, which means you already gave them to your new benefactor and caretaker, the United 35 States Government. 36
- 14. The United States Government does not need territorial jurisdiction over you in order to drag you into federal court 37 while you are acting as one of its Trustees and fiduciaries under 26 U.S.C. §6903. Any matter relating to federal 38 contracts, whether they are Trust Contracts or federal employment contracts (with the "Trustee"), may ONLY be heard 39 in a federal court. It is a violation of the separation of powers doctrine for a state to hear a matter which might affect 40 the federal government. See Alden v. Maine, 527 U.S. 706 (1999). Federal Jurisdiction over Trustees is indeed 41 "subject matter jurisdiction", but it doesn't derive primarily from the Internal Revenue Code. Instead it derives from 42 the agency and contract you maintain as a "Trustee": 43

50	State law may, however, be adopted as the federal law of decision in some instances. 77
51	[American Jurisprudence, 2d, United States, Section 42: Interest on Claim]

15. The U.S. Supreme Court has always given wide latitude to manage its own "employees" which includes both its Social 52 Security Trusts and the Trustees who are exercising agency over the Trust and its corpus or property. You better bow 53 down and worship your new boss: Uncle Sam! 54

7 5 Background on Social Security Numbers

All those assigned Social Security Numbers are federal "employees". For the proof, we refer you to the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. §552a, which says:

- 10
   TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a

   11
   § 552a. Records maintained on individuals
- 12 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

(13) the term "Federal personnel" means officers and employees of the Government of the United States, members of the uniformed services (including members of the Reserve Components), individuals entitled to receive immediate or deferred retirement benefits under any retirement program of the Government of the United States (including survivor benefits).

The above is also confirmed by the regulation which authorizes issuance of the number at 20 CFR §422.104. That section falls under Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, which is entitled "Employee's Benefits". The "employee" they are talking about is that defined in 26 CFR §31.3401(c)-1:

20 26 CFR §31.3401(c)-1 Employee:

"...the term [employee] includes officers and employees, whether elected or appointed, of the United States, a [federal] State, Territory, Puerto Rico or any political subdivision, thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing. The term 'employee' also includes an officer of a corporation."

The federal government has no jurisdiction within a state to control behavior of private employees, and therefore the only type of "employee" they can be referring to in the context of Social Security Numbers is public employees who work for the federal government. Note that Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations qualifies as "legislation" in the context of the Supreme Court ruling below:

IRS also has a code word or "word of art" that they use to describe this employment relationship. It is called a "trade or business", which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office". A "trade or business" is the main thing that is taxable under Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code. To supply an SSN is to admit that you are a federal "employee" who is engaged in a taxable activity. Any bank account which has the number attached also effectively becomes property of the federal government, because the number, which is government property, can only be used in the execution of the official duties of a federal "employee" in the furtherance of a "public purpose". To use public property for any other purpose is illegal under 18 U.S.C. §208.

Having a Social Security Number also creates a "presumption" that you are domiciled in the "United States", which is defined in the I.R.C. as the "District of Columbia" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). What "U.S. citizens" and "residents aliens" listed below have in common is a "domicile" in the "United States":

Why You Aren't Eligible for Social Security Copyright Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry, http://sedm.org Form 06.001, Rev. 10-27-2007

1	26 CFR §301.6109-1(g)
2	(g) Special rules for taxpayer identifying numbers issued to foreign persons(1) General rule(i) Social
3	security number. A social security number is generally identified in the records and database of the Internal
4	Revenue Service as a number belonging to a U.S. citizen or resident alien individual. A person may establish
5	a different status for the number by providing proof of foreign status with the Internal Revenue Service
6	under such procedures as the Internal Revenue Service shall prescribe, including the use of a form as the
7	Internal Revenue Service may specify. Upon accepting an individual as a nonresident alien individual, the
8	Internal Revenue Service will assign this status to the individual's social security number.
9	The U.S. Supreme Court also admitted that this very domicile is the basis for instituting federal income taxes:
10	"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in
11	transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the
12	Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located." [Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

Therefore, if someone asks you for a Social Security Number on any form or application, indirectly they are asking you two questions identified below. If you give them a number, your answer to both questions is YES:

- 20 1. Are you a federal "employee" on official business?
- 21 2. Is your domicile in the District of Columbia?

15

Therefore, those who don't consent to be federal "employee", domiciliaries of the federal zone, or "taxpayers" cannot indicate a number on any government form and where one is requested, must instead indicate:

- 1. Nothing: Wait if they ask you. If they insist, put one of the following 3
- 25 2. "NA"= "None Available" or Not Applicable"
- 3. "NONE"= NONE or "NONE TO GIVE"

27 6 Compelled use of Social Security Numbers

The use and disclosure of Social Security Numbers is governed by the Privacy Act of 1954, 5 U.S.C. §552a and following. The Social Security Act itself also makes it a crime to compel the disclosure of Social Security Numbers against the wishes of the party:

31	TITLE 42 - THE PUBLIC HEALTH AND WELFARE
32	CHAPTER 7 - SOCIAL SECURITY
33	SUBCHAPTER II - FEDERAL OLD-AGE, SURVIVORS, AND DISABILITY INSURANCE BENEFITS
34	Sec. 408. Penalties

39	imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.
40	Additional facts about the compalled use of Social Security Numbers:

- 40 Additional facts about the compelled use of Social Security Numbers:
- Article 1, Section 10 of the Constitution makes it unconstitutional for the government to institute a Bill of Attainder, which is a penalty absent a court hearing.
- According to 44 U.S.C. §1505(a)(1) and 5 U.S.C. §553(a)(2), all laws "having general applicability [to everyone] and legal effect" must have implementing regulations published in the Federal Register, and if none are published, the statute can ONLY be applied against federal employees and contractors.
- There are no implementing regulations authorizing any penalties on natural persons for failure to use or provide Social Security Numbers.

12	7 Who Owns the Social Security Number and Card?
13	The Social Security Act regulations identify who owns the Social Security Number and Card:
14	Title 20: Employees' Benefits
	PART 422—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURES
15
16	Subpart B—General Procedures
17	§ 422.103 Social security numbers.
18	(d) Social security number cards. A person who is assigned a social security number will receive a social
19	security number card from SSA within a reasonable time after the number has been assigned. (See §422.104
20	regarding the assignment of social security number cards to aliens.) Social security number 20
21	cards are the property of SSA and must be returned upon request.
22	Now let's look at whether you can "have" a "Social Security Number" or card. Merriam Webster's College Dictionary
23	defines the word "have" as follows:
24	" have : 1. a: to hold or maintain as a possession, privilege, or entitlement; 2: to feel obligation in regard to;
25	3: to stand in a certain relation to; 4 a: to acquire or get possession of: OBTAIN; b: RECEIVE; 5 a: to be
26	marked or characterized by"
27	[Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, ISBN 0-87779-510-X, 1983, p. 556]
	[ · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	If the Social Social Social Number is to be considered a "multileas" on an "estitlement" then it must also be contracted and it
28	If the Social Security Number is to be considered a "privilege" or an "entitlement", then it must also be contractual and it
29	must be YOUR personal property. Without a contract entitling you to collect and exclusively own and control any alleged benefit, then it can't be called "entitlement". At best it is gambling, and the right of "entitlement" is about as trustworthy as 30
31	our politician's ability to balance the budget. Below is proof right from the Supreme Court that having a number entitles
32	you to NOTHING:
52
22	"We must conclude that a name of an another the Ast has not each a sink to find the first of a summation of the second
33	"We must conclude that a person covered by the Act has not such a right in benefit payments This is not to
34	say, however, that Congress may exercise its power to modify the statutory scheme free of all constitutional
35	restraint."
36	[Flemming v. Nestor , 363 U.S. 603 (1960)]
37
38	"The Social Security system may be accurately described as a form of social insurance, enacted pursuant to
39	Congress' power to "spend money in aid of the `general welfare,'" Helvering v. Davis, supra, at 640, whereby persons gainfully employed, and those who employ them, are taxed to permit the payment of benefits to the 40	retired and disabled, and their dependents. Plainly the expectation is that many members of the present
41
42	productive work force will in turn become beneficiaries rather than supporters of the program. But each
43	worker's benefits, though flowing from the contributions he made to the [363 U.S. 603, 610] national economy
44	while actively employed, are not dependent on the degree to which he was called upon to support the system by
45	taxation. It is apparent that the noncontractual interest of an employee covered by the Act cannot be soundly
46	analogized to that of the holder of an annuity, whose right to benefits is bottomed on his contractual
47	premium payments."
48	[Flemming v. Nestor, 363 U.S. 603 , 610, 80 S.Ct. 1367 (1960)]
40	Notice the very particular language "statutory scheme" used in the above case. It is definitely as "scheme" alright! At least
49
50	our government is honest on that point! Therefore, neither Social Security nor the Social Security Number nor the card
51	itself:

- 1 1. Constitute a "privilege", or "entitlement".
- 2 2. Constitute a legal "right" or anything that is enforceable in a court of law.
- 3. Are "contractual".

- 4 4. Constitute a tangible "benefit" of any kind.
- 5 5. Can be "owned" by anyone other than the government itself. The Social Security Card, in fact, is identified as property 6 of the government, meaning "public property".
- 7 Now lets look at the definition of "ownership":

"Own: 1 a: to have or hold as property; POSSESS b: to have power over: CONTROL... 2: to acknowledge to be true, valid, or as claimed: ADMIT..]"
 [Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, ISBN 0-87779-510-X, 1983, p. 842]

11 Webster's then defines "property" as follows:

12	"property: 2 a: something owned or possessedb: the exclusive right to possess, enjoy, and dispose of a
13	thing: OWNERSHIP c: something to which a person has a legal title]
14	[Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, ISBN 0-87779-510-X, 1983, p. 943, Emphasis added]

- Based on the above, a Social Security Number cannot be classified as "property", because the person who uses it doesn't exclusively control its use. For instance:
- 17 1. The number is selected and issued by the Social Security Administration, not you.
- 18 2. Once issued, the number is the property of the government, not you.
- You do not control which government agencies may use or maintain the number in their records, and they in practice do not ask you for permission when they share it among the agencies.
- 4. If you die, the number can and will be recycled and assigned to someone else.
- 5. You are not given a choice of when you can or cannot use it. If it were yours, you could choose when you DON'T want to use it, but government agencies chronically disregard the requirement for consent and compel the use and disclosure of the number.
- 4. You cannot gift or bequeath the number or any of the benefits that go with the number to anyone else. The Social Security Act, Section 207, specifically says that none of the so-called "benefits" are transferable to any third party:
  - Social Security Act, Title II, Section 207
- 28 29 30 31

SEC. 207. [42 U.S.C. 407] (a) The right of any person to any future payment under this title shall not be transferable or assignable, at law or in equity, and none of the moneys paid or payable or rights existing under this title shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law.

Therefore, neither the number nor the corpus of the Social Security Trust are transferable or are therefore "property" that can be "owned" or controlled. As the Webster's definition of "property" shows, ownership implies complete, exclusive control. In fact and in real practice, you as a private person control no aspect of your participation in the Social Security program or the use of the number. Instead, the government uses it to control you! Therefore, the purpose and the result of using the number is that YOU, not the NUMBER, become government property under government control. It is the equivalent of a dog license that the government uses to track every aspect of your behavior with computers.

In conclusion, the Social Security Number and the Social Security Card are the property of the government, not you and it is impossible for you to "have" such a number that never was and never will be yours to begin with. The use of it guarantees nothing but the fact that you become government property, a "taxpayer", and surety for the debts of a government that is completely out of control. The bible says Christians cannot be surety for anyone:

42 43 "A man devoid of understanding shakes hands in a pledge, and becomes surety for his friend." [Proverbs 17:18, Bible, NKJV]

44 45 "He who is surety for a stranger will suffer, but one who hates being surety is secure." [Prov. 11:15, NKJV]

1 2 3 4 5 6	"My son, if you become surety for your friend, if you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger, you are snared by the words of your mouth; you are taken by the words of your mouth. So do this, my son, and deliver yourself; for you have come into the hand of your friend [slavery!]: Go and humble yourself; plead with your friend. 9	8 Detailed Answers to Common Questions from recipients of this form About Your Social
10	Security Participation
11 12 13 14	<ul> <li>QUESTION #1: Do you have a Social Security Number?</li> <li>ANSWER #1: No. It is impossible for anyone, including you, to legally "have" or possess such a number. You cannot own or exclusively control information: You can only "know" it. Furthermore, 20 CFR §422.104 says that only federal "employees" can be assigned numbers and I am not a federal "employee".</li> </ul>
15 16 17 18	<ul> <li>QUESTION #2: Do you know what your Social Security Number is?</li> <li>ANSWER #2: I just got through telling you that I don't have one. Furthermore, I am not eligible to receive one or to participate in the Social Security Program.</li> </ul>
<ol> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> <li>25</li> <li>26</li> <li>27</li> <li>28</li> <li>29</li> </ol>	QUESTION #3:Were you ever eligible to participate in Social Security the past or did you ever ask for one?ANSWER #3:I never signed up for the program EVER and I have never been eligible. Other people such as my parents may have thought that they had the authority to sign up for me, but since I never consented and never participated in the application process, then I never applied, and even if application had been made, it was made fraudulently, because not only I, but you also do not qualify by law to participate in the program. Furthermore, I sent official legal papers to the Social Security Administration resigning from the system. Let me show you a copy of the papers I sent in. Therefore, I do not participate and I do not wish to sign up again. [Show them the following document you sent to SSA which is available free below: Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee , Form #06.002 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm]
30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37	QUESTION #4:What do you mean, I don't qualify?ANSWER #4:The analysis in this pamphlet, section 2 shows that the program can only be offered to "U.S. citizens" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 or "lawful permanent residents". Both of these groups have in common a domicile in the "United States" which is defined in the Social Security Act, Section 1101 as the District of Columbia and the territories and possessions of the United States. I am not part of either one of these two groups and neither are you. The Social Security Act is "legislation" and the Supreme Court said that congress has NO POWER to legislate within states. Here is what they said:
38 39 40 41	"It is no longer open to question that the general government, unlike the states , Hammer v. Dagenhart, 247 U.S. 251, 275 , 38 S.Ct. 529, 3 A.L.R. 649, Ann.Cas.1918E 724, possesses no inherent power in respect of the internal affairs of the states; and emphatically not with regard to legislation. " [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 , 56 S.Ct. 855 (1936)]
42 43 44	Are you going to sit here and tell me the Social Security Act is NOT legislation? If you do, you are admitting that it isn't law and that I don't have to follow it. What part of the phrase "no inherent power in respect of the internal affairs of states" do you NOT understand, sir?
45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52	OUESTION #5: How could I not be a "U.S. citizen"? Don't "U.S. citizens" qualify? ANSWER #5: The term "United States", for the purposes of citizenship in 8 U.S.C. §1401 , is limited to the District of Columbia and the territories and possessions of the United States. The federal government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state and its laws and legislative jurisdiction do not extend into the states. Therefore, a federal law which defines what a "U.S. citizen" is can't identify you as one. It's a basic tenet of law that the laws of any state cannot apply outside its own territory. The states of the Union are NOT territory of the federal government.

1	"Judge Story, in his treatise on the Conflicts of Laws, lays down, as the basis upon which all reasonings on the
2	law of comity must necessarily rest, the following maxims: First 'that every nation possesses an exclusive
3	sovereignty and jurisdiction within its own territory'; secondly, ' that no state or nation can by its laws directly
4 5	affect or bind property out of its own territory, or bind persons not resident therein, whether they are natural born subjects or others.' The learned judge then adds: 'From these two maxims or propositions there follows a
6	third, and that is that whatever force and obligation the laws of one country have in another depend solely upon
7	the laws and municipal regulation of the latter; that is to say, upon its own proper jurisdiction and polity, and
8	upon its own express or tacit consent." Story on Conflict of Laws §23."

17	at the evidence? Isn't that rather presumptuous of you? I don't run my life by presumptions, but by law

23	program who live within the states of the Union are not eligible to participate or to receive benefits. I can't
24	believe that!
25	ANSWER #6 : The only rational basis for belief is what the law actually says. Look at the definitions for yourself in
26	section 2 of this pamphlet and tell me why they are either wrong or why my interpretation of them is wrong.
27	They seem pretty straightforward to me. If you think I'm wrong, then simply prove it by answering the
28	questions at the end of this pamphlet and disprove the evidence for yourself. If you can't do it, then please
29	quit bothering me and give me my driver's license WITHOUT the Social Security Number that I'm asking.
30	If you won't issue it, then please sign this form indicating that you refused my application, so that if I get

24	OUESTION #7 : Well why don't you give me the number you used to have before you quit the program (if you indicated
34 35	leaving the program)?
	ANSWER #7 : It's illegal for me to do that. The Social Security regulations at 20 CFR §422.103 identify the Social

<sup>3</sup> 9 Questions that Readers, Grand Jurors, and Petit Jurors Should be Asking the Government

These questions are provided for readers, Grand Jurors, and Petit Jurors to present to the government or anyone else who would challenge the facts and law appearing in this pamphlet, most of whom work for the government or stand to gain financially from perpetuating the fraud. If you find yourself in receipt of this pamphlet, you are demanded to answer the questions within 10 days. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6), failure to deny within 10 days constitutes an admission to each question. Pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6065, all of your answers must be signed under penalty of perjury. We are not interested in agency policy, but only sources of reasonable belief identified in the pamphlet below:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

Your answers will become evidence in future litigation, should that be necessary in order to protect the rights of the person against whom you are attempting to unlawfully enforce federal law.

12 1. Admit that Social Security is a franchise.

13	FRANCHISE. A special privilege conferred by government on individual or corporation, and which does not
14	belong to citizens of country generally of common right, Elliott v. City of Eugene, 135 Or. 108, 294 P. 358,
15	360. In England it is defined to be a royal privilege in the hands of a subject.
16	A "franchise," as used by Blackstone in defining quo warranto, (3 Com. 262 [4th Am. Ed.] 322), had reference
17	to a royal privilege or branch of the king's prerogative subsisting in the hands of the subject, and must arise
18	from the king's grant, or be held by prescription, but today we understand a franchise to be some special
19	privilege conferred by government on an individual, natural or artificial, which is not enjoyed by its citizens in
20	general. State v. Fernandez, 106 Fla. 779, 143 So. 638, 639, 86 A.L.R. 240.
21	In this country a franchise is a privilege or immunity of a public nature, which cannot be legally exercised
22	without legislative grant. To be a corporation is a franchise. The various powers conferred on corporations
23	are franchises. The execution of a policy of insurance by an insurance company [e.g. Social Insurance/Social
24	Security], and the issuing a bank note by an incorporated bank [such as a Federal Reserve NOTE], are
25	franchises. People v. Utica Ins. Co 15 Johns., N.Y., 387, 8 Am.Dec. 243. But it does not embrace the property
26	acquired by the exercise of the franchise. Bridgeport v. New York & N. H. R. Co., 36 Conn. 255, 4 Arn. Rep.
27	63. Nor involve interest in land acquired by grantee. Whitbeck v. Funk, 140 Or. 70, 12 P.2d 1019, 1020. In a
28	popular sense, the political rights of subjects and citizens are franchises, such as the right of suffrage, etc.
29	Pierce v. Emery, 32 N.H. 484; State v. Black Diamond Co., 97 Ohio St. 24, 119 N.E. 195, 199, L.R.A.1918E,
30	352.
31	Elective Franchise. The right of suffrage: the right or privilege of voting in public elections.
32	Exclusive Franchise. See Exclusive Privilege or Franchise.
33	General and Special. The charter of a corporation is its "general" franchise, while a "special" franchise
34	consists in any rights granted by the public to use property for a public use but-with private profit. Lord v.
35	Equitable Life Assur. Soc., 194 N.Y. 212, 81 N. E. 443, 22 L.R.A., N.S., 420.
36	Personal Franchise. A franchise of corporate existence, or one which authorizes the formation and existence of
37	a corporation, is sometimes called a "personal" franchise. as distinguished from a "property" franchise, which
38	authorizes a corporation so formed to apply its property to some particular enterprise or exercise some special
39	privilege in its employment, as, for example, to construct and operate a railroad. See Sandham v. Nye, 9
40	Misc.ReP. 541, 30 N.Y.S. 552.
41	Secondary Franchises. The franchise of corporate existence being sometimes called the "primary" franchise of
42	a corporation, its "secondary" franchises are the special and peculiar rights, privileges, or grants which it may,
43	receive under its charter or from a municipal corporation, such as the right to use the public streets, exact tolls,
44	collect fares, etc. State v. Topeka Water Co., 61 Kan. 547, 60 P. 337; Virginia Canon Toll Road Co. v. People,
45	22 Colo. 429, 45 P. 398 37 L.R.A. 711. The franchises of a corporation are divisible into (1) corporate or
46	general franchises; and (2) "special or secondary franchises. The former is the franchise to exist as a
47	corporation, while the latter are certain rights and privileges conferred upon existing corporations. Gulf

Refining Co. v. Cleveland Trust Co., 166 Miss. 759, 108 So. 158, 160.

4 5	2.	Admit that all franchises are based on contracts and require the mutual, continuing consent of BOTH parties to the transaction.
6 7		American Jurisprudence 2d Franchises, Section 4: Generally
8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16		As a rule, franchises spring from contracts between the sovereign power and private citizens, made upon valuable considerations, for purposes of individual advantage as well as public benefit , <sup>1</sup> and thus a franchise partakes of a double nature and character. So far as it affects or concerns the public, it is publici juris and is subject to governmental control. The legislature may prescribe the manner of granting it, to whom it may be granted, the conditions and terms upon which it may be held, and the duty of the grantee to the public in exercising it, and may also provide for its forfeiture upon the failure of the grantee to perform that duty. But when granted, it becomes the property of the grantee, and is a private right, subject only to the governmental control growing out of its other nature as publici juris. <sup>2</sup> [Am.Jur.2d, Franchises, §4; 36 Am.Jur.2d Franchises, §4]
17		YOUR ANSWER:AdmitDeny

25	4.	Admit that the rights guaranteed by the Bill of Rights are "unalienable".
26 27 28 29 30		"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights , that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of HappinessThat to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -" [Declaration of Independence]
31		YOUR ANSWER:AdmitDeny
32 33	5.	Admit that an "unalienable right" possessed by a private person cannot be sold, transferred, or lawfully bargained away in relation to the government without violating the Bill of Rights.
34 35		"Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred." [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]
36		YOUR ANSWER:AdmitDeny
37 38 39	6.	Admit that because Constitutionally protected rights cannot be sold, aliened, or bargained away by a private person in relation to the government, then the government cannot lawfully offer franchises that cause a surrender of Constitutional rights to property to anyone protected by the Constitution.

Generally, as to the terms and conditions of franchises and governmental control or regulation thereof, see §§ 24 et seq., , see §§ 38 et seq., infra.

"It would be a palpable incongruity to strike down an act of state legislation which, by words of express divestment, seeks to strip the citizen of rights guaranteed by the federal Constitution, but to uphold an act by 2 3 which the same result is accomplished under the guise of a surrender of a right in exchange for a valuable privilege which the state threatens otherwise to withhold. It is not necessary to challenge the proposition that, 4 5 as a general rule, the state, having power to deny a privilege altogether, may grant it upon such conditions as it sees fit to impose. But the power of the state in that respect is not unlimited, and one of the limitations is that it 6 may not impose conditions which require the relinquishment of Constitutional rights. If the state may compel 7 the surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a surrender 8 of all. It is inconceivable that guaranties embedded in the Constitution of the United States may thus be 9 manipulated out or existence." 10 [Frost v. Railroad Commission, 271 U.S. 583; 46 S.Ct. 605 (1926)] 11 YOUR ANSWER: ____Admit ____Deny 12 7. Admit that the only place not protected by the Constitution is federal territory and foreign countries. 13 14 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase 15 16 or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the 17 18 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of 19 20 the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of 21 22 government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, 23 and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by 24 the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the 25 Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over 26 27 them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights." 28 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)] 29 YOUR ANSWER: ____Admit ____Deny 30 Admit that states of the Union are not federal "territory" as ordinarily used in federal or state law. 31 Corpus Juris Secundum Legal Encyclopeida, Territories 32 "§1. Definitions, Nature, and Distinctions 33 "The word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization has a distinctive, fixed, and legal 34 meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and does not necessarily include all the 35 territorial possessions of the United States, but may include only the portions thereof which are organized 36 and exercise governmental functions under act of congress." 37 "While the term 'territory' is often loosely used, and has even been construed to include municipal subdivisions 38 39 of a territory, and 'territories of the' United States is sometimes used to refer to the entire domain over which the United States exercises dominion, the word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization, has 40 41 a distinctive, fixed, and legal meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and the term 'territory' or 'territories' does not necessarily include only a portion or the portions thereof which are organized 42 43 and exercise government functions under acts of congress. The term 'territories' has been defined to be 44 political subdivisions of the outlying dominion of the United States, and in this sense the term 'territory' is not a 45 description of a definite area of land but of a political unit governing and being governed as such. The question whether a particular subdivision or entity is a territory is not determined by the particular form of government 46 with which it is, more or less temporarily, invested. 47 "Territories' or 'territory' as including 'state' or 'states." While the term 'territories of the' United States 48 may, under certain circumstances, include the states of the Union, as used in the federal Constitution and in 49 ordinary acts of congress "territory" does not include a foreign state. 50 "As used in this title, the term 'territories' generally refers to the political subdivisions created by congress, 51 and not within the boundaries of any of the several states." 52 [Corpus Juris Secundum Legal Encyclopedia, Territories, §1] 53 YOUR ANSWER: ____Admit ____Deny 54
