To Whom It May Concern,

Pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and Fair Credit Reporting Act, found under section 1292(c),

I am writing this letter for you to cease further communication with me.

DO NOT communicate further with me with respect to this account.

You are harassing me by calling numerous times.

You are harassing me calling numerous times and leaving messages.

I am keeping a record of each call.

You are threatening me with legal action trying to collect a debt.

I demand that you communicate with me only in writing.

I simply wish you to cease all communication (mail, phone calls or other) with me or any member of my household. This includes my place of employment. I do not admit or deny liability on the debt. I just want you to stop contacting me.

Sincerely,

Note: This request can be at made any time, but it must be made in writing. It is always recommended that you send the request by certified mail (PS Form 3811) and keep a copy. This copy will be proof of your request should you need to sue the creditor. Once the collector receives your letter, they can only contact you to inform you of any action it intends to take or to tell you that it is terminating its efforts to collect the debt.

This letter is enough to stop further contact or dunning letters.

Make sure you save the return receipt form because you may use this as evidence that you sent the letter and that the debt collector received it.
