

Fixed Penalty Notices: Your notices in action

Submitted by richardlandry on Wed, 29/10/2008 - 19:45

Some breaking news of a positive nature for TPUC-goers

Recently a reader emailed in with their story after reading about the action you can take in serving a notice in response to a PCN (See more on that here).

You can read the notice and response in full below. The fraudulent nature of extracting your money is exposed when Islington Parking Services were on the receiving end from a TPUC reader, and promptly withdrew the charge after 2 weeks by letter.

So; excuses given by them aside, what have YOU got to lose in writing a single letter to challenge your latest PCN?

See how powerful we can all truly be?!

Re: FIXED PENALTY NOTICE - issued

Notice of Discharge of Outstanding Penalty Notice and Request for Clarification.

You have apparently made allegations of criminal conduct against me. You have apparently made demands upon me.

I do not understand those apparent demands and therefore cannot lawfully fulfil them.

I seek clarification of your document so that I may act according to the law and maintain my entire body of God given Natural Rights.

Failure to accept this offer to clarify and to do so completely and in good faith within 7 days will be deemed by all parties to mean you and your principal or other parties abandon all demands upon me.

I conditionally accept your offer to agree that I am [redacted] and that I owe £80.00, upon proof of claim of all of the following:

1. Upon proof of claim that I am a person and not a human being.
2. Upon proof of claim that you know what a 'person' actually is, legally speaking.
3. Upon proof of claim that you know what the difference between a 'human being' and a 'person' actually is, legally speaking.
4. Upon proof of claim that I am [redacted] and not John Doe
5. Upon proof of claim that the charge was the result of a lawful investigation unmarred by prejudice.
6. Upon proof of claim that I am a member of the society whose statutes and subsidiary regulations you are enforcing.
7. Upon proof of claim that I showed you some sort of identification.
8. Upon proof of claim that there is a nameable society that I belong to and that the laws covered within this alleged transgression state that they apply to me within that named society

Sincerely and without ill will, vexation or frivolity

[redacted]

The tactical withdrawal...

Dear [REDACTED]

Penalty Charge Notice No. [REDACTED] Date of Issue [REDACTED]
Location of Contravention [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter regarding the above Penalty Charge Notice which was recently received at this office.

Having assessed the case, I am not satisfied with the evidence collected by the Civil Enforcement Officer (CEO) when the PCN was issued. Accordingly, I am not able to properly investigate your challenge to the PCN. As I cannot satisfy myself that the PCN was issued correctly, I shall be cancelling this charge.

As the ticket has now been cancelled, there is no need for you to take any further action.

Yours sincerely

Job done!
