

Relying upon the U.S. Constitution, I can expect government to seek to:

1. be just. (Preamble)
2. insure tranquility. (Preamble)
3. provide for our defense. (Preamble)
4. promote general welfare. (Preamble)
5. secure individual liberty. (Preamble)
6. share power in balance between the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches, with no other governmental entity possessing power except as delegated by law and with delegation subject to the limits of power specified. (Articles I, II, and III in general)
7. subject all agencies of government to accountability of oversight by Grand Juries operating as instruments of "We the People." (Principle of accountability)
8. limit the power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States to acts of Congress. (Article I, Section 8, Paragraph one)
9. apply law with uniform fairness (Article 1 in general)
10. assure that the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it. (Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 2)
11. pass no Bill of Attainder or ex post facto law, meaning that no administrative penalty shall apply to me unless the case is first heard by a jury of my peers. {Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 3)
12. lay no tax or duty on articles exported from any state, preferring no state above another. (Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 6)
13. spend no money but by appropriation made by law (Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 7)
14. grant no title of nobility and allow no one, without the consent of Congress, to accept any present or benefit from any foreign State. (Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 8)
15. provide for the honest and truthful election of all public officers. (Article II)
16. limit the judiciary of the Federal Government to the guarantee of a jury trial for all who are accused of a crime, except in the case of impeachment. (Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 3)
17. promptly bring impeachment action against all public officials and servants violating their oaths to limit their behavior to the provisions of the constitution. (Article I, Section 3, Paragraph 6)
18. change provisions of the constitution only by the procedures of Amendment set out in the constitution, and not by any diversion or interpretation whether judicial or otherwise. (Article V)
19. exercise integrity, rejecting all proposed Amendments not conforming to provisions for Amendment in said constitution, and that any Amendment not factually ratified is void and of no effect, including the Sixteenth Amendment documentarily proven to have been "ratified" by fraud. (Common sense and the mandate of correct ethical standards).
20. make no law respecting an establishment or exercise of religion. (Amendment 1)
21. make no law abridging the freedom of speech. (Amendment 1)
22. make no law abridging the freedom of the press. (Amendment 1)
