

Life without Law

Existing in a world based upon law and thus slavery is the current reality for most of us. With that said more and more people are waking up to the fact that they have been enslaved and are beginning to fight back. And there are just as many people in power doing their best to make sure that we don't become free. The more people that wake up the harder they hit us with their Police State and Nazi Genocidal plans. They use everything at their disposal as a weapon. They take in political prisoners who arrive at the conclusion that they have no authority over us. This is expressed in different ways, but in essence it is the realization that there is no authority beyond one self. It is a fundamental aspect of creation and cannot interfere with.

The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms is not about Rights and Freedoms as much as it is about pure slavery of Canadian Citizens. Section 1 of the Charter reads as follows:

- The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantees the rights and freedoms set out in it subject only to such reasonable limits prescribed by law as can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society.

The Charter puts "Reasonable Limits" on rights and freedoms as justified in a "Free and Democratic" society. Rewording it slightly as this, one begins to ask, who gets to determine what is Reasonable and which Free and Democratic Society are they referring too? By simple observation it would be the Free Masonic Order that hides behind every Law Society within Canada, USA and the Common Wealth. They operate the Courts and each court is a franchise of the court of Temple Bar in The City of London, a sovereign state within London, England. This Temple Bar is sided with the Banking System that goes all over the world. How and why this is important is that 13 blood line families operate this system by controlling Governments all around the world and thus the people within the Countries of those Governments. Wouldn't laws prevent this? Here is what the Rothschild's had to say about that:

- Amsel (Amschel) Bauer Mayer Rothschild, 1838:
"Let me issue and control a Nation's money and I care not who makes its laws".

All around the world this fiat based currency which has no value is printed by the Countries for a few pennies per bill and then given to a private central bank owned by either the Rothchilds or one of the 13 bloodline families and then sold for its face value. Because it is a private bank they charge interest, and thus they collect on that interest through what is commonly known as income tax. None of the taxes collected through income taxes go to maintain roads, schools, hospitals etc. It all goes to the Bloodline families who control the banks. Then they control the courts through their other hand, the franchises of Temple Bar which appear to look like Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II courts. However you see her picture outside of the court, you do not see her Royal Seal displayed within and neither do you see a Canadian Flag if you are in Canada.

With all this said how does this all fit into you being a slave? You are free are you not? You have a car a house and do pretty much everything you want to do as long as you stay within the confines of the law right? And we all need laws to keep everyone safe and I will go along with that, because a law that keeps me safe keeps everyone else safe and we all need to feel safe don't we? Having laws to protect us is important because without them there would be anarchy and people could do whatever they wanted. So we need laws to keep our society safe and in order to have that society I have to pay taxes and work to earn a living for myself and my family. There can be no other reality possible beyond this, because this is how it has always been and this is just the natural way of things.

For most people this is their thinking although it varies to degree as to how much they believe what they are being told as many are not as susceptible to the propaganda being poured out from the mainstream media about how great things are etc. It is a way of life for most that someone, somewhere wearing a uniform of some kind has some form of authority over them and they best obey them or face consequences involving the "court".

Outside of Government the next biggest form of authority in our lives is Religion. If you have read my book, The Extortion System of the Ruling Elite available as a free download off my website, www.freedomfiles.org or most of my articles you would be aware that there is no reason to go to Church or be part of any Religion. This is simply because in truth all authority remains within you. It is the natural process of Creation that we are all equal to all that exists including what we call God. It is even stated in the Bible in Genesis 1:26-28, that we were created equal with God and have dominion over all the earth and over every living thing upon the earth. By simple observation it would appear that this is absolutely true. Dominion means to rule.

Thus why then do we have large numbers of people trying to find freedom within a law system designed to enslave them? In terms of Canada, Section 1 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms would thwart any attempt by a slave to get free of the system through the use of law or other means for that matter. Yet people are diligently burning those candles late at night reading and trying to understand a very complex system of laws that from what I see allow the Ruling Elite to do whatever they want and their slaves do nothing. There is a great deal of deception and trickery involved in those laws and they are written in a language called Legalese that only Lawyers are allowed to interpret, yet Police and other officials seem to be able to, but not the general public.

I am not saying there isn't a possible solution within the law. There are lots of remedies; just Section 1 of the Charter limits what can be considered a Remedy by the Law Society that controls the Judge. All Courts are Free Masonic Courts and Free Masonry is simply worshiping of Lucifer. It is about doing evil to appease Lucifer and gain power over others, it has nothing to do with freedom or true justice. The force of law is completely laughable in terms of the fraud being perpetrated on world. It is through kidnapping and intimidation and outright torture that they gain compliance from people to make use of their court system to have their charges adjudicated within. The Juries are highly controlled and in some cases simply denied to people charged with offences. The Jury is suppose to find a them innocent in terms of the law beyond a reasonable doubt, but the Judge can over-rule a Jury in Canada, so what's the point of having a Jury? In the USA Jury's are intimidated and truly it is only the ones dumb enough not to find an excuse that serve on the Jury's anyways. Who wants to be paid $15 a day or something like that to sit on a Jury for perhaps months in lengthy trials, while the Crown, Lawyers and Judge are racking in thousands of dollars a day in some cases.

The USA has a similar enslavement situation built into the Constitution. It is in the Preamble, We the People. The word People is not defined, but it means those who have signed the document and their related counter parts. Those that signed it were all Free Masons and it is meant only as law for Free Masons within the Temple Bar, or BAR Association. Everyone else must beg to get in, through an application form, application meaning to beg. This would be your application for your SSN number or Drivers License etc. The Birth Certificate also makes your body the property of the Rothschild's, thus their slave and the Rothschild's are the Vatican's Bankers, descendants of the Knights Templar. It is the Vatican Cannon Law that is supreme law upon the planet and it is based upon the Holy See being a Dictatorship over all.

For the UCC stuff, the Banker's Law there has been some success with this in offsetting charges and applying liens and arresting bonds of public officials or even liquidating bonds. However in all this I have seen no evidence of this actually transpiring, even though some will swear it does. So check it out and see what you can make of it. The Judges in the USA do not have Bonds or at least some of them don't as persons have no regards in their court. In Canada Judges are akin to being Kings or Queens and it seems that only the Shadow Government has any power over them. The RCMP also have bonds and some RCMP members have had their bonds liquidated I have heard, but again I have seen no evidence of this. The UCC was created by the Pope to standardize commerce throughout the planet, within the world rather. It is set up so that every Country operates the same in terms of financial transactions so people are paid for their products and services. Using it within the courts to settle charges is still being worked out, but much effort has been put into Trust Laws recently and looks somewhat promising. It was pointed out to me this week that when you go for a loan, the Bank Loan Officer puts an X beside every place they want you to sign. If you look up the definition of a signature in a law dictionary you will see it means to make any kind of a mark on the signature line. Thus the Bank by putting the X on the line has signed the document first and has become the trustee for the loan and you, well you are the one they are holding the trust for and it is your signature that creates the funds for the bank. Pretty slick move if you ask me.

So beyond all this living a life without law would mean simply that no force of law could be used to enslave us. The issue is not so much the law as it is the slavery, but banking and law are tools of tyrants to create slavery. To overcome the issue of safety everyone simply could carry a gun on them. If we were all armed we could take matters into our own hands as it should be. Those that incur harm on others are simply rounded up by the rest of us and taken for a psych evaluation. We don't need money we need everyone to be independent and have access to a distribution system where they can gain access to technology and the knowledge to create self sufficiency. Land is plentiful if we restructure how we think about cities and our environment and make use of technologies that purify toxins and restore balance to the environment.

As for work, well truly there are a lot of jobs that are not needed because of redundancy and how we would want to live in a self sufficient life style. There is no need for greed here, only the need to feel that you want to serve others in capacities that make you happy. So if you like to be part of the inventors association creating new things, labs could be created with specialized equipment to help you do that pooling together like minded people. If math and science is not your gig, perhaps being outdoors for a 3 or 4 hours a day helping to distribute whatever to those that asked for it might be something you like to do. Or the environment is your thing and we can pool our resources together to create a labs and outdoor working facilities to apply new technologies to cleaning up and maintaining our forests and waterways. It is doing it out of service to others, because your necessities of life are being met, food, housing clothing. Instead of being taught a bunch of meaningless crap in school, the foundations would be on simply learning to read, math and applied science. The pooling of knowledge for all to have access to would allow you to extend from there into any field of interest or multiple interests. Some would very much like to teach what they know and they could be resource people at the various types of labs. Finding drug free solutions to healing people using light and sound perhaps would be of interest to you or opting to use Rife Technologies. The door is wide open.

This situation is not only plausible it is totally possible. It is simply a matter of getting these control freaks to back off and letting us be free long enough to create this transition of thought and freedom. They are quite welcome to be part of all this, but they have no say on what others can and cannot do with their lives and in service to others. Those that interfere with others are again rounded up and brought before the community in the open for all to ask questions of them and to remind them that what they are doing is enslaving others and freeing them and if they continue to do so they will have their freedom taken from them as they had chosen to do to others and be educated on what they are doing is has caused harmed and look for ways of allowing them to operate within our community without causing harm to us or them. I think once people are self sufficient and realize who and what is trying to enslave them; it will be natural to do this kind of thing. Those who try to enslave others will be removed from the community and put into a structure where they can cause no harm to others and have a somewhat limited freedom until they could be trusted again.

This is kind of a rough draft of what could easily be, but it is going to take a concerted effort to educate others that being slaves to the Rothschild's and the Pope will not create the world we want. These Secret Societies have to be knocked down and their web of power has to be dismantled. Simply put there are more of us than there are of them. If we make a concerted effort to restructure and simply take over there is nothing they can do to stop us. The military has no authority to stop us as they are supposed to be working for us, not for the Governments. Governments were created by man and we have the power to restructure them in any way we want them to be, so they work for all not for the few. In truth there is no need for Government at all, just the basics as I mentioned above.

So start asking questions. Challenge these people in positions of apparent power. They are not doing what they are doing for your good, so why swallow the poison? Can this happen in our life times? Sure it can! Being free is a matter of state of mind. The current state of mind by these psychopaths is to reduce the world population down to 500,000,000. Did you get your notice that you were one of them? We can turn this around, but it is going to take effort to teach others. We all share in our dominion over the earth and all law exists within fiction, because no one can prove how they get authority over another. What has gone on in the past is in the past, we have to start looking at our future and begin to acknowledge that what we have done in the past has nearly destroyed our planet and has created extinctions and unbelievable suffering on us and nature in general. Do we really want that for our future or are we going to work together to create a future that works for all of us?
