1 Introduction

The vast majority of Americans educated in public (e.g. “government”) schools in this deluded day and age graduate with no formal education about law. This:

1. Makes Americans functionally illiterate in society.
2. Renders them unable to personally enforce the protection of their Constitutional rights in court.
3. Destroys the ability of the average American to supervise the actions of:
 - 3.1. Public servants acting on his or her behalf within a representative government.
 - 3.2. Members of the legal profession in protecting their rights.
4. Undermines the democratic process by rendering the average American unable to judge the qualifications of candidates for public office, most of whom are lawyers.
5. Causes most Americans to blindly obey whatever anyone in the legal profession or the government says without question, and thereby creates a form of government called a “dulocracy”:

“Dulocracy. A government where servants and slaves have so much license and privilege that they domineer.”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 501]

6. Renders only the most wealthy members of society who can afford legal representation as the only class of persons that the government will be legally obligated to respect the rights of.
7. Makes government into a state-sponsored religion.
8. Makes the legal profession into the equivalent of a state-sponsored “priesthood”. Attorneys are “deacons” of the government church.
9. Makes courts into state “church” buildings.
10. Makes court hearings and trials into religious worship ceremonies.
11. Makes judges into “priests” of a civil religion.
12. Causes Americans to obey laws that apply primarily to government “officers” and “employees” and do not pertain to them.
13. Encourages public servants to:
 - 13.1. Publish “codes” that aren’t “public law”, but rather “private law” that only applies to government employees and to illegally enforce these “codes” against private Americans who aren’t the proper subject.
 - 13.2. Mis-represent “private law” as “public law” in order to unlawfully expand their importance, power, revenues, and jurisdiction.

See:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

14. Encourages public servants and members of the legal profession to engage in self-serving and prejudicial presumption in order to unlawfully expand their importance, power, revenues, and jurisdiction. See:

Presumption: Chief Means of Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

This concise memorandum of law will prove with evidence that nearly all civil laws, statutes, and “codes” passed by government:

1. Are “private law” that apply only to those who individually consent to act as “public officers” of the government.
2. Are not “public law” that applies to everyone equally.
3. Protect public rights and public franchises, rather than private rights and private property. In fact, in many cases they do not even acknowledge private rights or private human beings. Hence, “man”, “woman” are not defined, but “individual” is, meaning public officer.
4. Apply only on federal territory.
5. Are unenforceable outside of federal territory or against those not domiciled on federal territory.
6. Can be rendered inoperative against a private party and the average American in any court when properly challenged.

This document applies to any kind of government, whether it be municipal, state, or federal. We will use federal law in most cases to demonstrate our point, but the discussion applies to all types of governments.

2 Why equal protection implies that no government can have any more authority than a single man

The Declaration of Independence asserts that all men are created equal.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -"
[Declaration of Independence]

An extension of the above requirement is that all "persons" are equal and that the only difference between human "persons" and artificial "persons" is the applicability of the Bill of Rights to humans but not artificial "persons". Here is an example of this equality from federal statutes, keeping in mind that all GOVERNMENTS are also "persons":

TITLE 42 > CHAPTER 21 > SUBCHAPTER 1 > Sec. 1981.
Sec. 1981. - Equal rights under the law

(a) Statement of equal rights

All persons within the jurisdiction of the United States shall have the same right in every State and Territory to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties, give evidence, and to the full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of persons and property as is enjoyed by white citizens, shall be subject to like punishment, pains, penalties, taxes, licenses, and exactions of every kind, and to no other.

If all men and all "persons" are equal, then:

1. Kings are impossible.
2. The source of all sovereignty is the People AS INDIVIDUALS.
3. All governments are established by authority delegated by the INDIVIDUAL PEOPLE they serve. In that sense, they govern ONLY by our continuing consent and when they fail to do their job properly, it is our right AND duty as the Sovereigns they serve to fire them by changing our domicile and forming a competing government that does a better job.
4. No group or collection of men can have any more authority than a single man or woman.
5. No government, which is simply a collection of men, can have any more authority, rights, or privileges than a single man or woman.
6. The people cannot delegate an authority they do not themselves individually have. For instance, they cannot delegate the authority to injure the equal rights of others by stealing from others. Hence, they cannot delegate an authority to a government to collect a tax that redistributes wealth by taking from one group of private individuals and giving it to another group or class of private individuals.
7. A government that asserts "sovereign immunity" must also give human beings the same right as a requirement of equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of the Constitution. When governments assert sovereign immunity in court, their opponent has to produce evidence in writing of their consent to be sued. The same concept of sovereign immunity pertains to us as human beings and sovereigns, where if the government attempts to allege that we consented to something, they too must produce evidence of consent to be sued and surrender rights IN WRITING.
8. Inequality is possible:
 - 8.1. Only between PRIVATE parties.
 - 8.2. Only with the consent of BOTH PRIVATE parties involved, and only involving contracts between PRIVATE "persons".
9. It is against the Declaration of Independence and the organic law that a human being can be UNEQUAL in relation to a de jure governments, which are PUBLIC "persons" protected by the Constitution. This is because all constitutional rights are "unalienable", and therefore cannot be bargained away to make anyone unequal to a government "person".

"Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

10. The only place where "persons" can be UNEQUAL in relation to a real de jure government is on federal territory or as a federal statutory "employee" or "public officer" where:
 - 10.1. Constitutional rights and the Bill of Rights do not exist or apply.

1 10.2. The government is a “parens patriae”.

2 10.3. EVERYTHING is a privilege and not a right.

3 If you would like a wonderful, animated version of the above concepts, then we highly recommend the following:

Philosophy of Liberty

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/PhilosophyOfLiberty.htm>

4 Why is all of this relevant and important to the subject of government authority over private persons? Because once you
5 understand this concept of equality, you also understand that:

- 6 1. The foundation of the Constitution is equal protection.
- 7 2. Any attempt to make us unequal constitutes tyranny, usurpation, and slavery.
- 8 3. The government cannot lawfully offer franchises to human beings protected by the constitution, because if they do, 9 they are:
 - 10 3.1. Attempting to elevate themselves to an unequal position.
 - 11 3.2. Trying to destroy equal protection and the rights protected by equal protection.
 - 12 3.3. Attempting to replace rights with privileges and the franchises that implement the privileges.
 - 13 3.4. Undermining the purpose of their creation, which is the protection of private rights.
 - 14 3.5. Violating the organic law found in the Declaration of Independence, which says that private rights are 15 “unalienable” and therefore cannot be sold, bargained away, or transferred through any commercial process,
16 including a franchise.
 - 17 3.6. Attempting to convert private property and private rights into public property, which constitutes conversion and is 18 a crime in violation of 18 U.S.C. §654.
- 19 4. Any attempt to do any of the following constitutes tyranny, usurpation, and slavery because it compels us into 20 subjection and subordination to a political ruler as a “public official”:
 - 21 4.1. Compel us to participate in a government franchise.
 - 22 4.2. Presume that we consented to participate in said franchise without being required to obtain our consent in writing 23 where all rights surrendered to procure the benefits of the franchise are fully disclosed.
 - 24 4.3. Replace a de jure government service with a franchise.
 - 25 4.4. Confer benefits of a franchise against our will and without our consent.
- 26 5. Any attempt to make some persons or groups of persons more equal than others is idolatry in violation of the first four 27 commandments of the Ten Commandments. See Exodus 20:3-8. It amounts to the establishment of a religion and a
28 “superior being”. All religions are based on the “worship” of superior beings, and the essence of “worship” is 29 obedience. The fact that obedience to this superior being is a product of the force implemented under the color of law
30 doesn’t change the nature of the relationship at all. It is STILL a religion.

31 “You shall have no other gods [or rulers or governments] before Me.

32 You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above,
33 or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to 34 them nor serve them [rulers or governments]. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God,
35 visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who
36 hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.
37 [Exodus 20:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

38 Let’s now apply these concepts to the practical affairs of life. If three people are in a room and two of them decide to gang
39 up on the third and write a document called the “CONstitution” which imposes a “duty” upon that third person and only
40 that third person to pay them money so they can retire at his or her expense, would they have the moral authority to impose
41 such a duty? And if they don’t have the moral authority to impose such a duty, can they:

- 42 1. Delegate that authority to something they created called “government”?
- 43 2. Call the money collected a “tax”?
- 44 3. Use the money to pay for services that the third person doesn’t want and doesn’t need and actually regards as harmful 45 to his liberty?
- 46 4. Use sovereign immunity to protect those who collect the money, and call this group of people the IRS?
- 47 5. Call everyone who challenges these usurpations as “frivolous”, convict them using lies and presumptions that violate 48 due process of law, and put them in jail for refusing to participate in the theft?

1 "To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to
2 bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a
3 robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree
4 under legislative forms.

5 Nor is it taxation. 'A tax,' says Webster's Dictionary, 'is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or
6 property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.' 'Taxes are burdens or charges
7 imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.' Cooley, Const.
8 Lim., 479.

9 Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John's Church, 13 Pa. St., 104 says, very forcibly, 'I think the common
10 mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the 11 government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they
12 are imposed for a public purpose.' See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St., 69; Matter of Mayor of
13 N.Y., 11 Johns., 77; Camden v. Allen, 2 Dutch., 398; Sharpless v. Mayor, supra; Hanson v. Vernon, 27 Ia., 47;
14 Whiting v. Fond du Lac, supra."

16 The U.S. Supreme Court has acknowledged the conclusions of this section when it admitted that when governments enter
17 what it calls "private business", they take on the same legal standing as any private person:

18 See also Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363, 369 (1943) ("The United States does business on 19 business terms") (quoting United States v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 270 U.S. 527, 534 (1926));
20 Perry v. United States, supra at 352 (1935) ("When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes 21 contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such 22 instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the United States cannot be sued without its consent")
23 (citation omitted); United States v. Bostwick, 94 U.S. 53, 66 (1877) ("The United States, when they contract
24 with their citizens, are controlled by the same laws that govern the citizen in that behalf"); Cooke v. United 25 States, 91 U.S. 389, 398 (1875) (explaining that when the United States "comes down from its position of 26 sovereignty, and enters the domain of commerce, it submits itself to the same laws that govern individuals 27 there").

28 See Jones, 1 Cl.Ct. at 85 ("Wherever the public and private acts of the government seem to commingle, a
29 citizen or corporate body must by supposition be substituted in its place, and then the question be determined
30 whether the action will lie against the supposed defendant"); O'Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 31 (1982) (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, "[w]ere [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the 32 party hurt by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing
33 action"). The dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz 34 drew its reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize 35 the need to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.

38 "When a State engages in ordinary commercial ventures, it acts like a private person, outside the area of its 39 "core" responsibilities, and in a way unlikely to prove essential to the fulfillment of a basic governmental 40 obligation. A Congress that decides to regulate those state commercial activities rather than to exempt the 41 State likely believes that an exemption, by treating the State differently from identically situated private 42 persons, would threaten the objectives of a federal regulatory program aimed primarily at private conduct.
43 Compare, e.g., 12 U.S.C. §1841(b) (1994 ed., Supp. III) (exempting state companies from regulations covering
44 federal bank holding companies); 15 U.S. C. §77c(a)(2) (exempting state-issued securities from federal 45 securities laws); and 29 U.S.C §652(5) (exempting States from the definition of "employer[s]" subject to federal
46 occupational safety and health laws), with 11 U.S.C. §106(a) (subjecting States to federal bankruptcy court
47 judgments); 15 U.S. C. §1122(a) (subjecting States to suit for violation of Lanham Act); 17 U.S.C. §511(a)
48 (subjecting States to suit for copyright infringement); 35 U.S.C. §271(h) (subjecting States to suit for patent 49 infringement). And a Congress that includes the State not only within its substantive regulatory rules but also 50 (expressly) within a related system of private remedies likely believes that a remedial exemption would similarly 51 threaten that program. See Florida Prepaid Postsecondary Ed. Expense Bd. v. College Savings Bank, ante, at 52 ____ (Stevens , J., dissenting). It thereby avoids an enforcement gap which, when allied with the pressures of a
53 competitive marketplace, could place the State's regulated private competitors at a significant disadvantage.

54 "These considerations make Congress' need to possess the power to condition entry into the market upon a
55 waiver of sovereign immunity (as "necessary and proper" to the exercise of its commerce power) unusually
56 strong, for to deny Congress that power would deny Congress the power effectively to regulate private conduct.
57 Cf. California v. Taylor , 353 U.S. 553, 566 (1957). At the same time they make a State's need to exercise
58 sovereign immunity unusually weak, for the State is unlikely to have to supply what private firms already 59 supply, nor may it fairly demand special treatment, even to protect the public purse, when it does so. Neither
60 can one easily imagine what the Constitution's founders would have thought about the assertion of sovereign
61 immunity in this special context. These considerations, differing in kind or degree from those that would support

1 a general congressional "abrogation" power, indicate that Parden 's holding is sound, irrespective of this

4 3 The constitution is law for government, not the people¹

5 The constitution not only binds no citizens now, but it never did bind any citizens. It never bound citizens, because it was 6 never agreed to by citizens in such a manner as to make it, on general principles of law and reason, binding upon them.
7 Those who administer our government take an oath to be bound by it pursuant to Article 6 of the Constitution.

8 United States Constitution, Article. VI.

9 The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all
10 *executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or
11 Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any* 12 Office or public Trust under the United States.

13 But what does "support this Constitution" really mean? Does that mean "obey" the constitution? That doesn't seem to be
14 the way the courts interpret it, at least. The courts in our corrupted government behave more like a protection racket for a
15 mafia than a guardian of the sacred rights of individuals. This kind of protection of criminal activity is called 16 "racketeering" and it is among the most serious of all crimes. See 18 U.S.C. §1951.

17 Therefore, those who serve us as officers within the government are the only ones for whom the Constitution can be called 18 "law" or impose any duty in any legitimate sense:

19 "And the Constitution itself is in every real sense a law-the lawmakers being the people themselves, in whom 20 under our system all political power and sovereignty primarily resides, and through whom such power and
21 sovereignty primarily speaks. It is by that law, and not otherwise, that the legislative, executive, and judicial
22 agencies which it created exercise such political authority as they have been permitted to possess. The 23 Constitution speaks for itself in terms so plain that to misunderstand their import is not rationally possible.
24 'We the People of the United States,' it says, 'do ordain and establish this Constitution.' Ordain and establish!
25 These are definite words of enactment, and without more would stamp what follows with the dignity and 26 character of law. The framers of the Constitution, however, were not content to let the matter rest here, but
27 provided explicitly- 'This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance
28 thereof; ... shall be the supreme Law of the Land.' (Const. art. 6, cl. 2.) The supremacy of the Constitution as 29 law is thus declared without qualification. That supremacy is absolute; the supremacy of a statute enacted by
30 Congress is not absolute but conditioned upon its being made in pursuance of the Constitution. And a
31 judicial tribunal, clothed by that instrument with complete judicial power, and, therefore, by the very nature of 32 the power, required to ascertain and apply the law to the facts in every case or proceeding properly brought for 33 adjudication, must apply the supreme law and reject the inferior stat- [298 U.S. 238, 297] ute whenever the two
34 conflict. In the discharge of that duty, the opinion of the lawmakers that a statute passed by them is valid must 35 be given great weight, Adkins v. Children's Hospital, 261 U.S. 525, 544, 43 S.Ct. 394, 24 A.L.R. 1238; but their

38 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 (1936)]

39 The Constitution therefore is "law" written by We the People which applies exclusively to and "governs" those who work
40 in the government and who take an oath to obey it. This is exactly how the Supreme Court described this relationship when 41 they said:

42 "It is again to antagonize Chief Justice Marshall, when he said: The government of the Union, then (whatever 43 may be the influence of this fact on the case), is emphatically and truly a government of the people [We The 44 People]. In form and in substance it emanates from them. Its powers are granted by them, and are to be 45 exercised directly on them and for their benefit. This government is acknowledged by all to be one of 46 enumerated powers.' 4 Wheat. 404, 4 L.Ed. 601."
47 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

48 "The words 'people of the United States' and 'citizens,' are synonymous terms, and mean the same thing. They 49 *both describe the political body who, according to our republican institutions, form the sovereignty, and who

1 Boyd v. State of Nebraska, [143 U.S. 135 (1892)]

2 The U.S. Supreme Court identifies the Constitution as a “compact”:

3 “The people of the United States erected their Constitutions, or forms of government, to establish justice, to
4 promote the general welfare, to secure the blessings of liberty; and to protect their persons and property from
5 violence. The purposes for which men enter into society will determine the nature and terms of the social
6 compact; and as they are the foundation of the legislative power, they will decide what are the proper objects of 7 it: The nature, and ends of legislative power will limit the exercise of it.”

8 [Calder v. Bull, 3 U.S. 386, 1798 WL 587 (1798)]

9 “In Europe, the executive is synonymous with the sovereign power of a state...where it is too commonly
10 acquired by force or fraud, or both...In America, however the case is widely different. Our government is 11 founded upon compact [consent expressed in a written contract called a Constitution or in positive law].
12 Sovereignty was, and is, in the people [as individuals: that’s you!].”

13 [Glass v. The Sloop Betsy, 3 (U.S.) Dall 6]

14 A “compact” is a contract or agreement:

15 “Compact, n. An agreement or contract between persons, nations, or states. Commonly applied to working
16 agreements between and among states concerning matters of mutual concern. A contract between parties,
17 which creates obligations and rights capable of being enforced and contemplated as such between the parties,
18 in their distinct and independent characters. A mutual consent of parties concerned respecting some property
19 or right that is the object of the stipulation, or something that is to be done or forborne. See also Compact
20 clause; Confederacy; Interstate compact; Treaty.”

21 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 281]

22 It is a general principle of law and reason, that a written instrument such as the Constitution is binds no one until he has 23 signed it or consented to it in some way. This principle is so inflexible a one, that even though a man is unable to write his 24 name, he must still "make his mark," before he is bound by a written contract. This custom was established ages ago, when
25 few men could write their names; when a clerk -- that is, a man who could write -- was so rare and valuable a person, that
26 even if he were guilty of high crimes, he was entitled to pardon, on the ground that the public could not afford to lose his
27 services. Even at that time, a written contract must be signed; and men who could not write, either "made their mark," or 28 signed their contracts by stamping their seals upon wax affixed to the parchment on which their contracts were written.
29 Hence the custom of affixing seals, that has continued to this time.

30 The law holds, and reason declares, that if a written instrument is not signed, the presumption must be that the party to be
31 bound by it, did not choose to sign it, or to bind himself by it. And law and reason both give him until the last moment, in 32 which to decide whether he will sign it, or not. Neither law nor reason requires or expects a man to agree to an instrument,
33 until it is written; for until it is written, he cannot know its precise legal meaning. And when it is written, and he has had the 34 opportunity to satisfy himself of its precise legal meaning, he is then expected to decide, and not before, whether he will
35 agree to it or not. And if he does not THEN sign it, his reason is supposed to be, that he does not choose to enter into such a
36 contract. The fact that the instrument was written for him to sign, or with the hope that he would sign it, goes for nothing.

37 Where would be the end of fraud and litigation, if one party could bring into court a written instrument, without any
38 signature, and claim to have it enforced, upon the ground that it was written for another man to sign? that this other man
39 had promised to sign it? that he ought to have signed it? that he had had the opportunity to sign it, if he would? but that he
40 had refused or neglected to do so? Yet that is the most that could ever be said of the Constitution. The very judges, who 41 profess to derive all their authority from the Constitution -- from an instrument that nobody ever signed -- would spurn any 42 other instrument, not signed, that should be brought before them for adjudication. The very men who drafted it, never 43 signed it in any way to bind themselves by it, AS A CONTRACT. And not one of them probably ever would have signed it
44 in any way to bind himself by it, AS A CONTRACT.

45 There are, of course, cases where consent may be procured implicitly or tacitly and not in writing, but these cases are few
46 and do not and cannot pertain to the enforcement of the provisions of the Constitution or any laws passed in furtherance of 47 it against a private citizen. For instance, if a renter agrees verbally to sign a lease and never does, and yet later moves into 48 the premises without signing it, he is presumed to consent to the lease agreement.

49 “Implied consent. That manifested by signs, actions, or facts, or by inaction or silence, which raise a
50 presumption that the consent has been given. For example, when a corporation does business in a state it
51 impliedly consents to be subject to the jurisdiction of that state’s courts in the event of tortious conduct, even 52 though it is not incorporated in that state. Most every state has a statute implying the consent of one who drives

1 upon its highways to submit to some type of scientific test or tests measuring the alcoholic content of the
2 driver's blood. In addition to implying consent, these statutes usually provide that if the result of the test shows
3 that the alcohol content exceeds a specified percentage, then a rebuttable presumption of intoxication arises."
4 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, pp. 276-277]

5 This concept of implied consent, however, does not properly extend to the enforcement of laws passed in furtherance of the 6 Constitution against private citizens. Some ignorant persons would say, for instance, that a domicile of a person in a place
7 is sufficient to justify enforcement of civil laws of that venue against that person. However, domicile requires more than 8 just physical presence in a place. The government doesn't OWN private land and isn't the landlord. The only land they 9 own is federal territory and this federal territory is the only land they can play landlord over by passing laws. Instead,
10 domicile requires the coincidence of physical presence now or in the past AND consent to be bound by the laws of that 11 place. This requirement for consent, in fact, is the foundation of the Declaration of Independence: Consent of the governed.
12 When a person chooses a domicile in a place, he consents to the civil laws of that place, and he can have a domicile in a
13 place that he doesn't physically reside in at the time. Criminal laws don't require his consent but civil laws do. In that 14 sense, one's choice of domicile is a choice to procure the civil (not criminal) protection of the sovereign within a specific
15 jurisdiction and it has the practical effect of turning a sovereign "transient foreigner" protected by the common law into a
16 "subject" who is a slave to the government and to statutory law that can only apply to federal territory.

17 "Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in
18 transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the
19 Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates
20 universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter
21 obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course,
22 the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most
23 obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located."
24 [Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

25 Courts and public servants frequently and self-servingly try to hide the nature of the consensual transaction called 26 "domicile" undertaken to procure government protection by hiding the consensual aspect of the transaction. They will, for 27 instance, try to refer to this consent instead as "an intent to permanently remain in a place".

28 "domicile. A person's legal home. That place where a man has his true, fixed, and permanent home and 29 principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent he has the intention of returning. Smith v. Smith,
30 206 Pa.Super. 310, 213 A.2d. 94. Generally, physical presence within a state and the intention to make it one's
31 home are the requisites of establishing a "domicile" therein. The permanent residence of a person or the place
32 to which he intends to return even though he may actually reside elsewhere. A person may have more than one
33 residence but only one domicile. The legal domicile of a person is important since it, rather than the actual 34 residence, often controls the jurisdiction of the taxing authorities and determines where a person may 35 exercise the privilege of voting and other legal rights and privileges."
36 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 485]

37 All such machinations to remove the requirement for consent from the definition of domicile constitute an attempt to bring
38 a people under the involuntary subjection of political personages who would otherwise have no authority. This elaborate 39 scam to subjugate and tax the people is exhaustively described below:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

40 Moreover, a written instrument must, in law and reason, not only be signed, but must also be delivered to the party (or to 41 someone for him), in whose favor it is made, before it can bind the party making it. The signing is of no effect, unless the 42 instrument be also delivered. And a party is at perfect liberty to refuse to deliver a written instrument, after he has signed it.
43 The Constitution was not only never signed by anybody, but it was never delivered by anybody, or to anybody's agent or 44 attorney. It can therefore be of no more validity as a contract, then can any other instrument that was never signed or 45 delivered.

46 As further evidence of the general sense of mankind, as to the practical necessity there is that all men's IMPORTANT
47 contracts, especially those of a permanent nature, should be both written and signed, the following facts are pertinent.

48 For nearly two hundred years -- that is, since 1677 -- there has been on the statute book of England, and the same, in
49 substance, if not precisely in letter, has been re-enacted, and is now in force, in nearly all the states of this Union, a statute,
50 the general object of which is to declare that no action shall be brought to enforce contracts of the more important class,

1 UNLESS THEY ARE PUT IN WRITING, AND SIGNED BY THE PARTIES TO BE HELD CHARGEABLE UPON
2 THEM.

3 The principle of the statute, be it observed, is, not merely that written contracts shall be signed, but also that all contracts,
4 except for those specially exempted -- generally those that are for small amounts, and are to remain in force for but a short
5 time -- SHALL BE BOTH WRITTEN AND SIGNED.

6 The reason of the statute, on this point, is, that it is now so easy a thing for men to put their contracts in writing, and sign
7 them, and their failure to do so opens the door to so much doubt, fraud, and litigation, that men who neglect to have their
8 contracts -- of any considerable importance -- written and signed, ought not to have the benefit of courts of justice to
9 enforce them. And this reason is a wise one; and that experience has confirmed its wisdom and necessity, is demonstrated
10 by the fact that it has been acted upon in England for nearly two hundred years, and has been so nearly universally adopted
11 in this country, and that nobody thinks of repealing it.

12 We all know, too, how careful most men are to have their contracts written and signed, even when this statute does not
13 require it. For example, most men, if they have money due them, of no larger amount than five or ten dollars, are careful to 14 take a note for it. If they buy even a small bill of goods, paying for it at the time of delivery, they take a receipted bill for it.
15 If they pay a small balance of a book account, or any other small debt previously contracted, they take a written receipt for 16 it.

17 Furthermore, the law everywhere (probably) in our country, as well as in England, requires that a large class of contracts,
18 such as wills, deeds, etc., shall not only be written and signed, but also sealed, witnessed, and acknowledged. And in the 19 case of married women conveying their rights in real estate, the law, in many States, requires that the women shall be 20 examined separate and apart from their husbands, and declare that they sign their contracts free of any fear or compulsion
21 of their husbands.

22 Such are some of the precautions which the laws require, and which individuals -- from motives of common prudence, even
23 in cases not required by law -- take, to put their contracts in writing, and have them signed, and, to guard against all
24 uncertainties and controversies in regard to their meaning and validity. And yet we have what purports, or professes, or is
25 claimed, to be a contract or compact-- the Constitution -- made by men who are now all dead, and who never had any 26 power to bind US, but which (it is claimed) has nevertheless bound generations of men, consisting of many millions, and
27 which (it is claimed) will be binding upon all the millions that are to come; but which nobody ever signed, sealed,
28 delivered, witnessed, or acknowledged; and which few persons, compared with the whole number that are claimed to be
29 bound by it, have ever read, or even seen, or ever will read, or see. And of those who ever have read it, or ever will read it,
30 scarcely any two, perhaps no two, have ever agreed, or ever will agree, as to what it means.

31 Moreover, this supposed contract, which would not be received in any court of justice sitting under its authority, if offered
32 to prove a debt of five dollars, owing by one man to another, is one by which -- AS IT IS GENERALLY INTERPRETED
33 BY THOSE WHO PRETEND TO ADMINISTER IT -- all men, women and children throughout the country, and through 34 all time, surrender not only all their property, but also their liberties, and even lives, into the hands of men who by this
35 supposed contract, are expressly made wholly irresponsible for their disposal of them. And we are so insane, or so wicked,
36 as to destroy property and lives without limit, in fighting to compel men to fulfill a supposed contract, which, inasmuch as
37 it has never been signed by anybody, is, on general principles of law and reason -- such principles as we are all governed by 38 in regard to other contracts -- the merest waste of paper, binding upon no citizen, fit only to be thrown into the fire; or, if
39 preserved, preserved only to serve as a witness and a warning of the folly and wickedness of mankind.

40 It is plain, then, that on general principles of law and reason -- such principles as we all act upon in courts of justice and in
41 common life -- the Constitution is no contract; that it binds only those who take an oath to obey it within the government;
42 that, on general principles of law and reason, those within the government who administer its provisions or laws passed in 43 furtherance of it against citizens who are not party to it are mere usurpers, and that everybody not only has the right, but is 44 morally bound, to treat them as such.

45 If the people of this country wish to maintain such a government as the Constitution describes, there is no reason in the 46 world why they should not sign the instrument itself, and thus make known their wishes in an open, authentic manner; in 47 such manner as the common sense and experience of mankind have shown to be reasonable and necessary in such cases;
48 AND IN SUCH MANNER AS TO MAKE THEMSELVES (AS THEY OUGHT TO DO) INDIVIDUALLY
49 RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACTS OF THE GOVERNMENT. But neither our public servants nor any member of the

1 public have never been asked to sign it. And the only reason why they have never been asked to sign it, has been that it has
2 been known that they ever would sign it; that they were neither such fools nor knaves as they must have been to be willing
3 to sign it; that (at least as it has been practically interpreted) it is not what any sensible and honest man wants for himself;
4 nor such as he has any right to impose upon others. It is, to all moral intents and purposes, as destitute of obligations as the 5 compacts which robbers and thieves and pirates enter into with each other, but never sign.

6 If any considerable number of the people believe the Constitution to be good, why do they not sign it themselves, and make
7 laws for, and administer them upon, each other; leaving all other persons (who do not interfere with them) in peace? Until 8 they have tried the experiment for themselves, how can they have the face to impose the Constitution upon, or even to 9 recommend it to, others? Plainly the reason for the absurd and inconsistent conduct is that they want the Constitution, not 10 solely for any honest or legitimate use it can be to themselves or others, but for the dishonest and illegitimate power it gives 11 them over the persons and properties of others. But for this latter reason, all their eulogiums on the Constitution, all their 12 exhortations, and all their expenditures of money and blood to sustain it, would be wanting.

13 It is obvious that, on general principles of law and reason, there exists no such thing as a government created by, or resting
14 upon, any consent, compact, or agreement of "the people of the United States" with each other; that the only visible,
15 tangible, responsible government that exists, is that of a few individuals only, who act in concert, and call themselves by the 16 several names of senators, representatives, presidents, judges, marshals, treasurers, collectors, generals, colonels, captains,
17 etc., etc.

18 On general principles of law and reason, it is of no importance whatever that these few individuals profess to be the agents
19 and representatives of "the people of the United States"; since they can show no credentials from the people themselves;
20 they were never appointed as agents or representatives in any open, authentic, written manner by any specific individual
21 who signed the Constitution as a contract; they do not themselves know, and have no means of knowing, and cannot prove,
22 who their principals (as they call them) are individually; and consequently cannot, in law or reason, be said to have any 23 principals at all.

24 It is obvious, too, that if these alleged principals ever did appoint these pretended agents, or representatives, they appointed
25 them secretly (by secret ballot), and in a way to avoid all personal responsibility for their acts; that, at most, these alleged
26 principals put these pretended agents forward for the most criminal purposes, viz.: to plunder the people of their property,
27 and restrain them of their liberty; and that the only authority that these alleged principals have for so doing, is simply a
28 TACIT UNDERSTANDING among themselves that they will imprison, shoot, or hang every man who resists the exactions
29 and restraints which their agents or representatives may impose upon them.

30 Thus it is obvious that the only visible, tangible government we have is made up of these professed agents or 31 representatives of a secret band of robbers and murderers, who, to cover up, or gloss over, their robberies and murders, have
32 taken to themselves the title of "the people of the United States"; and who, on the pretense of being "the people of the 33 United States," assert their right to subject to their dominion, and to control and dispose of at their pleasure, all property and 34 persons found in the United States.

35 Those who like to argue with the conclusions of this section like to point to the following holding of the Supreme Court of 36 the United States. They will state that the purpose of the Constitution was to fix the chief defect of the Articles of 37 Confederation, which was that that the federal government at the time had no jurisdiction over people:

38 Indeed, the question whether the Constitution should permit Congress to employ state governments as 39 regulatory agencies was a topic of lively debate among the Framers. Under the Articles of Confederation,
40 Congress lacked the authority in most respects to govern the people directly. In practice, Congress "could not 41 directly tax or legislate upon individuals; it had no explicit 'legislative' or 'governmental' power to make 42 binding 'law' enforceable as such. Amar. Of Sovereignty and Federalism, 96 Yale L.J. 1425, 1447 (1987).

43 The inadequacy of this governmental structure was responsible in part for the Constitutional Convention.
44 Alexander Hamilton observed: "The great and radical vice in the construction of the existing Confederation is
45 in the principle of LEGISLATION for STATES or GOVERNMENTS, in their CORPORATE or COLLECTIVE 46 CAPACITIES, and as contra-distinguished from the INDIVIDUALS of whom they consist." The 2422
47 Federalist No. 15, p. 108 (C. Rossiter ed. 1961). As Hamilton saw it, "we must resolve to incorporate into our 48 plan those ingredients which may be considered as forming the characteristic difference between a league
49 and a government; we must extend the authority of the Union to the persons of the citizens-the only proper
50 objects of government." Id., at 109. The new National Government "must carry its agency to the persons of the 51 citizens. It must stand in need of no intermediate legislations.... The government of the Union, like that of each
52 State, must be able to address itself immediately to the hopes and fears of individuals." Id., No. 16, at 116.

1 *164 The Convention generated a great number of proposals for the structure of the new Government, but two
2 quickly took center stage. Under the Virginia Plan, as first introduced by Edmund Randolph, Congress would
3 exercise legislative authority directly upon individuals, without employing the States as intermediaries. 1
4 Records of the Federal Convention of 1787, p. 21 (M. Farrand ed. 1911). Under the New Jersey Plan, as first
5 introduced by William Paterson, Congress would continue to require the approval of the States before
6 legislating, as it had under the Articles of Confederation. 1 id., at 243-244. These two plans underwent various 7 revisions as the Convention progressed, but they remained the two primary options discussed by the delegates.
8 One frequently expressed objection to the New Jersey Plan was that it might require the Federal Government to 9 coerce the States into implementing legislation. As Randolph explained the distinction, “[t]he true question is 10 whether we shall adhere to the federal plan [i.e., the New Jersey Plan], or introduce the national plan. The 11 insufficiency of the former has been fully displayed.... There are but two modes, by which the end of a Gen[eral]
12 Gov [ernment] can be attained: the 1st is by coercion as proposed by Mr. P [aterson's] plan[, the 2nd] by real 13 legislation as prop[osed] by the other plan. Coercion [is] impracticable, expensive, cruel to individuals....
14 We must resort therefore to a national Legislation over individuals.” 1 id., at 255-256 (emphasis in original).
15 Madison echoed this view: “The practicability of making laws, with coercive sanctions, for the States as 16 political bodies, had been exploded on all hands.” 2 id., at 9.

17 Under one preliminary draft of what would become the New Jersey Plan, state governments would occupy a
18 position relative to Congress similar to that contemplated by the Act at issue in these cases: “[T]he laws of the 19 United States ought, as far as may be consistent with the common interests of the Union, to be carried into 20 execution by the judiciary and executive officers of the respective states, wherein the execution*165 thereof is 21 required.” 3 id., at 616. This idea apparently never even progressed so far as to be debated by the delegates, as 22 contemporary accounts of the Convention do not mention any such discussion. The delegates’ many 23 descriptions of the Virginia and New Jersey Plans speak only in general terms about whether Congress was to 24 derive its authority from the people or from the States, and whether it was to issue directives to individuals or to 25 States. See 1 id., at 260-280.

26 In the end, the Convention opted for a Constitution in which Congress would exercise its legislative authority
27 directly over individuals rather than over States; for a variety of reasons, it rejected the New Jersey Plan in 28 favor of the Virginia Plan. 1 id., at 313. This choice was made clear to the subsequent state ratifying
29 conventions. Oliver Ellsworth, a member of the Connecticut delegation in Philadelphia, explained the 30 distinction to his State’s convention: “This Constitution does not attempt to coerce sovereign bodies, states, in 31 their political capacity.... But this legal coercion singles out the ... individual.” 2 J. Elliot, Debates on the 32 Federal Constitution 197 (2d ed. 1863). Charles Pinckney, another delegate at the Constitutional Convention,
33 emphasized to the South Carolina House of Representatives that in Philadelphia “the necessity of having a
34 government which should at once 2423 operate upon the people, and not upon the states, was conceived to be 35 indispensable by every delegation present.” 4 id., at 256. Rufus King, one of Massachusetts’ delegates, returned 36 home to support ratification by recalling the Commonwealth’s unhappy experience under the Articles of 37 Confederation and arguing: “Laws, to be effective, therefore, must not be laid on states, but upon 38 individuals.” 2 id., at 56. At New York’s convention, Hamilton (another delegate in Philadelphia) exclaimed:
39 “But can we believe that one state will ever suffer itself to be used as an instrument of coercion? The thing is a
40 dream; it is impossible. Then we are brought to this dilemma-either a federal *166 standing army is to enforce
41 the requisitions, or the federal treasury is left without supplies, and the government without support. What, sir,
42 is the cure for this great evil? Nothing, but to enable the national laws to operate on individuals, in the same
43 manner as those of the states do.” 2 id., at 233. At North Carolina’s convention, Samuel Spencer recognized
44 that “all the laws of the Confederation were binding on the states in their political capacities, ... but now the 45 thing is entirely different. The laws of Congress will be binding on individuals.” 4 id., at 153.

46 In providing for a stronger central government, therefore, the Framers explicitly chose a Constitution that
47 confers upon Congress the power to regulate individuals, not States. As we have seen, the Court has 48 consistently respected this choice. We have always understood that even where Congress has the authority
49 under the Constitution to pass laws requiring or prohibiting certain acts, it lacks the power directly to compel
50 the States to require or prohibit those acts. E.g., FERC v. Mississippi, 456 U.S., at 762-766, 102 S.Ct., at 2138-
51 2141; Hodel v. Virginia Surface Mining & Reclamation Assn., Inc., 452 U.S., at 288-289, 101 S.Ct., at 2366;
52 Lane County v. Oregon, 7 Wall., at 76. The allocation of power contained in the Commerce Clause, for 53 example, authorizes Congress to regulate interstate commerce directly; it does not authorize Congress to 54 regulate state governments’ regulation of interstate commerce.
55 [New York v. U.S., 505 U.S. 144, 112 S.Ct. 2408 (U.S.N.Y.,1992)]

56 The key thing to notice about the above holding of the Supreme Court is that:

- 57 1. The ruling very deliberately doesn’t define exactly which “citizens” and “individuals” they are referring to. If they 58 identified who these entities were, they would spill the beans on their very limited jurisdiction.
- 59 2. The only “individuals” or “citizens” to which they can be referring are those with a domicile on federal territory and 60 NOT within any state of the Union, except possibly in federal areas within the exterior limits of a state of the Union.

61 “It is no longer open to question that the general government, unlike the states, Hammer v. Dagenhart, 247
62 U.S. 251, 275, 38 S.Ct. 529, 3 A.L.R. 649, Ann.Cas.1918E 724, possesses no inherent power in respect of the
63 internal affairs of the states; and emphatically not with regard to legislation.”

3. Those who are statutory “citizens” under 8 U.S.C. §1401 or “residents” under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A) are those with a legal domicile on federal territory. These are the only “citizens” to which they can possibly be referring to. Constitutional “citizens of the United States” as described in the Fourteenth Amendment are not included in the statutory definition of “citizen” found in 8 U.S.C. §1401 and cannot lawfully be included because they are beyond the legislative reach of the federal government. This is exhaustively explained in the memorandum of law below:

Why You are a “National”, “State National”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Consequently, the facts established in this section survive the only argument against them that we have been confronted with to date. The Constitution does not obligate those within the states who are allegedly party to it. The states are the AUTHOR of that law, not the SUBJECT of it:

“Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law for it is the author and source of law;”
[Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

“Under our form of government, the legislature is NOT supreme. It is only one of the organs of that ABSOLUTE SOVEREIGNTY which resides in the whole body of the PEOPLE; like other bodies of the government, it can only exercise such powers as have been delegated to it, and when it steps beyond that boundary, its acts.. are utterly VOID.”
[Billings v. Hall, 7 CA. 1]

The Constitution therefore obligates only those in the government charged with implementing it and it confers jurisdiction only over federal territory, domiciliaries, property, and franchises, which collectively are the “community property” of the states in the “marriage contract” among the states called the Constitution.

“But, indeed, no private person has a right to complain, by suit in Court, on the ground of a breach of the Constitution. The Constitution, it is true, is a compact, but he is not a party to it. The States are the parties to it. And they may complain. If they do, they are entitled to redress. Or they may waive the right to complain. If they do, the right stands waived. Could not the States, in their sovereign capacities, or Congress (if it has the power) as their agent, forgive such a breach of the Constitution, on the part of a State, as that of imposing a tax on imports, or accept reparation for it? In case this were done, what would become of the claims of private persons, for damages for such breach? To let such claims be set up against the forgiven party, would be to do away with the forgiveness. No, if there existed such claimants, they would have to appeal, each to his own sovereign for redress. It was that sovereign's business to get enough from the offending sovereign, to cover all private losses of his own citizens-and if he did not get enough to do that, those citizens must look to him, alone for indemnity.”
[Padelford, Fay & Co. v. Mayor and Aldermen of City of Savannah, 14 Ga. 438, WL 1492, (1854)]

In conclusion, the CONstitution is a CON. It is intended solely to concentrate power into a band of secretly elected usurpers for the purposes of creating an oligarchy of persons who are not directly or personally responsible to the people they are supposed to serve for their actions. It is intended to make what otherwise would be sovereigns into subjects and slaves of political rulers and political correctness.

4 Why the ability to regulate private rights and private conduct is repugnant to the Constitution

4.1 The purpose and foundation of de jure government: Protection of EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE rights

The main purpose for which all governments are established is the protection of EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE rights. This purpose is the foundation of all the just authority of any government as held by the Declaration of Independence:

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.-That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. -”
[Declaration of Independence, 1776]

1 The fiduciary duty that a public officer who works for the government has is founded upon the requirement to protect
2 PRIVATE property.

3 “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be
4 *exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer.”*²
5 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
6 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor
7 under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal
8 financial gain from a discharge of their trusts.”³ That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship to
9 the political entity on whose behalf he or she serves.”⁴ and owes a fiduciary duty to the public.”⁵ It has been
10 said that the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private individual.”⁶
11 Furthermore, it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which tends to weaken
12 public confidence and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public policy.”⁷
13 [63C Am.Jur.2d, Public Officers and Employees, §247]

14 The VERY FIRST step that any lawful de jure government must take in protecting PRIVATE property and PRIVATE
15 rights is to protect it from being converted to PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT property. After all: If the people you hire to 16 protect you won’t even do the job of protecting you from THEM, why should you hire them to protect you from ANYONE 17 ELSE?

18 The U.S. Supreme Court has also affirmed that the protection of PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property is “the 19 foundation of the government” when it held the following. The case below was a challenge to the constitutionality of the 20 first national income tax, and the U.S. government rightfully lost that challenge:

21 *“Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that they go down to the very
22 foundations of the government. If the provisions of the Constitution can be set aside by an act of Congress,*
23 where is the course of usurpation to end?”

24 The present assault upon capital [THEFT! and WEALTH TRANSFER by unconstitutional CONVERSION of 25 *PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property] is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping stone to others larger
26 and more sweeping, until our political contest will become war of the poor against the rich; a war of growing* 27 intensity and bitterness.”
28 [Pollock v. Farmers’ Loan & Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429, 158 U.S. 601 (1895), hearing the case against the first
29 income tax passed by Congress that included people in states of the Union. They declared that first income tax
30 UNCONSTITUTIONAL, by the way]

31 In the above landmark case, the lawyer for the petitioner, Mr. Choate, even referred to the income tax as COMMUNISM,
32 and he was obviously right! Why? Because communism like socialism operates upon the following political premises:

- 33 1. All property is PUBLIC property and there IS no PRIVATE property.
- 34 2. The government owns and/or controls all property and said property is LOANED to the people.
- 35 3. The government and/or the collective has rights superior to those of the individual. There is and can be NO equality or 36 equal protection under the law. In that sense, the government or the “state” is a pagan idol with “supernatural powers”
37 because human beings are “natural” and they are inferior.
- 38 4. Control is synonymous with ownership. If the government CONTROLS the property but the citizen “owns” it, then:
39 4.1. The REAL owner is the government.

4.2. The ownership of the property is QUALIFIED rather than ABSOLUTE.

4.3. The person holding the property is a mere CUSTODIAN over GOVERNMENT property and has EQUITABLE rather than LEGAL ownership. Hence, their name in combination with the Social Security Number constitutes a PUBLIC office synonymous with the government itself.

5. Everyone in temporary use of said property is an officer and agent of the state. A “public officer”, after all, is someone who is in charge of the PROPERTY of the public:

“Public office. The right, authority, and duty created and conferred by law, by which for a given period, either fixed by law or enduring at the pleasure of the creating power, an individual is invested with some portion of the sovereign functions of government for the benefit of the public. Walker v. Rich, 79 Cal.App. 139, 249 P. 56, 58. An agency for the state, the duties of which involve in their performance the exercise of some portion of the sovereign power, either great or small. State v. Brennan, 49 Ohio.St. 33, 29 N.E. 593. [Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1235]

Look at some of the planks of the Communist Manifesto and confirm the above for yourself:

1. Abolition of property in land and application of all rents of land to public purposes.
 2. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

The legal definition of “property” confirms that one who OWNS a thing has the EXCLUSIVE right to use and dispose of and CONTROL the use of his or her property and ALL the fruits and “benefits” associated with the use of such property . The implication is that you as the PRIVATE owner have a right to EXCLUDE ALL OTHERS including all governments from using, benefitting from, or controlling your property. Governments, after all, are simply legal “persons” and the constitution guarantees that ALL “persons” are equal. If your neighbor can’t benefit from your property without your consent, then neither can any so-called “government”.

*Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat & Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with it. That dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular things or subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a man can have to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or chattels, which no way depends on another man's courtesy.

The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal, tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of one's property rights by actionable wrong. Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d. 180, 332 P.2d. 250, 252, 254.

Property embraces everything which is or may be the subject of ownership, whether a legal ownership. or whether beneficial, or a private ownership. Davis v. Davis. TexCiv-App., 495 S.W.2d. 607. 611. Term includes not only ownership and possession but also the right of use and enjoyment for lawful purposes. Hoffmann v. Kinealy, Mo., 389 S.W.2d. 745, 752.

Property, within constitutional protection, denotes group of rights inhering in citizen's relation to physical thing, as right to possess, use and dispose of it. Cereghino v. State By and Through State Highway Commission, 230 Or. 439, 370 P.2d. 694, 697.

1 In a lawful de jure government under our constitution:

- 2 1. All “persons” are absolutely equal under the law. No government can have any more rights than a single human being,

4 then neither can the government. See:

- 17 3. You have to knowingly and intentionally DONATE your property to a public use and a PUBLIC purpose before the 18 government can lawfully REGULATE its use.
19 4. That donation ordinarily occurs by applying for and/or using a license in connection with the use of SPECIFIC 20 otherwise PRIVATE property.
21 5. The process of applying for or using a license cannot be compelled.
22 6. The consumer of your services has a right to do business with those who are unlicensed and if the government invades
23 the commercial relationship between you and those you do business with, they are:
24 6.1. Interfering with your UNALIENABLE right to contract.
25 6.2. Compelling you to donate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property to a PUBLIC use.
26 6.3. Exercising unconstitutional eminent domain over your otherwise PRIVATE property.
27 6.4. Compelling you to accept a public “benefit”, where the “protection” afforded by the license is the “benefit”.

28 The above requirements of the USA Constitution are circumvented with nothing more than the simple PRESUMPTION,
29 usually on the part of the IRS and corrupted judges who want to STEAL from you, that the GOVERNMENT owns it and 30 that you have to prove that they CONSENTED to let you keep the fruits of it. They can’t and never have proven that they 31 have such a right, and all such presumptions are a violation of due process of law.

32 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests:

39 In order to unconstitutionally and TREASONOUSLY circumvent the above limitation on their right to presume, corrupt
40 governments and government actors will play “word games” with citizenship and key definitions in the ENCRYPTED
41 “code” in order to KIDNAP your legal identity and place it OUTSIDE the above protections of the constitution by:

- 42 1. PRESUMING that you are a public officer and therefore, that everything held in your name is PUBLIC property of the 43 GOVERNMENT and not YOUR PRIVATE PROPERTY. See:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008

- 44 2. Abusing fraudulent information returns to criminally and unlawfully “elect” you into public offices in the government:

- 1 3. PRESUMING that because you did not rebut evidence connecting you to a public office, then you CONSENT to 2 occupy the office.
3 4. PRESUMING that ALL of the four contexts for "United States" are equivalent.
4 5. PRESUMING that CONSTITUTIONAL citizens and STATUTORY citizens are EQUIVALENT under federal law.
5 They are NOT. A CONSTITUTIONAL citizen is a "non-citizen national" under federal law and NOT a "citizen of the 6 United States".

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8 7. Using the word "citizenship" in place of "nationality" OR "domicile", and refuse to disclose WHICH of the two they 9 mean in EVERY context.
10 8. Confusing the POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL meaning of words with the civil STATUTORY context. For 11 instance, asking on government forms whether you are a POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL citizen and then
12 FALSELY PRESUMING that you are a STATUTORY citizen under 8 U.S.C. §1401.
13 9. Confusing the words "domicile" and "residence" or impute either to you without satisfying the burden of proving that 14 you EXPRESSLY CONSENTED to it and thereby illegally kidnap your civil legal identity against your will. One can 15 have only one "domicile" but many "residences" and BOTH require your consent. See:

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 16 10. Adding things or classes of things to the meaning of statutory terms that do not EXPRESSLY appear in their 17 definitions, in violation of the rules of statutory construction. See:

Meaning of the Words "includes" and "including", Form #05.014

- 18 11. Refusing to allow the jury to read the definitions in the law and then give them a definition that is in conflict with the 19 statutory definition. This substitutes the JUDGES will for what the law expressly says and thereby substitutes PUBLIC
20 POLICY for the written law.
21 12. Publishing deceptive government publications that are in deliberate conflict with what the statutes define "United 22 States" as and then tell the public that they CANNOT rely on the publication. The IRS does this with ALL of their

24 This kind of arbitrary discretion is PROHIBITED by the Constitution, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court:

25 "When we consider the nature and the theory of our institutions of government, the principles upon which they
26 *are supposed to rest, and review the history of their development, we are constrained to conclude that they do
27 not mean to leave room for the play and action of purely personal and arbitrary power."*
28 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 369, 6 S. Sup. Ct. 1064, 1071]

29 Thomas Jefferson, our most revered founding father, precisely predicted the above abuses when he astutely said:

30 "It has long been my opinion, and I have never shrunk from its expression,... that the germ of dissolution of our 31 Federal Government is in the constitution of the Federal Judiciary--an irresponsible body (for impeachment is 32 *scarcely a scare-crow), working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow,
33 and advancing its noiseless step like a thief over the field of jurisdiction until all shall be usurped from the 34 States and the government be consolidated into one. To this I am opposed."*
35 [Thomas Jefferson to Charles Hammond, 1821. ME 15:331]

1 "Contrary to all correct example, [the Federal judiciary] are in the habit of going out of the question before
2 them, to throw an anchor ahead and grapple further hold for future advances of power. They are then in fact
3 the corps of sappers and miners, steadily working to undermine the independent rights of the States and to
4 consolidate all power in the hands of that government in which they have so important a freehold estate."
5 [Thomas Jefferson: Autobiography, 1821. ME 1:121]

6 "The judiciary of the United States is the subtle corps of sappers and miners constantly working under ground
7 to undermine the foundations of our confederated fabric. They are construing our Constitution from a co-
8 ordination of a general and special government to a general and supreme one alone. This will lay all things at 9 their feet, and they are too well versed in English law to forget the maxim, 'boni judicis est ampliari
10 jurisdictionem."
11 [Thomas Jefferson to Thomas Ritchie, 1820. ME 15:297]

12 "When all government, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the 13 center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another and will 14 become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated."
15 [Thomas Jefferson to Charles Hammond, 1821. ME 15:332]

16 "What an augmentation of the field for jobbing, speculating, plundering, office-building ["trade or business"
17 scam] and office-hunting would be produced by an assumption [PRESUMPTION] of all the State powers into 18 the hands of the General Government!"
19 [Thomas Jefferson to Gideon Granger, 1800. ME 10:168]

20 The key to preventing the unconstitutional abuse of presumption by the corrupted judiciary and IRS to STEAL from people
21 is to completely understand the content of the following memorandum of law and consistently apply it in every interaction
22 with the government:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

23 It ought to be very obvious to the reader that:

- 24 1. The rules for converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property ought to be consistently, completely, clearly, and 25 unambiguously defined by every government officer you come in contact with, and ESPECIALLY in court. These 26 rules ought to be DEMANDED to be declared EVEN BEFORE you enter a plea in a criminal case.
- 27 2. If the government asserts any right over your PRIVATE property, they are PRESUMING they are the LEGAL owner
28 and relegating you to EQUITABLE ownership. This presumption should be forcefully challenged.
- 29 3. If they won't expressly define the rules, or try to cloud the rules for converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC 30 property, then they are:
 - 31 3.1. Defeating the very purpose for which they were established as a "government". Hence, they are not a true
32 "government" but a de facto private corporation PRETENDING to be a "government", which is a CRIME under 33 18 U.S.C. §912.
 - 34 3.2. Exercising unconstitutional eminent domain over private property without the consent of the owner and without 35 compensation.
 - 36 3.3. Trying to STEAL from you.
 - 37 3.4. Violating their fiduciary duty to the public.

38 4.2 The Right to be left alone

39 The purpose of the Constitution of the United States of America is to confer the "right to be left alone", which is the 40 essence of being sovereign:

41 "The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
42 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
43 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
44 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the
45 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by
46 civilized men."
47 Olmstead v. United States, [277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting) ; see also Washington v.
48 Harper, 494 U.S. 210 (1990)]

49 The legal definition of "justice" confirms that it's purpose is to protect your right to be "left alone":

1 PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly's translation), chap. 9.

2 "Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing
3 the lives and interests of others, and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This
4 virtue springs from the individual's respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The
5 different spheres of interests may be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended
6 individual life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally
7 freedom, or the possibility of fashioning one's life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres,
8 thus giving rise to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To 9 violate the rights, to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against 10 the life of the neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the 11 individual's own life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong
12 yourself, and permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and 13 protect the right."

14 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, 1925, Roscoe Pound, p. 2]

15 The Bible also states the foundation of justice by saying:

16 "Do not strive with [or try to regulate or control or enslave] a man without cause, if he has done you no
17 harm."

18 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

19 And finally, Thomas Jefferson agreed with the above by defining "justice" as follows in his First Inaugural Address:

20 "With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing
21 more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another,
22 shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not
23 take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is 24 necessary to close the circle of our felicities."

25 [Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

26 Therefore, the word "injustice" means interference with the equal rights of others absent their consent and which constitutes 27 an injury NOT as any law defines it, but as the PERSON who is injured defines it. Under this conception of "justice", 28 anything done with your consent cannot be classified as "injustice" or an injury.

29 Those who are "private persons" fit in the category of people who must be left alone as a matter of law:

30 "There is a clear distinction in this particular case between an individual and a corporation, and that the latter
31 has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an examination at the suit of the State. The individual
32 may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own
33 way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no such duty to the State, since he receives nothing
34 therefrom, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land
35 long antecedent to the organization of the State, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and 36 in accordance with the constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of 37 himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the 38 public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights."

39 [Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43, 74 (1906)]

42 Payroll Deduction Agreements

43 2. Private employers, states, and political subdivisions are not required to enter into payroll deduction
44 agreements. Taxpayers should determine whether their employers will accept and process executed agreements
45 before agreements are submitted for approval or finalized.

46 [SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Exhibits/EX05.043.pdf>]

47 The U.S. Supreme Court has also held that the ability to regulate what it calls "private conduct" is repugnant to the 48 constitution. It is the differentiation between PRIVATE rights and PUBLIC rights, in fact, that forms the basis for 49 enforcing your right to be left alone:

50 "The power to "legislate generally upon" life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the "power to provide modes
51 of redress" against offensive state action, was "repugnant" to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States
52 v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876); United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883); James v. Bowman, 190
53 U.S. 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or

1 modified, see, e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964); United States v. Guest,
2 383 U.S. 745 (1966), their treatment of Congress' §5 power as corrective or preventive, not definitional, has not
3 been questioned.”
4 [City of Boerne v. Flores, Archbishop of San Antonio, 521 U.S. 507 (1997)]

5 Only by taking on a “public character” or engaging in “public conduct” rather than a “private” character may our actions
6 become the proper or lawful subject of federal or state legislation or regulation.

7 “One great object of the Constitution is to permit citizens to structure their private relations as they choose
8 subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law. [500 U.S. 614, 620]

9 To implement these principles, courts must consider from time to time where the governmental sphere [e.g.,
10 “public purpose” and “public office”] ends and the private sphere begins. Although the conduct of private 11 parties lies beyond the Constitution’s scope in most instances, governmental authority may dominate an
12 activity to such an extent that its participants must be deemed to act with the authority of the government
13 and, as a result, be subject to constitutional constraints. This is the jurisprudence of state action, which 14 explores the “essential dichotomy” between the private sphere and the public sphere, with all its attendant
15 constitutional obligations. Moose Lodge, supra, at 172. “

16 [. . .]

17 Given that the statutory authorization for the challenges exercised in this case is clear, the remainder of our 18 state action analysis centers around the second part of the Lugar test, whether a private litigant, in all fairness,
19 must be deemed a government actor in the use of peremptory challenges. Although we have recognized that this
20 aspect of the analysis is often a fact-bound inquiry, see Lugar, supra, 457 U.S. at 939, our cases disclose
21 certain principles of general application. Our precedents establish that, in determining whether a particular
22 action or course of conduct is governmental in character, it is relevant to examine the following: the extent
23 to which the actor relies on governmental assistance and benefits, see Tulsa Professional Collection Services,
24 Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478 (1988); Burton v. Wilmington Parking Authority, 365 U.S. 715 (1961); whether 25 the actor is performing a traditional governmental function, see Terry v. Adams, 345 U.S. 461 (1953); Marsh
26 v. Alabama, 326 U.S. 501 (1946); cf. San Francisco Arts & Athletics, Inc. v. United States Olympic [500 U.S.
27 614, 622] Committee, 483 U.S. 522, 544-545 (1987); and whether the injury caused is aggravated in a unique
28 way by the incidents of governmental authority, see Shelley v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1 (1948). Based on our 29 application of these three principles to the circumstances here, we hold that the exercise of peremptory
30 challenges by the defendant in the District Court was pursuant to a course of state action.
31 [Edmonson v. Leesville Concrete Company, 500 U.S. 614 (1991)]

32 The phrase “subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law” refers ONLY to statutes or court decisions that 33 pertain to licensed or privileged activities or franchises, all of which:

- 34 1. Cause the licensee or franchisee to represent a “public office” and work for the government.
- 35 2. Cause the licensee or franchisee to act in a representative capacity as an officer of the government, which is a federal 36 corporation and therefore he or she becomes an “officer or employee of a corporation” acting in a representative
37 capacity. See 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7434, which both define a “person” within the I.R.C. criminal and 38 penalty provisions as an officer or employee of a corporation.
- 39 3. Change the effective domicile of the “office” or “public office” of the licensee or franchisee to federal territory
40 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39), and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).

41 IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
42 (b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

43 Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

- 44 (1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;
- 45 (2) for a corporation [or the officers or “public officers” of the corporation], by the law under which it was 46 organized; and
- 47 (3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:
 - 48 (A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue
49 or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution
50 or laws; and
 - 51 (B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue 52 or be sued in a United States court.

- 53 4. Creates a “res” or “office” which is the subject of federal legislation and a “person” or “individual” within federal 54 statutes. For instance, the definition of “individual” within 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(2) reveals that it is a government

1 employee with a domicile in the statutory “United States”, which is federal territory. Notice that the statute below is in
2 Title 5, which is “Government Organization and Employees”, and that “citizens and residents of the United States”
3 share in common a legal domicile on federal territory. An “individual” is a officer of the government, and not a natural
4 man or woman. The office is the “individual”, and not the man or woman who fills it:

5 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a
6 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals

7 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

8 (2) the term “individual” means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent
9 residence;

10 If you don’t maintain a domicile on federal territory, which is called the “United States” in the U.S. Code, or you don’t
11 work for the government by participating in its franchises, then the government has NO AUTHORITY to even keep records
12 on you under the authority of the Privacy Act and you would be committing perjury under penalty of perjury to call
13 yourself an “individual” on a government form. Why? Because you are the sovereign and the sovereign is not the subject
14 of the law, but the author of the law!

15 “Since in common usage, the term person does not include the sovereign, statutes not employing the phrase are 16 ordinarily construed to exclude it.”
17 [United States v. Cooper Corporation, 312 U.S. 600 (1941)]

18 “There is no such thing as a power of inherent Sovereignty in the government of the United States. In this
19 country sovereignty resides in the People, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their
20 Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld.”
21 [Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

22 “Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law for it is the author and source of law;”
23 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

24 “Under our form of government, the legislature is NOT supreme. It is only one of the organs of that
25 ABSOLUTE SOVEREIGNTY which resides in the whole body of the PEOPLE; like other bodies of the 26 government, it can only exercise such powers as have been delegated to it, and when it steps beyond that 27 boundary, its acts.. are utterly VOID.”
28 [Billings v. Hall, 7 CA. 1]

29 “In Europe, the executive is synonymous with the sovereign power of a state...where it is too commonly
30 acquired by force or fraud, or both...In America, however the case is widely different. Our government is 31 founded upon compact. Sovereignty was, and is, in the people.”
32 [The Betsy, 3 Dall 6]

33 In summary, the only way the government can control you through civil law is to connect you to public conduct or a
34 “public office” within the government executed on federal territory. If they are asserting jurisdiction that you believe they 35 don’t have, it is probably because:

- 36 1. You misrepresented your domicile as being on federal territory within the “United States” or the “State of___” by 37 declaring yourself to be either a statutory “U.S. citizen” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 or a statutory “resident” (alien)
38 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A). This made you subject to their laws and put you into a privileged state.
- 39 2. You filled out a government application for a franchise, which includes government benefits, professional licenses, 40 driver’s licenses, marriage licenses, etc.
- 41 3. Someone else filed a document with the government which connected you to a franchise, even though you never 42 consented to participate in the franchise. For instance, IRS information returns such as W-2, 1042S, 1098, and 1099
43 presumptively connect you to a “trade or business” in the U.S. government pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6041. A “trade or 44 business” is then defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office”. The only way to prevent this 45 evidence from creating a liability under the franchise agreement provisions is to rebut it promptly. See:

1 4.3 “Public” and “Private” rights compared

2 To proceed beyond this point, we need to compare public and private rights to make the distinctions crystal clear in our

4 The following cite establishes that private rights and private property are entirely beyond the control of the government:

5 When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges which, as an
6 individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain. "A body politic," as aptly defined in the 7 preamble of the Constitution of Massachusetts, "is a social compact by which the whole people covenants
8 with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the 9 common good." This does not confer power upon the whole people to control rights which are purely and
10 exclusively private, Thorpe v. R. & B. Railroad Co., 27 Vt. 143; but it does authorize the establishment of 11 laws requiring each citizen to so conduct himself, and so use his own property, as not unnecessarily to injure
12 *another. This is the very essence of government, and 125*125 has found expression in the maxim sic utere*
13 tuio ut alienum non ledas. From this source come the police powers, which, as was said by Mr. Chief Justice
14 Taney in the License Cases, 5 How. 583, "are nothing more or less than the powers of government inherent 15 in every sovereignty, . . . that is to say, . . . the power to govern men and things." Under these powers the 16 government regulates the conduct of its citizens one towards another, and the manner in which each shall use
17 his own property, when such regulation becomes necessary for the public good. In their exercise it has been 18 customary in England from time immemorial, and in this country from its first colonization, to regulate ferries,

1 common carriers, hackmen, bakers, millers, wharfingers, innkeepers, &c., and in so doing to fix a maximum of
2 charge to be made for services rendered, accommodations furnished, and articles sold. To this day, statutes are
3 to be found in many of the States upon some or all these subjects; and we think it has never yet been
4 successfully contended that such legislation came within any of the constitutional prohibitions against
5 interference with private property. With the Fifth Amendment in force, Congress, in 1820, conferred power
6 upon the city of Washington "to regulate . . . the rates of wharfage at private wharves, . . . the sweeping of 7 chimneys, and to fix the rates of fees therefor, . . . and the weight and quality of bread," 3 Stat. 587, sect. 7; and,
8 in 1848, "to make all necessary regulations respecting hackney carriages and the rates of fare of the same, and 9 the rates of hauling by cartmen, wagoners, carmen, and draymen, and the rates of commission of auctioneers," 10 9 id. 224, sect. 2.

12 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=6419197193322400931]

13 Notice that they say that the ONLY basis to regulate private rights is to prevent injury of one man to another by the use of 14 said property. They say that this authority is the origin of the "police powers" of the state. What they hide, however, is that 15 these same POLICE POWERS involve the CRIMINAL laws and EXCLUDE the CIVIL laws or even franchises. You can
16 TELL they are trying to hide something because around this subject they invoke the latin language that is unknown to most 17 Americans to conceal the nature of what they are doing. Whenever anyone invokes latin in a legal setting, a red flag ought 18 to go up because you KNOW they are trying to hide a KEY fact. Here is the latin they invoked:

19 "sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas"

20 The other phrase to notice in the Munn case above is the use of the word "social compact". A compact is legally defined as 21 a contract.

22 "Compact, n. An agreement or contract between persons, nations, or states. Commonly applied to working
23 agreements between and among states concerning matters of mutual concern. A contract between parties,
24 which creates obligations and rights capable of being enforced and contemplated as such between the parties,
25 in their distinct and independent characters. A mutual consent of parties concerned respecting some property
26 or right that is the object of the stipulation, or something that is to be done or forborne. See also Compact
27 clause; Confederacy; Interstate compact; Treaty."
28 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 281]

29 Therefore, one cannot exercise their First Amendment right to legally associate with or contract with a SOCIETY and 30 thereby become a party to the "social compact/contract" without ALSO becoming a STATUTORY "citizen". By statutory
31 citizen, we really mean a domiciliary of a SPECIFIC municipal jurisdiction, and not someone who was born or naturalized
32 in that place. Hence, by STATUTORY citizen we mean a person who:

- 33 1. Has voluntarily chosen a civil domicile within a specific municipal jurisdiction and thereby become a "citizen" or 34 "resident" of said jurisdiction. "citizens" or "residents" collectively are called "inhabitants".
- 35 2. Has indicated their choice of domicile on government forms in the block called "residence" or "permanent address".
- 36 3. CONSENTS to be protected by the regional civil laws of a SPECIFIC municipal government.

37 A CONSTITUTIONAL citizen, on the other hand, is someone who cannot consent to or choose the place of their birth.
38 That is why birth or naturalization determines nationality but not their status under the civil laws. All civil jurisdiction is 39 based on "consent of the governed", as the Declaration of Independence indicates. Those who do NOT consent to the civil 40 laws that implement the social compact of the municipal government they are situated within are called "free inhabitants",
41 "nonresidents", "transient foreigners", "non-citizen nationals", or "foreign sovereigns". These people instead are governed
42 by the common law RATHER than the civil law.

43 Police men are NOT allowed to involve themselves in CIVIL disputes and may ONLY intervene or arrest anyone when a
44 CRIME has been committed. They CANNOT arrest for an "infraction", which is a word designed to hide the fact that the 45 statute being enforced is a CIVIL or FRANCHISE statute not involving the CRIMINAL "police powers". Hence, civil 46 jurisdiction over PRIVATE rights is NOT authorized among those who HAVE such rights. Only those who know those 47 rights and claim and enforce them, not through attorneys but in their proper person, have such rights. Nor can those 48 PRIVATE rights lawfully be surrendered to a REAL, de jure government, even WITH consent, if they are, in fact
49 UNALIENABLE as the Declaration of Independence indicates.

51 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

1 The only people who can consent to give away a right are those who HAVE no rights because domiciled on federal territory
2 not protected by the Constitution or the Bill of Rights:

3 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and
4 uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase
5 or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every
6 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
7 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people,
8 and is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of
9 the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana,
10 Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of
11 government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America,
12 and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by
13 the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a
14 legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the
15 Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over
16 them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the
17 privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
18 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

19 To apply these concepts, the police enforce the "vehicle code", but most of the vehicle code is a civil franchise that they 20 may NOT enforce without ABUSING the police powers of the state. In recognition of these concepts, the civil provisions
21 of the vehicle code are called "infractions" rather than "crimes". AND, before the civil provisions of the vehicle code may 22 lawfully be enforced against those using the public roadways, one must be a "resident" with a domicile not within the state,
23 but on federal territory where rights don't exist. All civil law attaches to SPECIFIC territory. That is why by applying for a
24 driver's license, most state vehicle codes require that the person must be a "resident" of the state, meaning a person with a
25 domicile within the statutory but not Constitutional "United States", meaning federal territory.

26 So what the vehicle codes in most states do is mix CRIMINAL and CIVIL and even PRIVATE franchise law all into one
27 title of code, call it the "Vehicle code", and make it extremely difficult for even the most law abiding "citizen" to
28 distinguish which provisions are CIVIL/FRANCHISES and which are CRIMINAL, because they want to put the police
29 force to an UNLAWFUL use enforcing CIVIL rather than CRIMINAL law. This has the practical effect of making the 30 "CODE" not only a deception, but void for vagueness on its face, because it fails to give reasonable notice to the public at 31 large, WHICH specific provisions pertain to EACH subset of the population. That in fact, is why they have to call it "the 32 code", rather than simply "law": Because the truth is encrypted and hidden in order to unlawfully expand their otherwise
33 extremely limited civil jurisdiction. The two subsets of the population who they want to confuse and mix together in order 34 to undermine your sovereignty are:

- 35 1. Those who consent to the "social compact" by choosing a domicile or residence within a specific municipal 36 jurisdiction. These people are identified by the following statutory terms:
 - 37 1.1. Individuals.
 - 38 1.2. Residents.
 - 39 1.3. Citizens.
 - 40 1.4. Inhabitants.
 - 41 1.5. PUBLIC officers serving as an instrumentality of the government.
- 42 2. Those who do NOT consent to the "social compact" and who therefore are called:
 - 43 2.1. Free inhabitants.
 - 44 2.2. Nonresidents.
 - 45 2.3. Transient foreigners.
 - 46 2.4. Sojourners.
 - 47 2.5. EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE human beings beyond the reach of the civil statutes implementing the social compact.

48 The way they get around the problem of only being able to enforce the CIVIL provisions of the vehicle code against 49 domiciliaries of the federal zone is to:

- 50 1. ONLY issue driver licenses to "residents" domiciled in the federal zone.
- 51 2. Confuse CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens" with STATUTORY "citizens", to make them appear the same even though 52 they are NOT.

1 3. Arrest people for driving WITHOUT a license, even though technically these provisions can only be enforceable
2 against those who are acting as a public officer WHILE driving AND who are STATUTORY but not
3 CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens".

4 The act of "governing" WITHOUT consent therefore implies CRIMINAL governing, not CIVIL governing. To procure
5 CIVIL jurisdiction over a private right requires the CONSENT of the owner of the right. That is why the U.S. Supreme
6 Court states in Munn the following:

7 "When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges which, as an 8 individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain."
9 [Munn. v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876),
10 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=6419197193322400931]

11 Therefore, if one DOES NOT consent to join a "society" as a statutory citizen, he RETAINS those SOVEREIGN rights that 12 would otherwise be lost through the enforcement of the civil law. Here is how the U.S. Supreme Court describes this 13 requirement of law:

14 "Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights,- 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of 15 happiness;' and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or 16 income] which a man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations:

17 [1] First, that he shall not use it to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he
18 must use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL SECURITY,
19 Medicare, and every other public "benefit"];

20 [2] second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and

21 [3] third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due
22 compensation."
23 [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

24 A PRIVATE right that is unalienable cannot be given away, even WITH consent. Hence, the only people that any 25 government may CIVILLY govern are those without unalienable rights, all of whom MUST therefore be domiciled on 26 federal territory where CONSTITUTIONAL rights do not exist.

27 Notice that when they are talking about "regulating" conduct using CIVIL law, all of a sudden they mention "citizens"
28 instead of ALL PEOPLE. These "citizens" are those with a DOMICILE within federal territory not protected by the 29 Constitution:

30 "Under these powers the government regulates the conduct of its citizens one towards another, and the manner
31 in which each shall use his own property, when such regulation becomes necessary for the public good."
32 [Munn. v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876),
33 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=6419197193322400931]

34 All "citizens" that they can regulate therefore must be WITHIN the government and be acting as public officers. Otherwise,
35 they would continue to be PRIVATE parties beyond the CIVIL control of any government. Hence, in a Republican Form
36 of Government where the People are sovereign:

- 37 1. The only "subjects" under the civil law are public officers in the government.
38 2. The government is counted as a STATUTORY "citizen" but not a CONSTITUTIONAL "citizen". All 39 CONSTITUTIONAL citizens are human beings and CANNOT be artificial entities. All STATUTORY citizens, on the 40 other hand, are artificial entities and franchises and NOT CONSTITUTIONAL citizens.

41 "A corporation [the U.S. government, and all those who represent it as public officers, is a federal corporation
42 per 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A)] is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of 43 which it was created, and of that state or country only."
44 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum, Corporations, §886]

45

Citizens of the United States within the meaning of this Amendment must be natural and not artificial persons; a corporate body is not a citizen of the United States.¹⁴

14 Insurance Co. v. New Orleans, 13 Fed. Cas. 67 (C.C.D.La. 1870). Not being citizens of the United States, corporations accordingly have been declared unable "to claim the protection of that clause of the Fourteenth Amendment which secures the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States against abridgment or impairment by the law of a State." Orient Ins. Co. v. Daggs, 172 U.S. 557, 561 (1869). This conclusion was in harmony with the earlier holding in Paul v. Virginia, 75 U.S. (8 Wall.) 168 (1869), to the effect that corporations were not within the scope of the privileges and immunities clause of state citizenship set out in Article IV, Sec. 2. American Press Co., 297 U.S. 233, 244 (1936).

3. The only statutory "citizens" are public offices in the government.
4. By serving in a public office, one becomes the same type of "citizen" as the GOVERNMENT is.

These observations are consistent with the very word roots that form the word "republic". The following video says the word origin comes from "res publica", which means a collection of PUBLIC rights shared by the public. You must therefore JOIN "the public" and become a public officer before you can partake of said PUBLIC right.

Overview of America, SEDM Liberty University, Section 2.3
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

This gives a WHOLE NEW MEANING to Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, in which he refers to American government as:

"A government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

You gotta volunteer as an uncompensated public officer for the government to CIVILLY govern you. Hence, the only thing they can CIVILLY GOVERN, is the GOVERNMENT! Pretty sneaky, huh? Here is a whole memorandum of law on this subject proving such a conclusion:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Form...StatLawGovt.pdf>

The other important point we wish to emphasize is that those who are EXCLUSIVELY private and therefore beyond the reach of the civil law are:

1. Not a statutory "person" under the civil law or franchise statute in question.
2. Not "individuals" under the CIVIL law if they are human beings. All statutory "individuals", in fact, are identified as "employees" under 5 U.S.C. §2105(a). This is the ONLY statute that describes HOW one becomes a statutory "individual" that we have been able to find.
3. "foreign", a "transient foreigner", and sovereign in respect to government CIVIL but not CRIMINAL jurisdiction.
4. NOT "subject to" but also not necessarily statutorily "exempt" under the civil or franchise statute in question.

For a VERY interesting background on the subject of this section, we recommend reading the following case:

4.5 "Political (PUBLIC) law" v. "civil (PRIVATE) law"

Within our republican government, the founding fathers recognized three classes of law:

1. Criminal law. Protects both PUBLIC and PRIVATE rights.
2. Civil law. Protects exclusively PRIVATE rights.

1 3. Political law. Protects exclusively PUBLIC rights of public officers and offices within the government.

2 The above three types of law were identified in the following document upon which the founding fathers wrote the 3 constitution and based the design of our republican form of government:

The Spirit of Laws, Charles de Montesquieu, 1758
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/SpiritOfLaws/sol.htm>

4 Montesquieu defines “political law” and “political liberty” as follows:

5 I. A general Idea.

11 The Constitution in turn is a POLITICAL document which represents law EXCLUSIVELY for public officers within the 12 government. It does not obligate or abrogate any PRIVATE right. It defines what the courts call “public rights”, meaning
13 rights possessed and owned exclusively by the government ONLY.

35 The vast majority of laws passed by Congress are what Montesquieu calls “political law” that is intended exclusively for 36 the government and not the private citizen. The authority for implementing such political law is Article 4, Section 3,
37 Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. To wit:

38 United States Constitution
39 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

40 *The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the 41 Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so
42 construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

43 The only areas where POLITICAL law and CIVIL law overlap is in the exercise of the political rights to vote and serve on 44 jury duty. Why? Because jurists are regarded as public officers in 18 U.S.C. §201(a)(1):

45 TITLE 18 > PART 1 > CHAPTER 11 > § 201
46 § 201. Bribery of public officials and witnesses

47 (a) For the purpose of this section—

(1) the term "public official" means Member of Congress, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, either before or after such official has qualified, or an officer or employee or person acting for or on behalf of the United States, or any department, agency or branch of Government thereof, including the District of Columbia, in any official function, under or by authority of any such department, agency, or branch of Government, or a juror;

However, it has also repeatedly been held by the courts that poll taxes are unconstitutional. Hence, voters technically are NOT to be regarded as public officers or franchisees for any purpose OTHER than their role as a voter. Recall that all statutory "Taxpayer" are public officers in the government.

Tax laws, for instance, are "political law" exclusively for the government or public officer and not the private citizen. Why? Because:

1. The U.S. Supreme Court identified taxes as a "political matter". "Political law", "political questions", and "political matters" cannot be heard by true constitutional courts and may ONLY be heard in legislative franchise courts officiated by the Executive and not Judicial branch:

"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located."

Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, [347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

2. The U.S. Tax Court:
 - 2.1. Is an Article I Court in the EXECUTIVE and not JUDICIAL branch, and hence, can only officiate over matters INTERNAL to the government. See 26 U.S.C. §7441 and section Error! Reference source not found. later.
 - 2.2. Is a POLITICAL court in the POLITICAL branch of the government. Namely, the Executive branch.
 - 2.3. Is limited to the District of Columbia because all public offices are limited to there per 4 U.S.C. §72. It travels all over the country, but this is done ILLEGALLY and in violation of the separation of powers.
3. The activity subject to excise taxation is limited exclusively to "public offices" in the government, which is what a "trade or business" is statutorily defined as in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26).

26 U.S.C. Sec. 7701\(a\)\(26\)

"The term 'trade or business' includes the performance of the functions of a public office."

In Book XXVI, Section 15 of the Spirit of Laws, Montesquieu says that POLITICAL laws should not be allowed to regulate CIVIL conduct, meaning that POLITICAL laws limited exclusively to the government should not be enforced upon the PRIVATE citizen or made to "appear" as though they are "civil law" that applies to everyone:

The Spirit of Laws, Book XXVI, Section 15

15. That we should not regulate by the Principles of political Law those Things which depend on the Principles of civil Law.

As men have given up their natural independence to live under political laws, they have given up the natural community of goods to live under civil laws.

By the first, they acquired [PUBLIC] liberty; by the second, [PRIVATE] property. We should not decide by the laws of [PUBLIC] liberty, which, as we have already said, is only the government of the community, what ought to be decided by the laws concerning [PRIVATE] property. It is a paralogism to say that the good of the individual should give way to that of the public; this can never take place, except when the government of the community, or, in other words, the liberty of the subject is concerned; this does not affect such cases as relate to private property, because the public good consists in every one's having his property, which was given him by the civil laws, invariably preserved.

Cicero maintains that the Agrarian laws were unjust; because the community was established with no other view than that every one might be able to preserve his property.

1 *Let us, therefore, lay down a certain maxim, that whenever the public good happens to be the matter in
2 question, it is not for the advantage of the public to deprive an individual of his property, or even to retrench
3 the least part of it by a law, or a political regulation. In this case we should follow the rigour of the civil law,
4 which is the Palladium of [PRIVATE] property.

5 Thus when the public has occasion for the estate of an individual, it ought never to act by the rigour of
6 political law; it is here that the civil law ought to triumph, which, with the eyes of a mother, regards every
7 individual as the whole community.

8 If the political magistrate would erect a public edifice, or make a new road, he must indemnify those who are
9 injured by it; the public is in this respect like an individual who treats with an individual. It is fully enough that
10 it can oblige a citizen to sell his inheritance, and that it can strip him of this great privilege which he holds from 11 the civil law, the not being forced to alienate his possessions.

12 After the nations which subverted the Roman empire had abused their very conquests, the spirit of liberty called
13 them back to that of equity. They exercised the most barbarous laws with moderation: and if any one should
14 doubt the truth of this, he need only read Beaumanoir's admirable work on jurisprudence, written in the twelfth
15 century.

16 They mended the highways in his time as we do at present. He says, that when a highway could not be repaired,
17 they made a new one as near the old as possible; but indemnified the proprietors at the expense of those who
18 reaped any advantage from the road.⁴ They determined at that time by the civil law; in our days, we determine 19 by the law of politics.

22 What Montesquieu is implying is what we have been saying all along, and he said it in 1758, which was even before the 23 Declaration of Independence was written:

- 24 1. The purpose of establishing government is exclusively to protect PRIVATE rights.
25 2. PRIVATE rights are protected by the CIVIL law. The civil law, in turn is based in EQUITY rather than PRIVILEGE:

26 "Thus when the public has occasion for the estate of an individual, it ought never to act by the rigour of
27 political law; it is here that the civil law ought to triumph, which, with the eyes of a mother, regards every
28 individual as the whole community."

- 29 3. PUBLIC or government rights are protected by the PUBLIC or POLITICAL or GOVERNMENT law and NOT the 30 CIVIL law.
31 4. The first and most important role of government is to prevent the POLITICAL or GOVERNMENT law from being 32 used or especially ABUSED as an excuse to confiscate or jeopardize PRIVATE property.

33 Unfortunately, it is precisely the above type of corruption that Montesquieu describes that is the foundation of the present
34 de facto government, tax system, and money system. ALL of them treat every human being as a PUBLIC officer against 35 their consent, and impose what he calls the "rigors of the political law" upon them, in what amounts to a THEFT and 36 CONFISCATION of otherwise PRIVATE property by enforcing PUBLIC law against PRIVATE people.

37 5 All civil statutes passed in furtherance of the Constitution are law for government

38 instrumentalities and officers, not PRIVATE persons

39 The U.S. Supreme Court has identified the federal government of finite, delegated, enumerated powers.

40 "We start with first principles. The Constitution creates a Federal Government of enumerated powers. See U.S.
41 Const., Art. I, § 8. As James Madison wrote, "[t]he powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal 42 government are few and defined. Those which are to remain in the State governments are numerous and 43 *indefinite." The Federalist No. 45, pp. 292-293 (C. Rossiter ed. 1961). This constitutionally 44 mandated division of authority "was adopted by the Framers
45 to ensure protection of our fundamental liberties." Gregory v. Ashcroft,* 46 501 U.S. 452, 458 (1991) (internal quotation marks omitted). "Just as the separation and independence of 47 the coordinate branches of the Federal Government serves to prevent the accumulation of excessive power in

1 any one branch, a healthy balance of power between the States and the Federal Government will reduce the
2 risk of tyranny and abuse from either front." Ibid. "
3 U.S. v. Lopez, [514 U.S. 549 (1995)]
4

5 "This government is acknowledged by all to be one of enumerated powers. The principle that it can exercise
6 only the powers granted to it would seem too apparent to have required to be enforced by all those arguments
7 which its enlightened friends, while it was depending before the people, found it necessary to urge. That
8 principle is now universally admitted. But the question respecting the extent of the powers actually granted is 9 perpetually arising, and will probably continue to arise, as long as our system shall exist.'
10 [M'Culloch v. Maryland, 4 Wheat. 316, 405, 4 L.Ed. 579, 601]
11

12 "The people of the United States, by their Constitution, have affirmed a division of internal governmental 13 powers between the federal government and the governments of the several states-committing to the first its 14 powers by express grant and necessary implication; to the latter, or [301 U.S. 548, 611] to the people, by 15 reservation, 'the powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the 16 States.' The Constitution thus affirms the complete supremacy and independence of the state within the field of 17 its powers. Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238, 295, 56 S.Ct. 855, 865. The federal government has no
18 more authority to invade that field than the state has to invade the exclusive field of national governmental 19 powers; for, in the oft-repeated words of this court in Texas v. White, 7 Wall. 700, 725, 'the preservation of the 20 States, and the maintenance of their governments, are as much within the design and care of the Constitution as 21 the preservation of the Union and the maintenance of the National government.' The necessity of preserving
22 each from every form of illegitimate intrusion or interference on the part of the other is so imperative as to
23 require this court, when its judicial power is properly invoked, to view with a careful and discriminating eye
24 any legislation challenged as constituting such an intrusion or interference. See South Carolina v. United 25 States, 199 U.S. 437, 448, 26 S.Ct. 110, 4 Ann.Cas. 737."
26 Steward Machine Co. v. Davis, [301 U.S. 548 (1937)]

27 All powers not expressly enumerated in the Constitution as being delegated to the federal government are reserved to the 28 people or the states Ninth and Tenth Amendments respectively.

29 We also established in the previous section that the Constitution as a contract can only bind those who sign it or take an
30 oath to obey it. Since no citizen ever signed it, it cannot obligate them. The only remaining parties therefore who can be
31 legally obligated to obey it are those who took an oath to obey it as public servants as described in Article 6 of the 32 Constitution.

33 Since the Constitution cannot obligate citizens in states of the Union in any way who never signed it, then it cannot delegate
34 authority to a public servant legislator to pass a law which might obligate these citizens to do anything. This fact can be 35 proved by examining the enactments of Congress, nearly all of which apply only to the government. We will show later in 36 Section 7 how to prove who the intended audience for a statute is simply by the way it is published and whether it has 37 implementing regulations or not. In almost all cases, federal legislation that only applies to persons who work for the 38 government:

- 39 1. Has definitions that limit the audience for enforcement to government statutory "employees", public officers, and 40 instrumentalities.

48 *such tax. Levy may be made upon the accrued salary or wages of any officer, employee, or elected official, of
49 the United States, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of the United States or the
50 District of Columbia, by serving a notice of levy on the employer (as defined in section 3401(d)) of such 51 officer, employee, or elected official. If the Secretary makes a finding that the collection of such tax is in 52 jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of such tax may be made by the Secretary and, upon
53 failure or refusal to pay such tax, collection thereof by levy shall be lawful without regard to the 10-day period
54 provided in this section.

- 1 2. Has no implementing regulations published in the Federal Register authorizing its enforcement against anyone
2 domiciled in a state of the Union. These regulations are required by the Administrative Procedures Act, 5 U.S.C.
3 §552(a) as well as the Federal Register Act, 44 U.S.C. §1505(a).
4 3. Does not need implementing regulations published in the Federal Register if the law or statute may only be enforced
5 against federal agencies, employees, instrumentalities. See 5 U.S.C. §553(a) and 44 U.S.C. §1505(a)(1).

6 Governments are founded to protect natural and constitutional PRIVATE rights.

7 "The rights of individuals and the justice due to them, are as dear and precious as those of states. Indeed the 8 latter are founded upon the former; and the great end and object of them must be to secure and support the 9 rights of individuals, or else vain is government."
10 [Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. (2 Dall.) 419, 1 L.Ed 440 (1793)]

11 The government can only perform the function of protecting private and individual rights when they are prohibited from 12 passing laws that either regulate or impair those rights.

13 "It would be a palpable incongruity to strike down an act of state legislation which, by words of express
14 divestment, seeks to strip the citizen of rights guaranteed by the federal Constitution, but to uphold an act by
15 which the same result is accomplished under the guise of a surrender of a right in exchange for a valuable
16 privilege which the state threatens otherwise to withhold. It is not necessary to challenge the proposition that,
17 as a general rule, the state, having power to deny a privilege altogether, may grant it upon such conditions as
18 it sees fit to impose. But the power of the state in that respect is not unlimited, and one of the limitations is 19 that it may not impose conditions which require the relinquishment of Constitutional rights. If the state may 20 compel the surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a
21 surrender of all. It is inconceivable that guaranties embedded in the Constitution of the United States may 22 thus be manipulated out or existence."
23 [Frost v. Railroad Commission, 271 U.S. 583, 46 S.Ct. 605 (1926)]

24 The above holding of the U.S. Supreme Court explains precisely where the exercise of rights to drive, to marry, or to 25 practice a profession can be regulated and "licensed", and that place is where such rights do not exist(!), which is on federal 26 territory where the Constitution does not apply.

27 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and
28 uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase
29 or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every
30 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
31 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people,
32 and is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of
33 the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana,
34 Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of
35 government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America,
36 and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by
37 the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a
38 legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the
39 Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over
40 them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the
41 privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
42 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

43 The government has always had the authority to regulate the exercise of rights by those who work for it as statutory 44 "employees", "public officers", or instrumentalities:

45 "The restrictions that the Constitution places upon the government in its capacity as lawmaker, i.e., as the
46 regulator of private conduct, are not the same as the restrictions that it places upon the government in its
47 capacity as employer. We have recognized this in many contexts, with respect to many different constitutional
48 guarantees. Private citizens perhaps cannot be prevented from wearing long hair, but policemen can. Kelley v.
49 Johnson, 425 U.S. 238, 247 (1976). Private citizens cannot have their property searched without probable
50 cause, but in many circumstances government employees can. O'Connor v. Ortega, 480 U.S. 709, 723 (1987)
51 (plurality opinion); id., at 732 (SCALIA, J., concurring in judgment). Private citizens cannot be punished for 52 refusing to provide the government information that may incriminate them, but government employees can be 53 dismissed when the incriminating information that they refuse to provide relates to the performance of their job.
54 Gardner v. Broderick, [497 U.S. 62, 95] 392 U.S. 273, 277-278 (1968). With regard to freedom of speech in
55 particular: Private citizens cannot be punished for speech of merely private concern, but government employees
56 can be fired for that reason. Connick v. Myers, 461 U.S. 138, 147 (1983). Private citizens cannot be punished
57 for partisan political activity, but federal and state employees can be dismissed and otherwise punished for that

1 reason. Public Workers v. Mitchell, 330 U.S. 75, 101 (1947); Civil Service Comm'n v. Letter Carriers, 413 U.S.
2 548, 556 (1973); Broadrick v. Oklahoma, 413 U.S. 601, 616 -617 (1973)."
3 [Rutan v. Republican Party of Illinois, 497 U.S. 62 (1990)]

4 We have therefore proven that all government, whether state or federal, which passes laws to regulate the conduct of its
5 own statutory "officers" and "employees" can lawfully regulate such "public conduct" in the context of federal territory
6 only, because no constitutional rights exist there which the Congress could destroy by passing such a law.

7 Those, on the other hand, who are not domiciled on federal territory and instead are domiciled on land protected by the 8 United States of America Constitution retain all of their natural and UNalienable rights.

9 "It is locality that is determinative of the application of the Constitution, in such matters as judicial procedure,
10 and not the status of the people who live in it."
11 [Balzac v. Porto Rico, 258 U.S. 298 (1922)]

12 Only by entering into contracts or accepting government benefits or franchises and thereby procuring a "status" and a "res"
13 under a government franchise can such persons surrender said rights, and when they do, they must consent to be treated as 14 though they maintain an effective domicile on federal territory. The Declaration of Independence says that all men are 15 created equal and endowed by their Creator (God) with "unalienable" rights:

16 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
17 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to 18 secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the 19 governed, -"
20 [Declaration of Independence]

21 The word "unalienable" is defined as follows:

22 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
23 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

24 As the above indicates, an "unalienable" right cannot be sold, transferred, or bargained away in relation to the government,
25 which means that signing or consenting to any kind of franchise agreement cannot destroy or undermine that right in
26 relation to the government. It is only in relation to the government, in fact, that these rights can even mean anything to 27 begin with because even before governments were created, men had the right to privately contract with others. This method
28 of surrendering private rights in exchange for other private rights, in fact, is the basis for all commerce.

29 Therefore, the only place that such rights can be sold, bargained away, or transferred to the federal government is in places
30 where they do not exist, which is only on federal territory. Everything on federal territory is a privilege and you need
31 express permission from the government to do anything there. When you're living on the King's land, and you need the 32 permission of the Crown and may not presume the existence of the permission since you risk his displeasure if you proceed
33 without his express permission. The U.S. Supreme Court held that federal territory, in fact, is run more like a "British 34 Crown colony" than a republican state of America. Notice the phrase "privileges of the bill of rights" in the quote below.
35 Even rights are privileges on federal territory!:

36 "Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the 37 Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more
38 recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing a much greater analogy to a British 39 Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and 40 council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not until they had attained a certain
41 population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well
42 as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend 43 to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to 44 enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other 45 privileges of the bill of rights."
46 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

47 Consequently, no constitutionally protected right may be bargained away, sold, or contracted away and thereby given to the 48 government. If this is true, the only place that the government can engage in any kind of contract or franchise that might 49 undermine the natural, "unalienable" rights of a man or woman is in the following circumstances:

- 1 1. If that man or woman is legally domiciled on territory of the federal government not protected by the Bill of Rights. In
2 such a case, there are no constitutional rights to give up, but only statutory privileges. Neither is there any common
3 law in federal courts or on federal territory to protect rights, because such rights do not exist. See Erie Railroad v.
4 Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64 (1938). The following conditions of citizenship are synonymous with this status:
5 1.1. Statutory “U.S. citizen” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401.
6 1.2. Statutory “resident” pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\)\(1\)\(A\).
7 1.3. “Permanent resident” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(20\).
8 1.4. Statutory “U.S. person” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(30\).
9 2. If the man or woman are acting in a representative capacity on behalf of an artificial entity that has no constitutional
10 rights. Such an entity might include a corporation created by the government. In such a case, Federal Rule of Civil
11 Proc. 17\(b\) applies. Such an artificial entity is usually the object of a federal franchise and therefore “privileged”.

14 (b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

15 Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

17 (2) for a corporation [a federal corporation called the “United States”, in this case], by the law under which 18 it was organized; and
19 (3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:
20 (A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may

22 Constitution or laws; and
23 (B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959\(a\) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to 24 sue or be sued in a United States court.

25 Case #2 above is a subset of Case #1 above in the case of persons serving in “public offices” within the federal government,
26 because according to 4 U.S.C. §72, the “seat” of the federal government is in the District of Columbia, which is federal 27 territory not protected by the Bill of Rights.

32 While a man or woman is satisfying the obligations associated with a “public office” while on official duty, they take on the 33 character of the sovereign that they represent pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Proc. 17\(b\). This sovereign, the United 34 States government, is a federal corporation with a legal domicile in the District of Columbia, pursuant to 4 U.S.C. §72 and 35 Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 of the United States Constitution. To wit:

- 41 (15) “United States” means -
42 (A) a Federal corporation;
43 (B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or 44 (C) an instrumentality of the United States.
45

46 *“Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created

48 but whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise
49 of power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the 50 instrument by which the incorporation is made. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is 51 a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all
52 persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 53 Inst. 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same

1 footing of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect
2 that of individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law,
3 is a principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the 4 federal government, by the amendments to the constitution."
5 [Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of Warren Bridge, 36 U.S. 420 (1837)]

6 In law, all corporations are statutory "citizens" or "residents" of the place they were created, which implies that they have a
7 legal domicile in the place they were incorporated.

8 "A corporation is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of which it was 9 created, and of that state or country only."
10 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum, Corporations, §886]

11 Therefore, the "office" that a person holds is the "res" which is domiciled on federal territory and is a "res-ident" or "res"
12 which is "identified" in the records of the government. The person choosing through their right to contract to voluntarily
13 occupy the "office" is not a "resident", but rather the "public office" that they fill while on official duty becomes the 14 "resident". This is clarified by Bouvier's Maxims of Law, which say on this subject:

15 "Quando duo juro concurrunt in und personâ, aequum est ac si essent in diversis.
16 When two rights [public right v. private right] concur in one person, it is the same as if they were in two
17 separate persons. 4 Co. 118."

20 The Internal Revenue Code, for instance, places the domicile of those engaging in this public office within the District of 21 Columbia pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39) and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d), because as "taxpayers", they are acting in a
22 representative capacity on behalf of the national and not government:

6 Franchises are the main method by which the sovereignty of people in the states of the Union are unlawfully and
7 unconstitutionally destroyed. The gravely injurious affects of participating in government franchises include the following.

- 8 1. Those who participate in franchises are treated as domiciliaries of the federal zone, statutory “U.S. persons”, and 9 statutory “resident aliens” in respect to the federal government.
10 2. Those who participate in franchises are treated as “trustees” of the “public trust” and “public officers” of the federal 11 government and suffer great legal disability as a consequence:

12 “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be
13 exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer. 8
14 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
15 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor
16 under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal
17 financial gain from a discharge of their trusts. 9 That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship
18 to the political entity on whose behalf he or she serves. 10 and owes a fiduciary duty to the public. 11 It has
19 been said that the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private 20 individual. 12 Furthermore, it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which 21 tends to weaken public confidence and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public 22 policy.¹³”
23 [63C Am.Jur.2d, Public Officers and Employees, §247]

- 24 3. Those who participate in franchises are not protected by any part of the Constitution:
25 3.1. They are treated as though they waive their Constitutional right not to be subjected to administrative penalties and 26 other “bills of attainder” administered by the Executive Branch without court trials.
27 3.2. They must suffer the degrading treatment of filling the role of a federal “public employee” subject to the 28 supervision of their servants in the government.
29 4. Those who participate in franchises may lawfully be deprived of equal protection of the law, which is the foundation of 30 the U.S. Constitution. This deprivation of equal protection can lawfully become a provision of the franchise 31 agreement.
32 5. Those who participate in franchises can lawfully be deprived of remedy for abuses in federal courts.

(2) That where a statute creates a right and provides a special remedy, that remedy is exclusive. Wilder Manufacturing Co. v. Corn Products Co., 236 U.S. 165, 174, 175, 35 Sup.Ct. 398, 59 L.Ed. 520, Ann. Cas. 1916A, 118; Aranson v. Murphy, 109 U.S. 238, 3 Sup.Ct. 184, 27 L.Ed. 920; Barnet v. Still the fact that the right and the remedy are thus intertwined might not, if the provision stood alone, require us to hold that the remedy expressly given excludes a right of review by the Court of Claims, where the decision of the special tribunal involved no disputed question of fact and the denial of compensation was rested wholly upon the construction of the act. See Medbury v. United States, 173 U.S. 492, 198, 19 Sup.Ct. 503, 43 L.Ed. 779; Parish v. MacVeagh, 214 U.S. 124, 29 Sup.Ct. 556, 53 L.Ed. 936; McLean v. [U.S. v. Babcock, 250 U.S. 328, 39 S.Ct. 464 (1919)]

6. Those who participate in franchises can be directed which federal courts they may litigate in and can lawfully be deprived of an Constitution Article III judge or Article III court and forced to seek remedy ONLY in an Article I or Article IV legislative or administrative tribunal within the Executive rather than Judicial branch of the government.

Although Crowell and Raddatz do not explicitly distinguish between rights created by Congress and other rights, such a distinction underlies in part Crowell's and Raddatz' recognition of a critical difference between rights created by federal statute and rights recognized by the Constitution. Moreover, such a distinction seems to us to be necessary in light of the delicate accommodations required by the principle of separation of powers reflected in Art. III. The constitutional system of checks and balances is designed to guard against “encroachment or aggrandizement” by Congress at the expense of the other branches of government. Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S., at 122, 96 S.Ct., at 683. But when Congress creates a statutory right [a “privilege” in this case, such as a “trade or business”], it clearly has the discretion, in defining that right, to create presumptions, or assign burdens of proof, or prescribe remedies; it may also provide that persons seeking to vindicate that right must do so before particularized tribunals created to perform the specialized adjudicative tasks related to that right.FN35 Such provisions do, in a sense, affect the exercise of judicial power, but they are also incidental to Congress' power to define the right that it has created. No comparable justification exists, however, when the right being adjudicated is not of congressional creation. In such a situation, substantial inroads into functions that have traditionally been performed by the Judiciary cannot be characterized merely as incidental extensions of Congress' power to define rights that it has created. Rather, such inroads suggest unwarranted encroachments upon the judicial power of the United States, which our Constitution reserves for Art. III courts. [Northern Pipeline Const. Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., 458 U.S. at 83-84, 102 S.Ct. 2858 (1983)]

The authority for implementing franchises derives from Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution:

Article IV, Section 3, Clause 2

The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

In law, all rights are property, anything that conveys rights is property, contracts convey rights and are property, and all franchises are contracts and therefore property. All of the statutes enacted by Congress constitute “needful rules” for administering property of the national government, wherever situated. The U.S. Supreme Court said of these “needful rules” and the legislation that implements them the following, thus confirming that they may NOT be enforced against those protected by the Constitution, even WITH their consent:

“As courts have been presented with the need to enforce constitutional rights, they have found means of doing so. That was our responsibility when Escobedo was before us and it is our responsibility today. Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them.”
[Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 86 S.Ct. 1602, 16 L.Ed.2d. 694 (1966)]

United States District and Circuit Courts are, in fact, established pursuant ONLY to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution to administer property of the national government. If you walk into one of these courts, you are a trustee and public officer managing federal property and the so-called “judge” is really just a franchise administrator supervising an executor of the public trust. For the proof, see:

[What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012

1 The PREVENTION of the invasion of states of the Union by the national government through the abuse of franchises is the
2 MAIN thing that the U.S. Supreme Court said its duty was, when it held the following:

3 "The idea prevails with some, indeed it has found expression in arguments at the bar, that we have in this
4 country substantially two national governments; one to be maintained under the Constitution, with all of its
5 restrictions; the other to be maintained by Congress outside the independently of that instrument, by exercising
6 such powers [of absolutism] as other nations of the earth are accustomed to.. I take leave to say that, if the 7 principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of this court, a radical and
8 mischievous [SATANIC] change in our system of government will result. We will, in that event, pass from 9 the era of constitutional liberty guarded and protected by a written constitution into an era of legislative
10 absolutism.. It will be an evil [SATANIC] day for American liberty if the theory of a government outside the 11 supreme law of the land finds lodgment in our constitutional jurisprudence. No higher duty rests upon this 12 court than to exert its full authority to prevent all violation of the principles of the Constitution."
13 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901), Minority opinion]

14 Since the founding of our country, franchises have systematically been employed in every area of government to transform
15 a government based on equal protection and equal treatment into a for-profit private corporation based on privilege,
16 partiality, hypocrisy, and favoritism. The affects of this form of corruption are exhaustively described in the following
17 memorandum of law on our website:

Corporatization and Privatization of the Government, Form #05.024
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

18 What are the mechanisms by which this corruption has been implemented by the Executive Branch? This section will 19 detail the main mechanisms to sensitize you to how to fix the problem and will relate how it was implemented by exploiting
20 the separation of powers doctrine.

21 The foundation of the separation of powers is the notion that the powers delegated to one branch of government by the 22 Constitution cannot be re-delegated to another branch.

23 "... a power definitely assigned by the Constitution to one department can neither be surrendered nor
24 delegated by that department, nor vested by statute in another department or agency. Compare Springer v.
25 Philippine Islands, 277 U.S. 189, 201, 202, 48 S.Ct. 480, 72 L.Ed. 845."
26 [Williams v. U.S., 289 U.S. 553, 53 S.Ct. 751 (1933)]

27 Keenly aware of the above limitation, lawmakers over the years have used it to their advantage in creating a tax system that 28 is exempt from any kind of judicial interference and which completely destroys all separation of powers. Below is a 29 summary of the mechanism, in the exact sequence it was executed at the federal level:

- 30 1. Create a franchise based upon a "public office" in the Executive or Legislative Branch. This:
 - 31 1.1. Allows statutes passed by Congress to be directly enforced against those who participate.
 - 32 1.2. Eliminates the need for publication in the Federal Register of enforcement implementing regulations for the 33 statutes. See 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\) and 44 U.S.C. §1505\(a\)\(1\).
 - 34 1.3. Causes those engaged in the franchise to act in a representative capacity as "public officers" of the United States
35 government pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), which is defined in 28 U.S.C. §3002\(15\)\(A\) as a 36 federal corporation.
 - 37 1.4. Causes all those engaged in the franchise to become "officers of a corporation", which is the United States, 38 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6671\(b\) and 26 U.S.C. §7343.
- 39 2. Give the franchise a deceptive "word of art" name that will deceive everyone into believing that they are engaged in it.
 - 40 2.1. The franchise is called a "trade or business" and is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(26\) as "the functions of a public 41 office". How many people know this and do they teach this in the public (government) schools or the IRS
42 publications? NOT!
 - 43 2.2. Earnings connected with the franchise are called "effectively connected with a trade or business in the United 44 States". The term "United States" deceptively means the GOVERNMENT, and not the geographical United 45 States.
- 46 3. In the franchise agreement, define the effective domicile or choice of law of all those who participate as being on
47 federal territory within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. 26 U.S.C. §7408\(d\) and 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(39\)
48 place the effective domicile of all "franchisees" called "taxpayers" within the District of Columbia. If the feds really
49 had jurisdiction within states of the Union, do you think they would need this devious device to "kidnap your legal 50 identity" or "res" and move it to a foreign jurisdiction where you don't physically live?

1 4. Place a excise tax upon the franchise proportional to the income earned from the franchise. In the case of the Internal
2 Revenue Code, all such income is described as income which is “effectively connected with a trade or business within 3 the United States”.

4 “Excises are taxes laid upon the manufacture, sale or consumption of commodities within the country, upon
5 licenses to pursue certain occupations and upon corporate privileges...the requirement to pay such taxes
6 involves the exercise of [220 U.S. 107, 152] privileges, and the element of absolute and unavoidable demand
7 is lacking..

8 ...It is therefore well settled by the decisions of this court that when the sovereign authority has exercised the 9 right to tax a legitimate subject of taxation as an exercise of a franchise or privilege, it is no objection that the 10 measure of taxation is found in the income produced in part from property which of itself considered is 11 nontaxable...

12 Conceding the power of Congress to tax the business activities of private corporations.. the tax must be 13 measured by some standard...”
14 [Flint v. Stone Tracy Co., 220 U.S. 107 (1911)]

15 5. Mandate that those engaged in the franchise must have usually false evidence submitted by ignorant third parties that 16 connects them to the franchise. IRS information returns, including Forms W-2, 1042s, 1098, and 1099, are the 17 mechanism. 26 U.S.C. §6041 says that these information returns may ONLY be filed in connection with a “trade or 18 business”, which is a code word for the name of the franchise.

19 6. Write statutes prohibiting interference by the courts with the collection of “taxes” (kickbacks) associated with the 20 franchise based on the idea that courts in the Judicial Branch may not interfere with the internal affairs of another
21 branch such as the Executive Branch. Hence, the “INTERNAL Revenue Service”. This will protect the franchise from 22 interference by other branches of the government and ensure that it relentlessly expands.

23 6.1. The Anti-Injunction Act, 26 U.S.C. §7421 is an example of an act that enjoins judicial interference with tax
24 collection or assessment.

25 6.2. The Declaratory Judgments Act, 28 U.S.C. §2201(a) prohibits federal courts from pronouncing the rights or status
26 of persons in regard to federal “taxes”. This has the affect of gagging the courts from telling the truth about the 27 nature of the federal income tax.

28 6.3. The word “internal” means INTERNAL to the Executive Branch and the United States government, not
29 INTERNAL to the geographical United States of America.

30 7. Create administrative “franchise” courts in the Executive Branch which administer the program pursuant to Articles I
31 and IV of the United States Constitution.

32 7.1. U.S. Tax Court. 26 U.S.C. §7441 identifies the U.S. Tax Court as an Article I court.

33 7.2. U.S. District Courts. There is not statute establishing any United States District Court as an Article III court.
34 Consequently, even if the judges are Article III judges, they are not filling an Article III office and instead are 35 filling an Article IV office. Consequently, they are Article IV judges. All of these courts were turned into 36 franchise courts in the Judicial Code of 1911 by being renamed from the “District Court of the United States” to 37 the “United States District Court”.

38 For details on the above scam, see:

What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

39 8. Create other attractive federal franchises that piggyback in their agreements a requirement to participate in the 40 franchise. For instance, the original Social Security Act of 1935 contains a provision that those who sign up for this 41 program, also simultaneously become subject to the Internal Revenue Code.

42 Section 8 of the Social Security Act
43 INCOME TAX ON EMPLOYEES

44 SECTION 801. In addition to other taxes, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the income of every 45 individual a tax equal to the following percentages of the wages (as defined in section 811) received by him
46 after December 31, 1936, with respect to employment (as defined in section 811) after such date:

- 47 (1) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1937, 1938, and 1939, the rate shall be 1 per centum.
48 (2) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1940, 1941, and 1942, the rate shall 1 1/2 per 49 centum.
50 (3) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1943, 1944, and 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.
51 (4) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948, the rate shall be 2 1/2 per 52 centum.
53 (5) With respect to employment after December 31, 1948, the rate shall be 3 per centum.
54

- 1 9. Offer an opportunity for private citizens not domiciled within the jurisdiction of Congress to “volunteer” by license or
2 private agreement to participate in the franchise and thereby become “public officers” within the Executive Branch.
3 The IRS Form W-4 and Social Security Form SS-5 are examples of such a contract or agreement.
4 9.1. Call these volunteers “taxpayers”.
5 9.2. Call EVERYONE “taxpayers” so everyone believes that the franchise is MANDATORY.
6 9.3. Do not even acknowledge the existence of those who do not participate in the franchise. These people are called
7 “nontaxpayers” and they are not mentioned in any IRS publication.
8 9.4. Make the process of signing the agreement invisible by calling it a “Withholding Allowance Certificate” instead
9 of what it really is, which is a “license” to become a “taxpayer” and call all of your earnings “wages” and “gross 10 income”.

13 Notwithstanding the exceptions to the definition of wages specified in section 3401(a) and the regulations

31 tax withheld from eligible rollover distributions within the meaning of section 402.

- 32 10. Create a commissioner to service the franchise who becomes the “fall guy”, who then establishes a “bureau” without 33 the authority of any law and which is a private corporation that is not part of the U.S. government.

34 53 State 489

35 Revenue Act of 1939, 53 Stat. 489

36 Chapter 43: Internal Revenue Agents

37 Section 4000 Appointment

38 The Commissioner may, whenever in his judgment the necessities of the service so require, employ competent 39 agents, who shall be known and designated as internal revenue agents, and, except as provided for in this title,
40 no general or special agent or inspector of the Treasury Department in connection with internal revenue, by* 41 *whatever designation he may be known, shall be appointed, commissioned, or employed.

42 The above means that everyone who works for the Internal Revenue Service is private contractor not appointed,
43 commissioned, or employed by anyone in the government. They operate on commission and their pay derives from the 44 amount of plunder they steal. See also:

Dept of Justice Admits under Penalty of Perjury that the IRS is Not an Agency of the Federal Government
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/USGovDeniesIRS/USGovDeniesIRS.htm>

- 45 11. Create an environment that encourages irresponsibility, lies, and dishonesty within the bureau that administers the 46 franchise.
47 11.1. Indemnify these private contractors from liability by giving them “pseudonyms” so that they can disguise their 48 identify and be indemnified from liability for their criminal acts. The IRS Restructuring and Reform Act,
49 Pub.Law 105-206, Title III, Section 3706, 112 Stat. 778 and IRM 1.2.4 both authorize these pseudonyms.
50 11.2. Place a disclaimer on the website of this private THIEF contractor indemnifying them from liability for the 51 truthfulness or accuracy of any of their statements or publications. See IRM 4.10.7.2.8.

1 "IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their
2 advisors... While a good source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position."
3 [IRM 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

- 4 11.3. Omit the most important key facts and information from publications of the franchise administrator that would
5 expose the proper application of the "tax" and the proper audience. See the following, which is over 2000 pages
6 of information that are conveniently "omitted" from the IRS website about the proper application of the franchise
7 and its nature as a "franchise":

The Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/FormsInstr.htm>

- 8 11.4. Establish precedent in federal courts that you can't trust anything that anyone in the government tells you, and 9 especially those who administer the franchise. See:
10 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>
- 11 12. Use the lies and deceptions created in the previous step to promote several false perceptions in the public at large that 12 will expand the market for the franchise. These include:
13 12.1. That the franchise is NOT a franchise, but a mandatory requirement that applies to ALL. Viz: That the income
14 tax is a direct unapportioned lawful tax.
15 12.2. That participation is mandatory for ALL, instead of only for franchisees called "taxpayers".
16 12.3. That the IRS is an "agency" of the United States government that has authority to interact directly with the public
17 at large. In fact, it is a "bureau" that can ONLY lawfully service the needs of other federal agencies within the 18 Executive Branch and which may NOT interface directly with the public at large.
19 12.4. That the statutes implementing the franchise are "public law" that applies to everyone, instead of "private law"
20 that only applies to those who individually consent to participate in the franchise.
- 21 13. Create a system to service those who prepare tax returns for others whereby those who accept being "licensed" and 22 regulated get special favors. This system created by the IRS essentially punishes those who do not participate by 23 giving them horrible service and making them suffer inconvenience and waiting long in line if they don't accept the 24 "privilege" of being certified. Once they are certified, if they begin telling people the truth about what the law says and 25 encourage following the law by refusing to volunteer, their credentials are pulled. This sort of censorship is 26 accomplished through:
27 13.1. IRS Enrolled Agent Program.
28 13.2. Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensing.
29 13.3. Treasury Circular 230.
- 30 14. Engage in a pattern of "selective enforcement" and propaganda to broaden and expand the scam. For instance:
31 14.1. Refuse to answer simple questions about the proper application of the franchise and the taxes associated with it.
32 See:

If the IRS Were Selling Used Cars
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/FalseRhetoric/IRSSellingCars.htm>

- 33 14.2. Prosecute those who submit false TAX returns, but not those who submit false INFORMATION returns. This 34 causes the audience of "taxpayers" to expand because false reports are connecting innocent third parties to 35 franchises that they are not in fact engaged in.
36 14.3. Use confusion over the rules of statutory construction and the word "includes" to fool people into believing that 37 those who are "included" in the franchise are not spelled out in the law in their entirety. This leaves undue 38 discretion in the hands of IRS employees to compel ignorant "nontaxpayers" to become franchisees. See the 39 following:

Meaning of the Words "Includes" and "Including", Form #05.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 40 14.4. Refuse to define the words used on government forms, use terms that are not defined in the code such as "U.S.
41 citizen", and try to confuse "words of art" found in the law with common terms in order to use the presumptuous
42 behavior of the average American to expand the misperception that everyone has a legal DUTY to become a 43 "franchisee" and a "taxpayer".
44 14.5. Refuse to accept corrected information returns that might protect innocent "nontaxpayers" so that they are 45 inducted involuntarily into the franchise as well.

46 The above process is WICKED in the most extreme way. It describes EXACTLY how our public servants have made
47 themselves into our masters and systematically replaced every one of our rights with "privileges" and franchises. The 48 Constitutional prohibition against this sort of corruption are described as follows by the courts:

1 “It would be a palpable incongruity to strike down an act of state legislation which, by words of express
 2 divestment, seeks to strip the citizen of rights guaranteed by the federal Constitution, but to uphold an act by
 3 which the same result is accomplished under the guise of a surrender of a right in exchange for a valuable
 4 privilege which the state threatens otherwise to withhold. It is not necessary to challenge the proposition that,
 5 as a general rule, the state, having power to deny a privilege altogether, may grant it upon such conditions as it
 6 sees fit to impose. But the power of the state in that respect is not unlimited, and one of the limitations is that it
 7 may not impose conditions which require the relinquishment of Constitutional rights. If the state may compel
 8 the surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a surrender
 9 of all. It is inconceivable that guaranties embedded in the Constitution of the United States may thus be 10 manipulated out or existence.”
 11 [Frost v. Railroad Commission, 271 U.S. 583, 46 S.Ct. 605 (1926)]

12 “A right common in every citizen such as the right to own property or to engage in business of a character
 13 not requiring regulation CANNOT, however, be taxed as a special franchise by first prohibiting its exercise
 14 and then permitting its enjoyment upon the payment of a certain sum of money.”
 15 [Stevens v. State, 2 Ark. 291; 35 Am. Dec. 72, Spring Val. Water Works v. Barber, 99 Cal. 36, 33 Pac. 735, 21

17 “The individual, unlike the corporation, cannot be taxed for the mere privilege of existing. The corporation is 18 an artificial entity which owes its existence and charter power to the State, but the individual’s right to live and 19 own property are natural rights for the enjoyment of which an excise cannot be imposed.”
 20 [Redfield v. Fisher, 292 Oregon 814, 817]

21 “Legislature...cannot name something to be a taxable privilege unless it is first a privilege.” [Taxation West
 22 Key 43]...“The Right to receive income or earnings is a right belonging to every person and realization and 23 receipt of income is therefore not a ‘privilege’, that can be taxed.”
 24 [Jack Cole Co. v. MacFarland, 337 S.E.2d 453, Tenn.]

25 Through the above process of corruption, the separation of powers is completely destroyed and nearly every American has
 26 essentially been “assimilated” into the Executive Branch of the government, leaving the Constitutional Republic
 27 bequeathed to us by our founding fathers vacant and abandoned. Nearly every service that we expect from government has 28 been systematically converted over the years into a franchise using the techniques described above. The political and legal
 29 changes resulting from the above have been tabulated to show the “BEFORE” and the “AFTER” so their extremely harmful
 30 affects become crystal clear in your mind. This process of corruption, by the way, is not unique to the United States, but is 31 found in every major industrialized country on earth.

#	Characteristic	DE JURE CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT	DE FACTO GOVERNMENT BASED ENTIRELY ON FRANCHISES
1	Purpose of government	Protection	Provide “social services” and “social insurance” to government “employees” and officers
2	Nature of government	Public trust Charitable trust	For-profit private corporation (see 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A))
3	Citizens	The Sovereigns “nationals” but not “citizens” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §§1101(a)(21) and 1452	1. “Employees” or “officers” of the government 2. “Trustees” of the “public trust” 3. “customers” of the corporation 4. Statutory “U.S. citizens” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401
4	Effective domicile of citizens	Sovereign state of the Union	Federal territory and the District of Columbia
5	Purpose of tax system	Fund “protection”	1. Socialism. 2. Political favors. 3. Wealth redistribution 4. Consolidation of power and control (corporate fascism)
6	Equal protection	Mandatory	Optional
7	Nature of courts	Constitutional Article III courts in the Judicial Branch	Administrative or “franchise” courts within the Executive Branch

#	Characteristic	DE JURE CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT	DE FACTO GOVERNMENT BASED ENTIRELY ON FRANCHISES
8	Branches within the government	Executive Legislative Judicial	Executive Legislative (Judiciary merged with Executive. See Judicial Code of 1911)
9	Purpose of legal profession	Protect individual rights	1. Protect collective (government) rights. 2. Protect and expand the government monopoly. 3. Discourage reforms by making litigation so expensive that it is beyond the reach of the average citizen. 4. Persecute dissent.
10	Lawyers are	Unlicensed	Privileged and licensed and therefore subject to control and censorship by the government.
11	Votes in elections cast by	“Electors”	“Franchisees” called “registered voters” who are surety for bond measures on the ballot. That means they are subject to a “poll tax”.
12	Driving is	A common right	A licensed “privilege”
13	Marriage is	A common right	A licensed “privilege”
14	Purpose of the military	Protect the sovereign citizens No draft within states of the Union is lawful. See Federalist Papers #15	1. Expand the corporate monopoly internationally 2. Protect public servants from the angry populace who want to end the tyranny.
15	Money is	Based on gold and silver Issued pursuant to Article 1, Section 8. Clause 5.	1. A corporate bond or obligation borrowed from the Federal Reserve at interest. 2. Issued pursuant to Article 1, Section 8. Clause 2.
16	Property of citizens is	Private and allodial	All property is donated to a “public use” and connected with a “public office” to procure the benefits of a franchise
17	Ownership of real property is	Legal	Equitable. The government owns the land, and you rent it from them using property taxes.
18	Purpose of sex	Procreation	Recreation
19	Responsibility	The individual sovereign is responsible for all his actions and choices.	The collective social insurance company is responsible. Personal responsibility is outlawed.

2 7 Why Statutory Law is a Substitute for Common Law that only Applies on Federal Territory

3 The Constitution adopts the common law of England in effect at the time it was ratified in 1789. The common law, in turn,
4 is a body of judicial precedent establishing certain injurious acts as crimes consistent with the provisions of God’s law
5 found in the Holy Bible. The provisions of God’s Law, in turn, are arranged by subject matter in the following document
6 on our website:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons

Copyright Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry, <http://sedm.org>
Form 05.037, Rev. 2-20-2012

EXHIBIT: _____

1 The common law is the unwritten law that God put on our hearts. It derives from our conscience, which is what the Bible
2 describes as “the Holy Spirit”. It need not be written down because its provisions are universally recognized by all peoples
3 and all cultures in civilized society. For instance, murder is universally recognized in every society and culture on earth as
4 a crime. Even if the government never passed a law prohibiting murder as a crime, a jury of twelve people would convict
5 any person who engaged in it as a criminal and sentence them to jail. The only thing that really varies among cultures is the 6 penalty authorized to be imposed for the commission of the crime. Some cultures execute murderers, such as the United
7 States, whereas other culture sentence murderers to life in prison.

8 The criminal law need not be written down and could theoretically be enforced without any written law at all! In many
9 primitive countries and societies, this is exactly how it is still enforced. This was the case, for instance, in the early history
10 of the American west, where settlers formed their own courts to convict fellow settlers before a territorial government could
11 be established. Before we even had a business called “government”, families and tribes had their own courts and judges
12 and rulers who executed the “common law”, which is unwritten, against those within the family or tribe who injured the 13 equal rights of others. This was done for self-protection, because the right of self-defense is a God given right that comes 14 from God, not from a pagan deity called “government”.

15 For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You
16 shall not bear false witness,” “You shall not covet,” and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up
17 in this saying, namely, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

18 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.
19 [Romans 13:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

21 *“Do not strive with a man [or make him the object of law enforcement] without cause, if he has done you no
22 harm.”
23 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

24 Why, then, do governments write “statutes” to codify the common law if they don’t need to? Here are the reasons:

- 25 1. On federal territory, there is no common law. See Erie Railroad v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64 (1938).

26 “There is no Federal Common Law, and Congress has no power to declare substantive rules of Common Law
27 applicable in a state. Whether they be local or general in their nature, be they commercial law or a part of the 28 Law of Torts”
29 Erie Railroad v. Tompkins, [304 U.S. 64 (1938)]

30 Without common law, the only vehicle available to “govern” is written statutory law.

- 31 2. There is no equal protection on federal territory. None of the provisions within the Constitution, including those 32 mandating equal protection, apply on federal territory except at the pleasure and discretion of Congress.

33 “Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and
34 *uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase
35 or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to ‘guarantee to every
36 state in this Union a republican form of government’ (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
37 definition of Webster, ‘a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people,
38 and is exercised by representatives elected by them.’ Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of
39 the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana,
40 Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of
41 government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America,
42 and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by
43 the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a
44 legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the
45 Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over
46 them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the
47 privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights.”
48 Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

49 Fortunately, Congress has statutorily imposed the requirement for “equal protection” in 42 U.S.C. §1981, but that
50 requirement is still subject to the whims and discretion of a judge who is not bound by either the Constitution or the

1 common law when operating exclusively upon federal territory. Consequently, the enforcement of equal protection on
2 federal territory is little more than a franchise and a privilege that requires one to bow down and worship a federal
3 priest of the civil religion of socialism called a “judge”. For details on this scam, see:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4 3. On federal territory, there are no Constitutional rights to protect. EVERYTHING that happens on federal territory
5 must be authorized by statutory law because everything is a privilege rather than a right.

6 The above concepts explain the very reason why the federal territories created as the American west was settled were so
7 quick to join the Union and become independent republics: Because if they didn't, they would live essentially as the 8 equivalent of what the U.S. Supreme Court referred to as “a British Crown colony”!

9 The United States government was therefore formed with only two purposes in mind:

- 10 1. As a landlord and property manager for the community property of the states, which consisted of territories acquired by 11 the Union through purchase or conquest. At the time the Constitution was ratified, there were only thirteen states in the 12 Union. All the other states had not yet been formed and these states wanted a way to groom the vast unsettled
13 territorial lands for statehood and minimize skirmishes of the existing states over these unsettled lands. The power
14 over this community property or territory was delegated by the Northwest ordinance and other territorial acts to the 15 new Constitution.
16 2. To conduct foreign affairs with other nations. This includes the ability to declare war, to make peace, and to ratify
17 treaties with other nations. This authority was delegated to the “United States” by the “United States of America” that 18 was organized under the Articles of Confederation, according to the U.S. Supreme:

19 “As a result of the separation from Great Britain by the colonies, acting as a unit, the powers of external
20 sovereignty passed from the Crown not to the colonies severally, but to the colonies in their collective and
21 corporate capacity as the United States of America. Even before the Declaration, the colonies were a unit in
22 foreign affairs, acting through a common agency—namely, the Continental Congress, composed of delegates
23 from the thirteen colonies. That agency exercised the powers of war and peace, raised an army, created a
24 navy, and finally adopted the Declaration of Independence. Rulers come and go; governments end and forms of 25 government change; but sovereignty survives. A political society cannot endure [299 U.S. 304, 317] without a
26 supreme will somewhere. Sovereignty is never held in suspense. When, therefore, the external sovereignty of 27 Great Britain in respect of the colonies ceased, it immediately passed to the Union. See Penhallow v. Doane, 3
28 Dall. 54, 80, 81, Fed.Cas. No. 10925. That fact was given practical application almost at once. The treaty of 29 peace, made on September 3, 1783, was concluded between his Britannic Majesty and the 'United States of 30 America.' 8 Stat., European Treaties, 80.

31 The Union existed before the Constitution, which was ordained and established among other things to form 'a
32 more perfect Union.' Prior to that event, it is clear that the Union, declared by the Articles of Confederation to
33 be 'perpetual,' was the sole possessor of external sovereignty, and in the Union it remained without change
34 save in so far as the Constitution in express terms qualified its exercise. The Framers' Convention was called 35 and exerted its powers upon the irrefutable postulate that though the states were several their people in
36 respect of foreign affairs were one. Compare The Chinese Exclusion Case, 130 U.S. 581, 604, 606 S., 9 S.Ct.
37 623. In that convention, the entire absence of state power to deal with those affairs was thus forcefully stated by 38 Rufus King:
39 [United States v. Curtiss-Wright Export Corporation, 299 U.S. 304 (1936)]

40 All subjects of internal legislation other than those above were reserved to the states of the Union and the people by the 41 Ninth and Tenth Amendments to the Constitution. To wit:

42 Foreign States: “Nations outside of the United States...Term may also refer to another state; i.e. a sister state.
43 The term ‘foreign nations’, ...should be construed to mean all nations and states other than that in which the 44 action is brought; and hence, one state of the Union is foreign to another, in that sense.”
45 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 648]

46
47 “It is no longer open to question that the general government, unlike the states, Hammer v. Dagenhart, 247
48 U.S. 251, 275, 38 S.Ct. 529, 3 A.L.R. 649, Ann.Cas.1918E 724, possesses no inherent power in respect of the
49 internal affairs of the states; and emphatically not with regard to legislation.“
50 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238, 56 S.Ct. 855 (1936)]

1 "The difficulties arising out of our dual form of government and the opportunities for differing opinions
2 concerning the relative rights of state and national governments are many; but for a very long time this court
3 has steadfastly adhered to the doctrine that the taxing power of Congress does not extend to the states or
4 their political subdivisions. The same basic reasoning which leads to that conclusion, we think, requires like
5 limitation upon the power which springs from the bankruptcy clause. United States v. Butler, supra."
6 [Ashton v. Cameron County Water Improvement District No. 1, 298 U.S. 513, 56 S.Ct. 892 (1936)]
7

8 "Generally, the states of the Union sustain toward each other the relationship of independent sovereigns or 9 independent foreign states, except in so far as the United States is paramount as the dominating government,
10 and in so far as the states are bound to recognize the fraternity among sovereignties established by the federal 11 Constitution, as by the provision requiring each state to give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and 12 judicial proceedings of the other states..."
13 [81A Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.) §29, legal encyclopedia]

15 "The States between each other are sovereign and independent. They are distinct and separate sovereignties,
16 except so far as they have parted with some of the attributes of sovereignty by the Constitution. They continue
17 to be nations, with all their rights, and under all their national obligations, and with all the rights of nations in 18 every particular; except in the surrender by each to the common purposes and objects of the Union, under the 19 Constitution. The rights of each State, when not so yielded up, remain absolute."
20 [Bank of Augusta v. Earle, 38 U.S. (13 Pet.) 519, 10 L.Ed. 274 (1839)]

22 "In determining the boundaries of apparently conflicting powers between states and the general government,
23 the proper question is, not so much what has been, in terms, reserved to the states, as what has been, expressly 24 or by necessary implication, granted by the people to the national government; for each state possess all the
25 powers of an independent and sovereign nation, except so far as they have been ceded away by the 26 constitution. The federal government is but a creature of the people of the states, and, like an agent appointed 27 for definite and specific purposes, must show an express or necessarily implied authority in the charter of its 28 appointment, to give validity to its acts."
29 [People ex re. Atty. Gen. V. Naglee, 1 Cal. 234 (1850)]

30 It should also be emphasized that states of the Union are not "territories" as that word is used in American jurisprudence,
31 but rather sovereign, foreign, and independent NATIONS who are confederated under the auspices of a "treaty" called the 32 United States Constitution:

33 "§1. Definitions, Nature, and Distinctions

34 "The word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization has a distinctive, fixed, and legal 35 meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and does not necessarily include all the 36 territorial possessions of the United States, but may include only the portions thereof which are organized 37 and exercise governmental functions under act of congress."

38 "While the term 'territory' is often loosely used, and has even been construed to include municipal subdivisions
39 of a territory, and 'territories of the' United States is sometimes used to refer to the entire domain over which 40 the United States exercises dominion, the word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization, has
41 a distinctive, fixed, and legal meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and the term
42 'territory' or 'territories' does not necessarily include only a portion or the portions thereof which are organized
43 and exercise government functions under acts of congress. The term 'territories' has been defined to be
44 political subdivisions of the outlying dominion of the United States, and in this sense the term 'territory' is not a
45 description of a definite area of land but of a political unit governing and being governed as such. The question
46 whether a particular subdivision or entity is a territory is not determined by the particular form of government
47 with which it is, more or less temporarily, invested.

48 "Territories' or 'territory' as including 'state' or 'states.'" While the term 'territories of the' United States
49 may, under certain circumstances, include the states of the Union, as used in the federal Constitution and in 50 ordinary acts of congress "territory" does not include a foreign state.

51 "As used in this title, the term 'territories' generally refers to the political subdivisions created by congress, 52 and not within the boundaries of any of the several states."
53 [86 C.J.S. [Corpus, Juris, Secundum, Legal Encyclopedia], Territories, §1]

54 Consequently, nothing that happens outside of federal territory can become the proper subject of federal legislation. There
55 is only one exception to this rule, which is that those who participate in federal franchises may become the proper subject of 56 federal legislation regardless of where they are situated. This is because all franchises are a product of your right to 57 contract and contracts are not tied to a place.

1 Debitum et contractus non sunt nullius loci.
2 Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

3
4 Locus contractus regit actum.
5 The place of the contract [franchise agreement, in this case, which is ALSO a contract] governs the act.

10 "Judge Story, in his treatise on the Conflicts of Laws, lays down, as the basis upon which all reasonings on the 11 law of comity must necessarily rest, the following maxims: First 'that every nation possesses an exclusive
12 sovereignty and jurisdiction within its own territory'; secondly, 'that no state or nation can by its laws directly
13 affect or bind property out of its own territory, or bind persons not resident therein, whether they are natural
14 born subjects or others.' The learned judge then adds: 'From these two maxims or propositions there follows a
15 third, and that is that whatever force and obligation the laws of one country have in another depend solely upon
16 the laws and municipal regulation of the latter; that is to say, upon its own proper jurisdiction and polity, and 17 upon its own express or tacit consent." Story on Conflict of Laws §23.
[Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. v. Chambers, 73 Ohio St. 16, 76 N.E. 91, 11 L.R.A., N.S., 1012 (1905)]

18 Franchises include such things as domicile, driver's licenses, marriage licenses, income taxes, Social Security, etc. All
19 these franchises are a product of your absolute right to contract and which therefore may operate "extraterritorially" as a 20 consequence. For instance, domicile is a franchise.

21 "Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in
22 transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the
23 Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates
24 universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter
25 obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course,
26 the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most
27 obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located."

30 "This right to protect persons having a domicile, though not native-born or naturalized citizens, rests on the 31 firm foundation of justice, and the claim to be protected is earned by considerations which the protecting
32 power is not at liberty to disregard. Such domiciled citizen pays the same price for his protection as native-
33 born or naturalized citizens pay for theirs. He is under the bonds of allegiance to the country of his
34 residence, and, if he breaks them, incurs the same penalties. He owes the same obedience to the civil laws.
35 His property is, in the same way and to the same extent as theirs, liable to contribute to the support of the 36 Government. In nearly all respects, his and their condition as to the duties and burdens of Government are 37 undistinguishable."
Fong Yu Ting v. United States, [149 U.S. 698 (1893)]

38 A person situated temporarily abroad in a foreign country, while he is participating in the domicile franchise relating to 39 federal territory only, may be taxed even though he is not within the territory of the taxing authority, pursuant to 26 U.S.C.
40 §911. In that sense, government protection becomes a franchise that operates extraterritorially against property located
41 within federal territory. These facts were admitted by an early Texas state court, keeping in mind that the term
42 "citizenship", is synonymous with "domicile" under federal law:

43 "The rights of the individuals are restricted only to the extent that they have been voluntarily surrendered by 44 the citizenship [domicile] to the agencies of government."

[Baker v. Keck, 13 F.Supp. 486 (1936)]

1 The establishment of all governments requires all three of the following elements. Remove any one or more of them, and
2 you don't have a legitimate "government", but rather nothing but a de facto corporation which is NOT a "body politic":

- 3 1. People.
- 4 2. Territory.
- 5 3. Laws.

6 All written law enacted by government must be tied to a specific place and a specific group of people called a "state" who
7 voluntarily consent to the protection afforded by government by choosing a domicile within the jurisdiction of that
8 government and thereby become "customers" of the government's "protection franchise" business. These people are called 9 "citizens" (natural born or naturalized) or "residents" (aliens with permanent residence) and what entitles them to such 10 protection is their voluntary "allegiance". Based on this requirement:

- 11 1. Any law which does not prescribe a specific place is private law that only applies to those who explicitly (in writing) or 12 implicitly (by their conduct) consent to be bound by it. In that sense, it operates as a franchise rather than public law
13 that applies equally to everyone. In that sense, all such law behaves as a contract or agreement between individuals, 14 nations, or governments.
- 15 2. Those who are not part of the group called the "state" because they do not have a domicile within that jurisdiction 16 retain all their sovereignty and implicitly reserve all their rights. They:
 - 17 2.1. Are not party to the "protection contract or agreement" called the Constitution and all laws passed in pursuance to 18 it. The only law that binds them is then the common law.
 - 19 2.2. Are not obligated to pay for the protection of the government.
 - 20 2.3. Retain all their natural and inalienable rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution.
 - 21 2.4. Possess all the same sovereignty and sovereign immunity as any earthly government. In any society where all 22 men are created equal, no group of men called a "government" can have any more authority than a single man.

23 The next logical question to ask about the jurisdiction is the following insightful question posed by one of our members,
24 which we include here along with our answer:

25 _____

26 QUESTION: Being sovereign means that you have the personal responsibility to yourself and your God, but in your 27 Citizenship and Sovereignty Course, Form #12.001, it talks about Public Law. This includes the constitutions on Federal 28 and State levels, criminal codes, and Title 5 of the U.S. Code (for federal employees).

29 With that being said, if we are to only follow what the Bible says as rule, then what do criminal codes serve? Are they for 30 criminal acts in the government? Do they protect the state (as in individual people)? If I am not personally infringing on an 31 individual's rights to life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness, am I not subject to criminal codes? Or do we have to take every 32 code to heart, following those that are truly and only following God's will, and fighting those that are unconstitutional?

33 Some misdemeanors under the U.S. Code and such are oppressive to a Sovereign, and it would make sense to me that if I
34 am following God, and not personally hurting anyone else, that I am not subject to any code as long as I do not infringe on 35 an individual's life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness. No one person, or group of people can stop me from choosing to do
36 something, as long as I am not hurting anyone, correct?

37 ANSWER: That's an interesting question that arises from a fundamental misunderstanding of the nature of the 38 constitution:

- 39 1. You are correct that the origin of all the government's authority to enact public law is the protection of the equal rights 40 of all.
- 41 2. You are confusing "positive law" with "public law". They are NOT synonymous. The fact that a title or statute exists
42 is not in and of itself proof that this statute is "public law". Once again, all law is divided up between private law and 43 public law, and it is often very difficult to distinguish which of the two a given title or statute falls under. Generally:
 - 44 2.1. Only Title 18 of the U.S. Code is "public law" that applies equally to everyone physically situated on federal 45 territory.
 - 46 2.2. All other federal statutes and titles are private law that regulate the exercise of federal franchises, territory, and 47 domiciliaries. In that sense, they relate only to community "property" of the states under the management of the federal government and the federal courts pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution.

If you still don't understand this, you should go back and read the following free memorandum of law on our website:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Neither the state nor federal constitutions bind citizens, but rather they bind ONLY “public officers” who took an oath to obey them. The duty imposed by these constitutions arises from the taking of an oath and the fiduciary duty that attaches to the oath taken by these public officers.

*“As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer.”*¹⁴

Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal financial gain from a discharge of their trusts.¹⁵ That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship to the political entity on whose behalf he or she serves.¹⁶ and owes a fiduciary duty to the public.¹⁷ It has been said that the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private individual.¹⁸ Furthermore, it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which tends to weaken public confidence and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public policy.¹⁹”

[63C Am.Jur.2d, Public Officers and Employees, §247]

As a contract, which is what the courts call them, constitutions are deficient because the people never individually consented to it.

[New Orleans Gas Company v. Louisiana Light Company, 115 U.S. 650 (1885)]

Therefore, constitutions and all laws or statutes or “codes” passed in furtherance of them neither obligate private citizens nor delegate authority to public servants to impose a “duty” upon the average American to do anything other than simply to avoid hurting the equal rights of others. This is the basic function of law itself, according to Frederic Bastiat:

“We must remember that law is force, and that, consequently, the proper functions of the law cannot lawfully extend beyond the proper functions of force. When law and force keep a person within the bounds of justice, they impose nothing but a mere negation. They oblige him only to abstain from harming others. They violate neither his personality, his liberty nor his property. They safeguard all of these. They are defensive; they defend equally the rights of all.”

2 "The harmlessness of the mission performed by law and lawful defense is self-evident; the usefulness is
3 obvious; and the legitimacy cannot be disputed.

4 As a friend of mine once remarked, this negative concept of law is so true that the statement, the purpose of the 5 law is to cause justice to reign, is not a rigorously accurate statement. It ought to be stated that the purpose of
6 the law is to prevent injustice from reigning. In fact, it is injustice, instead of justice, that has an existence of 7 its own. Justice is achieved only when injustice is absent.

8 But when the law, by means of its necessary agent, force, imposes upon men a regulation of labor, a method
9 or a subject of education, a religious faith or creed - then the law is no longer negative; it acts positively upon
10 people. It substitutes the will of the legislator for their own initiatives. When this happens, the people no
11 longer need to discuss, to compare, to plan ahead; the law does all this for them. Intelligence becomes a
12 useless prop for the people; they cease to be men; they lose their personality, their liberty, their property.

13 Try to imagine a regulation of labor imposed by force that is not a violation of liberty; a transfer of wealth
14 imposed by force that is not a violation of property. If you cannot reconcile these contradictions, then you must 15 conclude that the law cannot organize labor and industry without organizing injustice."

- 18 4. Statutes passed in furtherance of state and federal constitutions therefore are law for officers of the government, not 19 private individuals.
- 20 5. Out of the second great commandment to love our neighbor found in the Holy Bible (Exodus 20:12-17, Romans 13:9, 21 and Matt. 22:39) springs all the authority of civil government delegated by God Himself, which is to love our neighbor
22 by avoiding hurting him or her. It isn't "public laws" that create the duty or impose the force to obey, but the judgment
23 of your peers sitting on a jury that ultimately does. Your liberty is in the hands of your neighbor, who is a fellow
24 sovereign. If the laws themselves are unjust to the point where juries won't enforce them, then that is where the rubber
25 meets the road because juries can't be compelled to enforce them.
- 26 6. Every good Christian should obey the criminal laws where they physically are, regardless of their choice of domicile or 27 citizenship, because you can't love your neighbor and not avoid hurting them. The purpose of all criminal laws is to 28 prevent harming the equal rights of other fellow sovereigns.
- 29 7. Only Title 18 of the U.S. code is REAL "public law", and even then, it can only be enforced for crimes committed on 30 federal territory and not within any state of the Union. Criminal provisions of all other titles of the U.S. code amount
31 to nothing more than private law that applies to those engaging in government franchises, of which the income tax and
32 Social Security are examples. If you never consented to participate in government franchises and do not violate title 18
33 on federal territory, then all titles other than Title 18 are "foreign" and do not apply to you. They are as foreign as the 34 laws of china, for instance.

35
36 As you will find out in the next section, nearly all statutes passed by Congress have no implementing regulations and 37 therefore may only be enforced ONLY against the following specifically identified groups:

- 38 1. A military or foreign affairs function of the United States. 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(1\) .
39 2. A matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts. 5
40 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(2\) .
41 3. Federal agencies or persons in their capacity as officers, agents, or employees thereof. 44 U.S.C. §1505\(a\)\(1\).

42 8 How to determine if a federal statute applies outside of federal territory

43 Government enforcement actions are actions which adversely affect the Constitutionally protected rights of the parties who 44 are the subject of the enforcement. An essential requirement of "due process of law" is notice and opportunity to be heard
45 by the parties who will be subject to the enforcement action prior to its commencement. To wit:

46 "An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality
47 is notice reasonably calculated, under all circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the 48 enforcement] action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane v. Central Hanover
49 Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) . Without proper prior notice to those who may be affected by a

1 government decision, all other procedural rights may be nullified. The exact contents of the notice required by
2 due process will, of course, vary with the circumstances.
3 [Administrative Law and Process in a Nutshell, Ernest Gellhorn, 1990, West Publishing, p. 214]
4

5 “It is sufficient to say that there are certain immutable principles of justice which inhere in the very idea of free
6 government which no member of the Union may disregard, as that no man shall be condemned in his person
7 or property without due notice and an opportunity of being heard in his own defense.”
8 Holden v. Hardy, [169 U.S. 366 (1898)]

9 The Federal Register Act, 44 U.S.C. §1505 et seq., and the Administrative Procedures Act, 5 U.S.C. §553 et seq, both
10 describe laws which may be enforced as “laws having general applicability and legal effect”. To wit, read the following,
11 which is repeated in slightly altered form in 5 U.S.C. §553(a):

12 TITLE 44 > CHAPTER 15 > § 1505
13 § 1505. Documents to be published in Federal Register

14 (a) Proclamations and Executive Orders; Documents Having General Applicability and Legal Effect;
15 Documents Required To Be Published by Congress. There shall be published in the Federal Register—

16 [. . .]

17 For the purposes of this chapter every document or order which prescribes a penalty has general applicability
18 and legal effect.

19 The requirement for “reasonable notice” or “due notice” as part of Constitutional due process extends not only to statutes
20 and regulations AFTER they are enacted into law, such as when they are enforced in a court of law, but also to the 21 publication of proposed statutes and rules/regulations BEFORE they are enacted and subsequently enforced by agencies
22 within the Executive Branch. The Federal Register is the ONLY approved method by which the public at large domiciled in 23 “States of the Union” are provided with “reasonable notice” and an opportunity to comment publicly on new or proposed 24 statutes OR rules/regulations which will directly affect them and which may be enforced directly against them.

25 TITLE 44 > CHAPTER 15 > § 1508
26 § 1508. Publication in Federal Register as notice of hearing

27 A notice of hearing or of opportunity to be heard, required or authorized to be given by an Act of Congress,
28 or which may otherwise properly be given, shall be deemed to have been given to all persons residing within
29 the States of the Union and the District of Columbia, except in cases where notice by publication is insufficient
30 in law, when the notice is published in the Federal Register at such a time that the period between the 31 publication and the date fixed in the notice for the hearing or for the termination of the opportunity to be
32 heard is—

33 Neither statutes nor the rules/regulations which implement them may be directly enforced within states of the Union against 34 the general public unless and until they have been so published in the Federal Register.

35 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552
36 § 552. Public information; agency rules, opinions, orders, records, and proceedings
37 § 1508. Publication in Federal Register as notice of hearing

38 Except to the extent that a person has actual and timely notice of the terms thereof, a person may not in any
39 manner be required to resort to, or be adversely affected by, a matter required to be published in the Federal
40 Register and not so published. For the purpose of this paragraph, matter reasonably available to the class of 41 persons affected thereby is deemed published in the Federal Register when incorporated by reference therein
42 with the approval of the Director of the Federal Register.
43

44 26 CFR §601.702 Publication and public inspection

45 (a)(2)(ii) Effect of failure to publish.

46 Except to the extent that a person has actual and timely notice of the terms of any matter referred to in 47 subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which is required to be published in the Federal Register, such person is 48 not required in any manner to resort to, or be adversely affected by, such matter if it is not so published or is
49 not incorporated by reference therein pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. Thus, for example,

1 any such matter which imposes an obligation and which is not so published or incorporated by reference will
2 not adversely change or affect a person's rights.

3 The only exceptions to the requirement for publication in the Federal Register of the statute and the implementing
4 regulations are the groups specifically identified by Congress as expressly exempted from this requirement, as follows:

- 5 1. A military or foreign affairs function of the United States. 5 U.S.C. §553(a)(1) .
- 6 2. A matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts. 5
7 U.S.C. §553(a)(2) .
- 8 3. Federal agencies or persons in their capacity as officers, agents, or employees thereof. 44 U.S.C. §1505(a)(1).

9 Based on the above, the burden of proof imposed upon the government at any due process meeting in which it is enforcing
10 any provision is to produce at least ONE of the following TWO things:

- 11 1. Evidence signed under penalty of perjury by someone with personal, first-hand knowledge, proving that you are a 12 member of one of the three groups specifically exempted from the requirement for implementing regulations, as 13 identified above.
- 14 2. Evidence of publication in the Federal Register of BOTH the statute AND the implementing regulation which they 15 seek to enforce against you.

16 Without satisfying one of the above two requirements, the government is illegally enforcing federal law against PRIVATE 17 persons protected by the Constitution and becomes liable for a constitutional tort. For case number two above, the federal 18 courts have said the following enlightening things:

2 "Failure to adhere to agency regulations [by the IRS or other agency] may amount to denial of due process if
3 regulations are required by constitution or statute..."
4 [Curley v. United States, 791 F.Supp. 52]

5 Another very interesting observation is that the federal courts have essentially ruled that I.R.C. Subtitle A pertains almost 6 exclusively to the government, when they said:

7 "Federal income tax regulations governing filing of income tax returns do not require Office of Management
8 and Budget control numbers because requirement to file tax return is mandated by statute, not by regulation."
9 [U.S. v. Bartrug, E.D.Va.1991, 777 F.Supp. 1290 , affirmed 976 F.2d 727, certiorari denied 113 S.Ct. 1659,
10 507 U.S. 1010, 123 L.Ed.2d. 278]

11 Since there are not implementing regulations requiring the filing of tax returns, the statutes which establish the requirement
12 are only directly enforceable against those who are members of the groups specifically exempted from the requirement for 13 implementing regulations published in the Federal Register as described above. This is also consistent with the statutes
14 authorizing enforcement within the I.R.C. itself found in 26 U.S.C. §6331, which say on the subject the following:

15 26 U.S.C., Subchapter D - Seizure of Property for Collection of Taxes
16 Sec. 6331. Levy and distraint

17 (a) Authority of Secretary

18 If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same within 10 days after notice and demand,

27 failure or refusal to pay such tax, collection thereof by levy shall be lawful without regard to the 10-day period
28 provided in this section.

29 As a consequence of the above, we can conclude the following about statutes published by the federal government:

30 1. The Constitution requires "reasonable notice" and the opportunity to comment be given to all parties against whom a
31 new or proposed law or statute is to be enforced against before it can become binding against them. See:

Requirement for Reasonable Notice, Form #05.022
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

32 2. All statutes passed by Congress in the Statutes At Large which might confer "enforcement authority" upon the United 33 States government are identified as having "general applicability and legal affect". See:

34 2.1. Federal Register Act: 44 U.S.C. §1505(a).

35 2.2. Administrative Procedures Act: 5 U.S.C. §553(a).

36 3. A statute which has "general applicability and legal effect" is a statute which:

37 3.1. Authorizes any kind of penalty against the general public domiciled in states of the Union.

38 3.2. Can have any adverse affect upon the Constitutionally protected rights of the audience.

39 4. The purpose of providing reasonable notice to the public of all laws that could be enforced against them are many:

40 4.1. It provides an opportunity for comment by the public. This comment is accomplished at the following website
41 <http://regulations.gov>

42 4.2. It provides an opportunity to ensure that the proposed new or changed regulations which authorize enforcement
43 are clear and concise and not vague and therefore unenforceable. Any law which is "void" and "vague" is 44 unenforceable under a doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court known as the "void for vagueness" criteria. See:
45 <http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/VoidForVagueness.htm>

46 4.3. It builds an administrative record which the courts can use later on when disputes arise over the meaning of the 47 new regulations, so that the legislative intent can be clearly discerned and correctly applied during the judicial 48 review process.

- 1 5. The Federal Register is the only approved or lawful method by which persons domiciled in states of the Union are 2 provided with “reasonable notice” of all laws which might be enforced against them. This fact is described in the 3 Federal Register Act, 44 U.S.C. §1508.
- 4 6. Failure to provide “reasonable notice” of a new statute to the interested parties constitutes a violation of due process of 5 law and renders the statute unenforceable.
- 6 7. Certain very limited groups of persons are specifically exempted from the requirement for publication in the Federal 7 Register of enforcement statutes and regulations. These groups include:
8 7.1. A military or foreign affairs function of the United States. 5 U.S.C. §553(a)(1).
9 7.2. A matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts. 5
10 U.S.C. §553(a)(2).
11 7.3. Federal agencies or persons in their capacity as officers, agents, or employees thereof. 44 U.S.C. §1505(a)(1).
- 12 8. All of the above exempted groups are in the Executive Branch of the United States government. The reason why the 13 above groups are specifically exempted is because:
14 8.1. Congress is the only entity that has the authority to legislate.
15 8.2. We are a government of laws and not men. Marbury v. Madison. Laws are the method by which we control and 16 elect what our servants in government do within the Executive Branch.
17 8.3. Statutes passed by Congress represent a direct command to their servants in the Executive Branch. If the servant,
18 which is the Executive Branch, had the authority or discretion to decide NOT to write implementing regulations
19 for a statute and thereby interfere with the enforcement of the enactments of Congress, they could gridlock our 20 government indefinitely by simply refusing to write enforcement regulations and thereby refusing to do their job.
- 21 9. All statutes for which there are no enforcement regulations published in the Federal Register:
22 9.1. May only be enforced against members of the specifically exempted groups.
23 9.2. Apply only to federal government instrumentalities, agencies, contractors, employees, officers, and benefit
24 recipients. In that sense, they can safely be presumed to be “law ONLY for government” and not for the private 25 citizen.
26 9.3. May not be enforced directly against members of the general public domiciled in states of the Union who are not 27 members of the groups specifically exempted from the requirement for implementing regulations.
- 28 10. If someone cites a statute in court against you and does not provide the associated implementing regulation and proof
29 that the statute and the implementing regulation were published in the Federal Register, then:
30 10.1. They are making a silent presumption that you are an instrumentality of the federal government working in the 31 Executive Branch.
32 10.2. You must vociferously challenge their silent presumption using this pamphlet in defense of your God-given,
33 natural, and Constitutionally protected rights.
34 10.3. The method of challenging the false presumption is to:
35 10.3.1. Present the admissions at the end of this pamphlet, give them a fixed time limit, and tell them that their 36 answer if they fail to rebut is “Admit” to each question.
37 10.3.2. Ask them for either proof that you are in one of the specifically exempted groups or proof of publication
38 in the Federal Register of BOTH the statute AND the implementing regulation they seek to enforce. If they 39 cannot produce an implementing regulation or they cannot produce proof of publication in the Federal 40 Register, then the only conclusion remaining is that they are assuming you are a member of one of the 41 groups specifically exempted from the requirement for regulations, all of whom are federal 42 instrumentalities, agents, and officers in the Executive Branch of the United States Government, which is a 43 false presumption in most cases.

45 enforced beyond the discussion in this section, see:

46 9 Evidence corroborating the findings in this document

47 9.1 Marriage Licenses

48 Before there were marriage license, we had marriage certificates and the common law prevailed. When injustices occurred
49 to women because some men abandoned their familial responsibilities, the government stepped in to try to regulate
50 marriage by licensing it starting in about 1923 with the Uniform Marriage and Marriage License Act. They enacted family

1 codes in the states which all amount to private law and private contract with the government which makes marriage into
2 polygamy, because the spouses are now marrying the state:

46 [West v. West, 689 N.E.2d. 1215 (1998)]

47 Notice above the phrase "marriage is a three party contract between the man, the woman, and the State". This is 48 misleading, however. LICENSED marriage is a three party contract. Common law marriage executed WITHOUT a
49 license is NOT. The Supreme Court, for instance, admitted that all family law statutes are merely "directory" in nature in 50 the case of those not married with a marriage license and instead married with a marriage certificate.

51 "As before remarked, the statutes are held merely directory; because marriage is a thing of common right..."
52 [emphasis added]
53 [Meister v. Moore, 96 U.S. 76 (1877)]

54 Black's Law Dictionary defines the word "directory" as follows:

55 "Directory - A provision in a statute, rule of procedure, or the like, which is a mere direction or instruction of 56 no obligatory force, and involving no invalidating consequence for its disregard, as opposed to an imperative
57 or mandatory provision, which must be followed."
58 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, pp. 460-461]

1 Therefore, marriage licenses are a contract with the government and represent consent to be bound by family law statutes
2 and code that otherwise would be of no force or obligation upon the parties if they had not obtained a license and instead
3 had negotiated a private marriage contract.

4 When parties pursue a marriage license, then they become voluntary officers or “public officers” of the state and the family
5 code in their state acts as the equivalent of their “employment agreement”.

7 9.2 Serving on Jury Duty

8 Those serving on jury duty are deemed to be “public officers” of the government. That is the only means by which 9 government can legislate for them.

10 TITLE 18 > PART I > CHAPTER 11 > § 201
11 § 201. Bribery of public officials and witnesses

12 (a) For the purpose of this section—

13 (1) the term “public official” means Member of Congress, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, either before
14 or after such official has qualified, or an officer or employee or person acting for or on behalf of the United
15 States, or any department, agency or branch of Government thereof, including the District of Columbia, in any
16 official function, under or by authority of any such department, agency, or branch of Government, or a juror;

17 Bribing a juror is equivalent to bribing a “public official”. Those serving as jurors must become part of the government
18 before either the judge or the jury has any authority to regulate their conduct. Otherwise, they are private persons who are 19 sovereign and have a right to be left alone by not becoming the subject of any federal legislation or regulation.

20 9.3 “Public” v. “Private” employment: You really work for Uncle Sam and not Your Private 21 Employer If You Receive Federal Benefits

22 “All systems either of preference or of restraint, therefore, being thus completely taken away, the obvious and 23 simple system of natural liberty establishes itself of its own accord. Every man, as long as he does not violate
24 the laws of justice, is left perfectly free to pursue his own interest his own way, and to bring both his industry
25 and capital into competition with those of any other man or order of men. The sovereign is completely
26 discharged from a duty, in the attempting to perform which he must always be exposed to innumerable 27 delusions, and for the proper performance of which no human wisdom or knowledge could ever be sufficient:
28 the duty of superintending the industry of private people.”
29 Adam Smith, [An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations (1776)]

30 The U.S. Supreme Court has said many times that the ONLY purpose for lawful, constitutional taxation is to collect
31 revenues to support ONLY the machinery and operations of the government and its “employees”. This purpose, it calls a 32 “public use” or “public purpose”:

33 “The power to tax is, therefore, the strongest, the most pervading of all powers of government, reaching 34 directly or indirectly to all classes of the people. It was said by Chief Justice Marshall, in the case of 35 McCulloch v. Md., 4 Wheat. 431, that the power to tax is the power to destroy. A striking instance of the truth
36 of the proposition is seen in the fact that the existing tax of ten per cent, imposed by the United States on the 37 circulation of all other banks than the National Banks, drove out of existence every *state bank of circulation
38 within a year or two after its passage. This power can be readily employed against one class of individuals and 39 in favor of another, so as to ruin the one class and give unlimited wealth and prosperity to the other, if there is 40 no implied limitation of the uses for which the power may be exercised.

41 To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to
42 bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a
43 robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree
44 under legislative forms.

1 Nor is it taxation. 'A tax,' says Webster's Dictionary, 'is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or
2 property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.' 'Taxes are burdens or charges
3 imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.' Cooley, Const.
4 Lim., 479.

5 Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John's Church, 13 Pa. St., 104 says, very forcibly, 'I think the common
6 mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the
7 government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they
8 are imposed for a public purpose.' See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St., 69; Matter of Mayor of
9 N.Y., 11 Johns., 77; Camden v. Allen, 2 Dutch., 398; Sharpless v. Mayor, supra; Hanson v. Vernon, 27 Ia., 47;
10 Whiting v. Fond du Lac, supra."
11 [Loan Association v. Topeka, 20 Wall. 655 \(1874\)]

12
13 "A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the 14 support of the government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group 15 for the benefit of another."
16 [U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 \(1936\)]

17 Black's Law Dictionary defines the word "public purpose" as follows:

18 "Public purpose. In the law of taxation, eminent domain, etc., this is a term of classification to distinguish the 19 objects for which, according to settled usage, the government is to provide, from those which, by the like usage,
20 are left to private interest, inclination, or liberality. The constitutional requirement that the purpose of any tax,
21 police regulation, or particular exertion of the power of eminent domain shall be the convenience, safety, or
22 welfare of the entire community and not the welfare of a specific individual or class of persons [such as, for 23 instance, federal benefit recipients as individuals]. "Public purpose" that will justify expenditure of public
24 money generally means such an activity as will serve as benefit to community as a body and which at same time
25 is directly related function of government. Pack v. Southwestern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 Tenn. 503, 387
26 S.W.2d. 789, 794.

27 The term is synonymous with governmental purpose. As employed to denote the objects for which taxes may be
28 levied, it has no relation to the urgency of the public need or to the extent of the public benefit which is to 29 follow; the essential requisite being that a public service or use shall affect the inhabitants as a community,
30 and not merely as individuals. A public purpose or public business has for its objective the promotion of the 31 public health, safety, morals, general welfare, security, prosperity, and contentment of all the inhabitants or
32 residents within a given political division, as, for example, a state, the sovereign powers of which are exercised 33 to promote such public purpose or public business."
34 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1231, Emphasis added]

35 A related word defined in Black's Law Dictionary is "public use":

36 Public use. Eminent domain. The constitutional and statutory basis for taking property by eminent domain.
37 For condemnation purposes, "public use" is one which confers some benefit or advantage to the public; it is not 38 confined to actual use by public. It is measured in terms of right of public to use proposed facilities for which 39 condemnation is sought and, as long as public has right of use, whether exercised by one or many members of 40 public, a "public advantage" or "public benefit" accrues sufficient to constitute a public use. Montana Power
41 Co. v. Bokma, Mont., 457 P.2d 769, 772, 773.

42 Public use, in constitutional provisions restricting the exercise of the right to take property in virtue of eminent
43 domain, means a use concerning the whole community distinguished from particular individuals. But each and 44 every member of society need not be equally interested in such use, or be personally and directly affected by it;
45 *if the object is to satisfy a great public want or exigency, that is sufficient. Ringe Co. v. Los Angeles County, 262*
46 U.S. 700, 43 S.Ct. 689, 692, 67 L.Ed. 1186. The term may be said to mean public usefulness, utility, or
47 advantage, or what is productive of general benefit. It may be limited to the inhabitants of a small or restricted
48 locality, but must be in common, and not for a particular individual. The use must be a needful one for the 49 public, which cannot be surrendered without obvious general loss and inconvenience. A "public use" for which 50 land may be taken defies absolute definition for it changes with varying conditions of society, new appliances in
51 the sciences, changing conceptions of scope and functions of government, and other differing circumstances
52 *brought about by an increase in population and new modes of communication and transportation. *Katz v.
53 Brandon, 156 Conn. 521, 245 A.2d. 579, 586.

54 See also Condemnation; Eminent domain.
55 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1232]

56 Black's Law Dictionary also defines the word "tax" as follows:

1 “Tax: A charge by the government on the income of an individual, corporation, or trust, as well as the value
2 of an estate or gift. The objective in assessing the tax is to generate revenue to be used for the needs of the 3 public.

4 A pecuniary [relating to money] burden laid upon individuals or property to support the government, and is a
5 payment exacted by legislative authority. In re Mytinger, D.C.Tex. 31 F.Supp. 977,978,979. Essential
6 characteristics of a tax are that it is NOT A VOLUNTARY
7 PAYMENT OR DONATION, BUT AN ENFORCED
8 CONTRIBUTION, EXACTED PURSUANT TO
9 LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY. Michigan Employment Sec. Commission v. Patt, 4
10 Mich.App. 228, 144 N.W.2d. 663, 665.”
11 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1457]

12 So in order to be legitimately called a “tax” or “taxation”, the money we pay to the government must fit all of the following 13 criteria:

- 14 1. The money must be used ONLY for the support of government.
- 15 2. The subject of the tax must be “liable”, and responsible to pay for the support of government under the force of law.
- 16 3. The money must go toward a “public purpose” rather than a “private purpose”.
- 17 4. The monies paid cannot be described as wealth transfer between two people or classes of people within society
- 18 5. The monies paid cannot aid one group of private individuals in society at the expense of another group, because this
19 violates the concept of equal protection of law for all citizens found in section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment

20 If the monies demanded by government do not fit all of the above requirements, then they are being used for a “private”
21 purpose and cannot be called “taxes” or “taxation”, according to the Supreme Court. Actions by the government to enforce 22 the payment of any monies that do not meet all the above requirements can therefore only be described as:

- 23 1. Theft and robbery by the government in the guise of “taxation”.
- 24 2. Government by decree rather than by law.
- 25 3. Tyranny.
- 26 4. Socialism.
- 27 5. Mob rule and a tyranny by the “have-nots” against the “haves”.
- 28 6. 18 U.S.C. §241: Conspiracy against rights. The IRS shares tax return information with states of the union, so that both 29 of them can conspire to deprive you of your property.
- 30 7. 18 U.S.C. §242: Deprivation of rights under the color of law. The Fifth Amendment says that people in states of the 31 Union cannot be deprived of their property without due process of law or a court hearing. Yet, the IRS tries to make it
32 appear like they have the authority to just STEAL these people’s property for a fabricated tax debt that they aren’t even 33 legally liable for.
- 34 8. 18 U.S.C. §247: Damage to religious property; obstruction of persons in the free exercise of religious beliefs
- 35 9. 18 U.S.C. §872: Extortion by officers or employees of the United States.
- 36 10. 18 U.S.C. §876: Mailing threatening communications. This includes all the threatening notices regarding levies, liens, 37 and idiotic IRS letters that refuse to justify why government thinks we are “liable”.
- 38 11. 18 U.S.C. §880: Receiving the proceeds of extortion. Any money collected from Americans through illegal
39 enforcement actions and for which the contributors are not "liable" under the law is extorted money, and the IRS is in 40 receipt of the proceeds of illegal extortion.
- 41 12. 18 U.S.C. §1581: Peonage, obstructing enforcement. IRS is obstructing the proper administration of the Internal 42 Revenue Code and the Constitution, which require that they respect those who choose NOT to volunteer to participate
43 in the federal donation program identified under subtitle A of the I.R.C.
- 44 13. 18 U.S.C. §1583: Enticement into slavery. IRS tries to enlist “nontaxpayers” to rejoin the ranks of other peons who 45 pay taxes they aren’t demonstrably liable for, which amount to slavery.
- 46 14. 18 U.S.C. §1589: Forced labor. Being forced to expend one’s personal time responding to frivolous IRS notices and 47 pay taxes on my labor that I am not liable for.

48 We also cannot assume or suppose that our government has the authority to make “gifts” of monies collected through its 49 taxation powers, and especially not when paid to private individuals or foreign countries because:

- 1 1. The Constitution DOES NOT authorize the government to “gift” money to anyone within states of the Union or in
2 foreign countries, and therefore, this is not a Constitutional use of public funds, nor does unauthorized expenditure of
3 such funds produce a tangible public benefit, but rather an injury, by forcing those who do not approve of the gift to 4 subsidize it and yet not derive any personal benefit whatsoever for it.
- 5 2. The Supreme Court identifies such abuse of taxing powers as “robbery in the name of taxation” above.

6 Based on the foregoing analysis, we are then forced to divide the monies collected by the government through its taxing
7 powers into only two distinct classes. We also emphasize that every tax collected and every expenditure originating from 8 the tax paid MUST fit into one of the two categories below:

9

1 Table 3: Two methods for taxation

#	Characteristic	Public use/purpose	Private use/purpose
1	Authority for tax	U.S. Constitution	Legislative fiat, tyranny
2	Monies collected described by Supreme Court as	Legitimate taxation	“Robbery in the name of taxation” (see Loan Assoc. v. Topeka , above)
3	Money paid only to following parties	Federal “employees”, contractors, and agents	Private parties with no contractual relationship or agency with the government
4	Government that practices this form of taxation is	A righteous government	A THIEF
5	This type of expenditure of revenues collected is:	Constitutional	Unconstitutional
6	Lawful means of collection	Apportioned direct or indirect taxation	Voluntary donation (cannot be lawfully implemented as a “tax”)
7	Tax system based on this approach is	A lawful means of running a government	A charity and welfare state for private interests, thieves, and criminals
8	Government which identifies payment of such monies as mandatory and enforceable is	A righteous government	A lying, thieving government that is deceiving the people.
9	When enforced, this type of tax leads to	Limited government that sticks to its corporate charter, the Constitution	Socialism Communism Mafia protection racket Organized extortion
10	Lawful subjects of Constitutional, federal taxation	Taxes on imports into states of the Union coming from foreign countries. See Constitution, Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3 (external) taxation.	No subjects of lawful taxation. Whatever unconstitutional judicial fiat and a deceived electorate will tolerate is what will be imposed and enforced at the point of a gun
11	Tax system based on this approach based on	Private property	All property being owned by the state through eminent domain. Tax becomes a means of “renting” what amounts to state property to private individuals for temporary use.

2 The U.S. Supreme Court also helped to clarify how to distinguish the two above categories when it said:

3 “It is undoubtedly the duty of the legislature which imposes or authorizes municipalities to impose a tax to see
 4 that it is not to be used for purposes of private interest instead of a public use, and the courts can only be
 5 justified in interposing when a violation of this principle is clear and the [87 U.S. 665] reason for interference
 6 cogent. And in deciding whether, in the given case, the object for which the taxes are assessed falls upon the 7 one side or the other of this line, they must be governed mainly by the course and usage of the government,
 8 the objects for which taxes have been customarily and by long course of legislation levied, what objects or 9 purposes have been considered necessary to the support and for the proper use of the government, whether
 10 state or municipal. Whatever lawfully pertains to this and is sanctioned by time and the acquiescence of the 11 people may well be held to belong to the public use, and proper for the maintenance of good government,
 12 though this may not be the only criterion of rightful taxation.”
 13 [Loan Association v. Topeka, 20 Wall. 655 (1874)]

14 If we give our government the benefit of the doubt by “assuming” or “presuming” that it is operating lawfully and
 15 consistent with the model on the left above, then we have no choice but to conclude that everyone who lawfully receives
 16 any kind of federal payment MUST be either a federal “employee” or “federal contractor” on official duty, and that the 17 compensation received must be directly connected to the performance of a sovereign or Constitutionally authorized
 18 function of government. Any other conclusion or characterization of a lawful tax other than this is irrational, inconsistent
 19 with the rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court on this subject, and an attempt to deceive the public about the role of limited
 20 Constitutional government based on Republican principles. This means that you cannot participate in any of the following
 21 federal social insurance programs WITHOUT being a federal “employee”, and if you refuse to identify yourself as a federal 22 employee, then you are admitting that your government is a thief and a robber that is abusing its taxing powers:

- 1 1. Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code. I.R.C. (26 U.S.C.) sections 1, 32, and 162 all confer privileged financial
- 2 benefits to the participant which constitute federal “employment” compensation.
- 3 2. Social Security.
- 4 3. Unemployment compensation.
- 5 4. Medicare.

6 An examination of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. §552a\(a\)\(13\), in fact, identifies all those who participate in the above

7 programs as “federal personnel”, which means federal “employees”. To wit:

8 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a

9 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals

10 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

11 (13) the term “Federal personnel” means officers and employees of the Government of the United States,

12 members of the uniformed services (including members of the Reserve Components), individuals entitled to

13 receive immediate or deferred retirement benefits under any retirement program of the Government of the

14 United States (including survivor benefits).

15 The “individual” they are talking about above is further defined in 5 U.S.C. §552a\(a\)\(2\) as follows:

16 TITLE 5 - GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION AND EMPLOYEES

17 PART I - THE AGENCIES GENERALLY

18 CHAPTER 5 - ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

19 SUBCHAPTER II - ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

20 §552a. Records maintained on individuals

21 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

22 (2) the term “individual” means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent

23 residence;

24 The “citizen of the United States” they are referring to above is based on the statutory rather than constitutional definition

25 of the “United States”, which means it refers to the federal zone and excludes states of the Union. Also, note that both of

26 the two preceding definitions are found within Title 5 of the U.S. Code, which is entitled “Government Organization and

27 Employees”. Therefore, it refers ONLY to government employees and excludes private sector employees. There is no

28 definition of the term “individual” anywhere in Title 26 (I.R.C.) of the U.S. Code or any other title that refers to private

29 human beings, because Congress cannot legislate for them as PRIVATE parties. Notice the use of the phrase “private

30 business” in the U.S. Supreme Court ruling below:

31 “The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private

34 it may tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the State, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond

35 the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to

36 the organization of the State, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the

37 Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his

40 Hale v. Henkel, [201 U.S. 43, 74 (1906)]

41 The purpose of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights instead is to REMOVE authority of the Congress to legislate for

42 private persons and thereby protect their sovereignty and dignity. That is why the U.S. Supreme Court ruled the following:

43 “The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They

QUESTIONS FOR DOUBTERS: If you aren't a federal "employee" as a person participating in Social Security and the Internal Revenue Code, then why are all of the Social Security Regulations located in Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations under parts 400-499, entitled "Employee Benefits"? See for yourself:

http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov/cgi/t/text/text-idx?sid=f073dcf7b1b49c3d353eaf290d735663&c=ecfr&tpl=/ecfrbrowse/Title20/20tab_02.tpl

Another very important point to make here is that the purpose of nearly all federal law is to regulate "public conduct" rather than "private conduct". Congress must write laws to regulate and control every aspect of the behavior of its employees so that they do not adversely affect the rights of private individuals like you, who they exist exclusively to serve and protect. Most federal statutes, in fact, are exclusively for use by those working in government and simply do not apply to private citizens in the conduct of their private lives. Federal law cannot apply to the private sector at large because the Thirteenth Amendment says that involuntary servitude has been abolished. If involuntary servitude is abolished, then they can't use, or in this case "abuse" the authority of law to impose ANY kind of duty against anyone in the private public except possibly the responsibility to avoid hurting their neighbor and thereby depriving him of the equal rights he enjoys.

For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of [the ONLY requirement of] the law [which is to avoid hurting your neighbor and thereby love him].
[Romans 13:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

"Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm."
[Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

Thomas Jefferson, our most revered founding father, summed up this singular duty of government to LEAVE PEOPLE ALONE and only interfere or impose a "duty" using the authority of law when and only when they are hurting each other in order to protect them and prevent the harm when he said.

"With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities."
[Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

The U.S. Supreme Court confirmed this view, when it ruled:

"The power to "legislate generally upon" life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the "power to provide modes of redress" against offensive state action, was "repugnant" to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876); United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883); James v. Bowman, 190 U.S. 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or modified, see, e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964); United States v. Guest, 383 U.S. 745 (1966), their treatment of Congress' §5 power as corrective or preventive, not definitional, has not been questioned."
[City of Boerne v. Flores, Archbishop of San Antonio, 521 U.S. 507 (1997)]

What the U.S. Supreme Court is saying above is that the government has no authority to tell you how to run your private life. This is contrary to the whole idea of the Internal Revenue Code, whose main purpose is to monitor and control every aspect of those who are subject to it. In fact, it has become the chief means for Congress to implement what we call "social engineering". Just by the deductions they offer, people are incentivized into all kinds of behaviors in pursuit of reductions in a liability that they in fact do not even have. Therefore, the only reasonable thing to conclude is that Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, which would "appear" to regulate the private conduct of all individuals in states of the Union, in fact only applies to federal instrumentalities or "public employees" in the official conduct of their duties on behalf of the municipal corporation located in the District of Columbia, which 4 U.S.C. §72 makes the "seat of government". The I.R.C. therefore essentially amounts to a part of the job responsibility and the "employment contract" of "public employees" and

1 federal instrumentalities. This was also confirmed by the House of Representatives, who said that only those who take an
2 oath of “public office” are subject to the requirements of the personal income tax. See:

3 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/PublicOrPrivate-Tax-Return.pdf>

4 Within the Internal Revenue Code, those legal “persons” who work for the government are identified as engaging in a
5 “public office”. A “public office” within the Internal Revenue Code is called a “trade or business”, which is defined below.
6 We emphasize that engaging in a privileged “trade or business” is the main excise taxable activity that in fact and in deed is 7 what REALLY makes a person a “taxpayer” subject to the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A:

8 26 U.S.C. Sec. 7701\(a\)\(26\)

9 “The term ‘trade or business’ includes the performance of the functions of a public office.”

10 Below is the definition of “public office”:

11 Public office

12 “Essential characteristics of a ‘public office’ are:

13 (1) Authority conferred by law,

14 (2) Fixed tenure of office, and

15 (3) Power to exercise some of the sovereign functions of government.

16 (4) Key element of such test is that “officer is carrying out a sovereign function’.

17 (5) Essential elements to establish public position as ‘public office’ are:

18 (a) Position must be created by Constitution, legislature, or through authority conferred by legislature.

19 (b) Portion of sovereign power of government must be delegated to position,

20 (c) Duties and powers must be defined, directly or implied, by legislature or through legislative authority.

21 (d) Duties must be performed independently without control of superior power other than law, and

22 (e) Position must have some permanency.”

23 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1230]

24 Those who are fulfilling the “functions of a public office” are under a legal, fiduciary duty as “trustees” of the “public
25 trust”, while working as “volunteers” for the “charitable trust” called the “United States Government Corporation”, which 26 we affectionately call “U.S. Inc.”:

27 “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be
28 exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer.”²⁰

29 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
30 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor
31 under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal
32 financial gain from a discharge of their trusts.²¹ That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship
33 to the political entity on whose behalf he or she serves.²² and owes a fiduciary duty to the public.²³ It has
34 been said that the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private
35 individual.²⁴ Furthermore, it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which tends 36 to weaken public confidence and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public
37 policy.²⁵

25 Those who are acting as “public officers” for “U.S. Inc.” have essentially donated their formerly private property to a
26 “public use”. In effect, they have joined the SOCIALIST collective and become partakers of money STOLEN from people,
27 most of whom, do not wish to participate and who would quit if offered an informed choice to do so.

28 “My son, if sinners [socialists, in this case] entice you,

51 Below is what the U.S. Supreme Court says about those who have donated their private property to a “public use”. The 52 ability to volunteer your private property for “public use”, by the way, also implies the ability to UNVOLUNTEER at any 53 time, which is the part no government employee we have ever found is willing to talk about. I wonder why....DUHHHHH!:

54 “Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
55 and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
56 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use
57 it to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor's benefit; second,
58 that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due compensation.

[Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

Any legal person, whether it be a natural person, a corporation, or a trust, may become a “public office” if it volunteers to do so. A subset of those engaging in such a “public office” are federal “employees”, but the term “public office” or “trade or business” encompass much more than just government “employees”. In law, when a legal “person” volunteers to accept the legal duties of a “public office”, it therefore becomes a “trustee”, an agent, and fiduciary (as defined in 26 U.S.C. §6903) acting on behalf of the federal government by the operation of private contract law. It becomes essentially a “franchisee” of the federal government carrying out the provisions of the franchise agreement, which is found in:

1. Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A, in the case of the federal income tax.
2. The Social Security Act, which is found in Title 42 of the U.S. Code.

If you would like to learn more about how this “trade or business” scam works, consult the authoritative article below:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/MemLaw/TradeOrBusScam.pdf>

If you would like to know more about the extreme dangers of participating in all government franchises and why you destroy ALL your Constitutional rights and protections by doing so, see:

1. Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Liberty University, Section 4:
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

The IRS Form 1042-S Instructions confirm that all those who use Social Security Numbers are engaged in the “trade or business” franchise:

Box 14, Recipient’s U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

You must obtain and enter a U.S. taxpayer identification number (TIN) for:

- Any recipient whose income is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

[IRS Form 1042-S Instructions, p. 14]

Engaging in a “trade or business” therefore implies a “public office”, which makes the person using the number into a “public officer” who has donated his formerly private time and services to a “public use” and agreed to give the public the right to control and regulate that use through the operation of the franchise agreement, which is the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A and the Social Security Act found in Title 42 of the U.S. Code. The Social Security Number is therefore the equivalent of a “license number” to act as a “public officer” for the federal government, who is a fiduciary or trustee subject to the plenary legislative jurisdiction of the federal government pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(39\), 26 U.S.C. §7408\(c\), and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 17\(b\), regardless of where he might be found geographically, including within a state of the Union. The franchise agreement governs “choice of law” and where its terms may be litigated, which is the District of Columbia, based on the agreement itself.

Now let’s apply what we have learned to your employment situation. God said you cannot work for two companies at once. You can only serve one company, and that company is the federal government if you are receiving federal benefits:

“No one can serve two masters [two employers, for instance]; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [government].”
[Luke 16:13, Bible, NKJV. Written by a tax collector]

Everything you make while working for your slave master, the federal government, is their property over which you are a fiduciary and “public officer”.

1 "THE" + "IRS" = "THEIRS"

2 A federal "public officer" has no rights in relation to their master, the federal government:

3 "The restrictions that the Constitution places upon the government in its capacity as lawmaker, i.e., as the
4 regulator of private conduct, are not the same as the restrictions that it places upon the government in its

19 Your existence and your earnings as a federal "public officer" and "trustee" and "fiduciary" are entirely subject to the whim
20 and pleasure of corrupted lawyers and politicians, and you must beg and grovel if you expect to retain anything:

21 "In the general course of human nature, A POWER OVER A MAN'S SUBSISTENCE AMOUNTS TO A POWER
22 OVER HIS WILL."
23 [Alexander Hamilton, Federalist Paper No. 79]

24 You will need an "exemption" from your new slave master specifically spelled out in law to justify anything you want to
25 keep while working on the federal plantation. The 1040 return is a profit and loss statement for a federal business
26 corporation called the "United States". You are in partnership with your slave master and they decide what scraps they
27 want to throw to you in your legal "cage" AFTER they figure out whatever is left in financing their favorite pork barrel
28 project and paying off interest on an ever-expanding and endless national debt. Do you really want to reward this type of 29 irresponsibility and surety?

30 The W-4 therefore essentially amounts to a federal employment application contract. It is your badge of dishonor and a
31 tacit admission that you can't or won't trust God and yourself to provide for yourself. Instead, you need a corrupted
32 "protector" to steal money from your neighbor or counterfeit (print) it to help you pay your bills and run your life.
33 Furthermore, if your private employer forced you to fill out the W-4 against your will or instituted any duress to get you to 34 fill it out, such as threatening to fire or not hire you unless you fill it out, then he/she is:

- 35 1. Acting as an employment recruiter for the federal government.
36 2. Recruiting you into federal slavery in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, and 42 U.S.C. §1994.
37 3. Involved in a conspiracy to commit grand theft by stealing money from you to pay for services and protection you 38 don't want and don't need.
39 4. Involved in racketeering and extortion in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1951.
40 5. Involved in money laundering for the federal government, by sending in money stolen from you to them, in violation
41 of 18 U.S.C. §1956.

42 The higher ups at the IRS probably know the above, and they certainly aren't going to tell private employers or their 43 underlings the truth, because they aren't going to look a gift horse in the mouth and don't want to surrender their defense of 44 "plausible deniability". They will NEVER tell a thief who is stealing for them that they are stealing, especially if they
45 don't have to assume liability for the consequences of the theft. No one who practices this kind of slavery, deceit, and evil
46 can rightly claim that they are loving their neighbor and once they know they are involved in such deceit, they have a duty
47 to correct it or become an "accessory after the fact" in violation of 18 U.S.C. §3. This form of deceit is also the sin most 48 hated by God in the Bible. Below is a famous Bible commentary on Prov. 11:1:

49 "As religion towards God is a branch of universal righteousness (he is not an honest man that is not devout), so
50 righteousness towards men is a branch of true religion, for he is not a godly man that is not honest, nor can 51 he expect that his devotion should be accepted; for, 1. Nothing is more offensive to God than deceit in 52 commerce. A false balance is here put for all manner of unjust and fraudulent practices [of our public dis-
53 servants] in dealing with any person [within the public], which are all an abomination to the Lord, and

1 render those abominable [hated] to him that allow themselves in the use of such accursed arts of thriving. It
2 is an affront to justice, which God is the patron of, as well as a wrong to our neighbour, whom God is the
3 protector of. Men [in the IRS and the Congress] make light of such frauds, and think there is no sin in that
4 which there is money to be got by, and, while it passes undiscovered, they cannot blame themselves for it; a
5 blot is no blot till it is hit, Hos. 12:7, 8. But they are not the less an abomination to God, who will be the 6 avenger of those that are defrauded by their brethren. 2. Nothing is more pleasing to God than fair and
7 honest dealing, nor more necessary to make us and our devotions acceptable to him: A just weight is his
8 delight. He himself goes by a just weight, and holds the scale of judgment with an even hand, and therefore is 9 pleased with those that are herein followers of him. A balance cheats, under pretence of doing right most 10 exactly, and therefore is the greater abomination to God."
11 [Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible; Henry, M., 1996, c1991, under Prov. 11:1]

12 The Bible also says that those who participate in this kind of "commerce" with the government are practicing harlotry and 13 idolatry. The Bible book of Revelation describes a woman called "Babylon the Great Harlot".

14 "And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and
15 ten horns. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and 16 pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. And on her 17 forehead a name was written:

18 MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE 19 EARTH.

20 I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw 21 her, I marveled with great amazement."
22 [Rev. 17:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

23 This despicable harlot is described below as the "woman who sits on many waters".

24 "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot [Babylon the Great Harlot] who sits on many waters,
25 with whom the kings of the earth [politicians and rulers] committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth
26 were made drunk [indulged] with the wine of her fornication."
27 [Rev. 17:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

28 These waters are simply symbolic of a democracy controlled by mobs of atheistic people who are fornicating with the Beast
29 and who have made it their false, man-made god and idol:

30 "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues."
31 [Rev. 17:15, Bible, NKJV]

32 The Beast is then defined in Rev. 19:19 as "the kings of the earth", which today would be our political rulers:

33 "And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who 34 sat on the horse and against His army."
35 [Rev. 19:19, Bible, NKJV]

36 Babylon the Great Harlot is "fornicating" with the government by engaging in commerce with it. Black's Law Dictionary
37 defines "commerce" as "intercourse":

38 "Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or 39 inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the 40 instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it 41 is carried on..."
42 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

43 If you want your rights back people, you can't pursue government employment in the context of your private job. If you
44 do, the Bible, not us, says you are a harlot and that you are CONDEMNED to hell!

45 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest
46 you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.
47 Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she
48 has mixed, mix double for her. In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same
49 measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not
50 see sorrow.' Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be 51 utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

9.4 Notaries Public

It is a franchise and a privilege to become a notary public. A notary public is a “public officer”, meaning that he works for the government.

*Chapter 1
Introduction
§1.1 Generally*

A notary public (sometimes called a notary) is a public official appointed under authority of law with power, among other things, to administer oaths, certify affidavits, take acknowledgments, take depositions, perpetuate testimony, and protect negotiable instruments. Notaries are not appointed under federal law; they are appointed under the authority of the various states, districts, territories, as in the case of the Virgin Islands, and the commonwealth, in the case of Puerto Rico. The statutes, which define the powers and duties of a notary public, frequently grant the notary the authority to do all acts justified by commercial usage and the "law merchant".

[Anderson's Manual for Notaries Public, Ninth Edition, 2001, ISBN 1-58360-357-3]

Every state of the Union has laws that regulate the conduct of notaries public. The reason they can pass these laws is because notaries public are “public officers” who work for the government.

9.5 Perjury statement on state court forms

Nearly every government form contains a perjury statement that identifies the person signing as a government employee of the state domiciled on federal territory. For instance, all of the Family Court forms in California contain the following perjury statement at the end:

*“I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.”
[California Judicial Council, Form CIV-100;
SOURCE: <http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/forms/documents/civ100.pdf>]*

The “State of California” is then defined as the federal areas within the exterior limits of the state:

*California Revenue and Taxation Code
Division 2: Other Taxes
Part 10: Personal Income Tax*

17018. "State" includes the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States.

The only people who are under the laws of the “State of _____” are the officers and employees who work for the government. Everyone else is sovereign and foreign with respect to these laws, as we have clearly proven elsewhere within this document. Try instead signing such forms with a perjury statement similar to the following and see what the government says. Tell them that you would be committing perjury under penalty of perjury to put any other language in the perjury statement:

“I declare under penalty of perjury from without the ‘State of _____’ and from within the ‘Republic of _____’ that the foregoing is true and correct.”

We tried this and the clerk of the court said she couldn’t accept our form. We then asked them by what authority they can regulate our First Amendment right to communicate, to not communicate, and to define the significance with which we communicate. They thumbed through their books for an hour and even called the judge, and later came back to us and had to admit that we were right.

If you would like to learn more about how there are actually two governments within the borders of every state of the Union, consisting of the de facto “Corporate State” called the “State of _____” and the de jure “Republic State”, we refer you to the following fascinating article on our website. See section 8.2 of the document:

9.6 Federal Thrift Savings Plan description of tax liability

The Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board OC 96-21(7/2004) document states in its publication entitled "Tax Treatment of Thrift Savings Plan Payments to Nonresident Aliens and Their Beneficiaries" [FRTSP] the following about the liability for the Subtitle "A" Federal income tax.

*"A nonresident alien is an individual who is neither a U.S. citizen nor a resident of the United States."
[SEDM Exhibit #09.026;
SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>]*

That is identical to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) so we know that there is consistency in the information.

Then on page 2 of the FRTSP document you see stated, "In general, the following rules apply.." Keep in mind that these are the rules about the Subtitle "A" Federal income tax. The Federal document then addresses those parties who are liable for, and must pay, as well as those who have no liability. That is the unique aspect of this particular Federal document as most never tell you that kind of information until you spend years researching as most don't know where to look.

Here is what is stated about "nontaxable liability" for the U.S. [Federal] Income tax [Subtitle "A" of 26 USC]. We will overlook those who are identified in this publication as having a "taxable liability" as that is already established by earlier chapters and merely confirmed again.

I recommend that you get in a comfortable chair and take a big sip of something cool and refreshing before you continue reading. This is going to be that pleasurable! Are you ready? OK....

"A nonresident alien participant who worked for the U.S. government in the United States may be liable for U.S. income tax."

Do your recall 4 U.S.C. §72 where the seat of government public offices are only located? Do your recall the definition of "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7408(d)?

You have to admit this shows that anyone who works for the Federal government is a "Taxpayer" if they work [principle place of business] for the government in the United States [the District of Columbia]. Does that describe you as a nonresident alien [American National] who is working in the private sector [non federal employment]? I thought not!

"A nonresident alien participant who never worked for the U.S. Government in the United States will not be liable for U.S. income tax."

Did you read that slowly? Did that say what we thought it said?

Allow me to paraphrase just for simplicity purposes only. If you are a nonresident alien [American National] who never worked for the U.S. Government [in the United States a.k.a. the District of Columbia] then you "will not be liable for U.S. income tax" which is identical to saying that you "will not be liable for Subtitle 'A' Federal income tax."

Are you still sitting in that chair? I got so excited I could not sit still when I first read this powerful admission by the Federal Government itself. Perhaps from my frisson I misread that statement so I read it once more and the thrill grew in its intensity. It is an understatement to say that this is not very good news to the previously uninformed. But let's continue some other sections in this Tax Treatment of Thrift Savings Plan Payments to Nonresident Aliens and Their Beneficiaries.

*"A nonresident alien beneficiary of a nonresident alien participant will not be liable for U.S. income tax if the participant never worked for the U.S. Government in the United States."
[SEDM Exhibit #09.026;
SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>]*

This is awesome proof right from the Federal Government! How about that!!

1 So the FRTSP document is stating that “a nonresident alien will not be liable for U.S. income taxes if the family member
2 who was a participant in this retirement plan never worked for the U.S Government in the United States.” If this is true,
3 and it is certainly presented as fact and truth by the Federal Government publication, then the extrapolation is rather simple.

4 9.7 Definitions within state revenue codes

5 Definitions within state codes relating to various franchises confirm that all those who participate must maintain a domicile
6 on federal territory. For instance, the California Revenue and Taxation Code definitions of “State” confirm that the state
7 sales tax and personal income taxes both apply only on federal territory:

8 California Revenue and Taxation Code
9 Division 2: Other Taxes
10 Part 10: Personal Income Tax

11 17018. "State" includes the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States.
12

14 Division 2: Other Taxes
15 Part 1: Sales and Use Taxes

16 6017. "In this State" or "in the State" means within the exterior limits of the State of California and includes all
17 territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States of America.

18 All the other states of the Union do things exactly the same way, but they are more devious about how they hide the nature
19 of their jurisdiction over the franchises they administer.

20 10 Conclusions

21 We will now succinctly summarize the findings and conclusions of this pamphlet based on the evidence presented:

- 22 1. The federal and state constitutions are law only for government, and they do not obligate any private citizen to do 23 anything.
- 24 2. The only parties obligated to obey the constitution are officers and employees of the federal and state governments.
- 25 3. The federal constitution is a delegation of authority order from the States to the federal government.
 - 26 3.1. The parties to the Constitution are the States of the Union, not the people in them.
 - 27 3.2. The constitution delegates to the federal government authority to manage foreign affairs and the community 28 property of the states, consisting of federal territory, domiciliaries, franchises, and property.
- 29 4. The only objects for which the federal government may lawfully enact legislation are federal territory, domiciliaries, 30 franchises, and property and crimes committed in connection with these things while on federal territory.
- 31 5. The federal constitution confers upon the government the authority to legislate directly upon “individuals” but not all 32 people are “individuals”:
 - 33 5.1. They can only legislate for “individuals” domiciled on federal territory or who are participating in federal 34 franchises such as federal employment, public office, or licensed activities. Participation in all franchises moves
35 the effective domicile of the person to the District of Columbia pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), 36 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39), and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).
 - 37 5.2. A man or woman who is not domiciled on federal territory but instead is domiciled in a state of the Union and 38 who does not participate in any government franchises, licenses, or privileges cannot lawfully become subject to 39 federal legislation and is not a “person” or an “individual” within the meaning of any federal statute. This is 40 because States of the Union are “foreign states” with respect to federal legislative jurisdiction. They cannot in 41 fact be sovereign without being “foreign”. See:
42

“Sovereign”=“Foreign” http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Freedom/Sovereignty/Sovereign=Foreign.htm
--
- 43 6. The only way for a person domiciled within a state of the Union who is not engaged in any federal franchise, 44 employment, or agency to become the subject of federal legislation is to:
 - 45 6.1. Change his or her domicile to federal territory and thereby become a statutory “U.S. citizen” pursuant to 8 U.S.C.
§1401 or “resident” (alien) pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).

- 1 6.2. Engage in federal franchises, such as “public office”, foreign commerce, Social Security, Medicare, or 2 unemployment compensation. Since these franchises can only lawfully be offered to those domiciled on federal
3 territory, those domiciled in states of the Union who do participate had to commit perjury in misrepresenting
4 themselves as statutory “U.S. citizens” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 or lawful permanent residents pursuant to 26
5 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).
- 6 6.3. Commit a crime on federal territory, even though domiciled elsewhere.
- 7 6.4. Misrepresent their status on government forms in describing themselves as a “U.S. person” defined in 26 U.S.C.
8 §7701(a)(30), which is a person with a domicile on federal territory and includes statutory “U.S. citizens”
9 pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 or resident aliens pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).
- 10 7. A favorite trick of governments is to enact legislation that only applies to federal territory and yet abuse “words of art”
11 to create the false presumption that it applies equally within states of the Union. This is what happened, for instance,
12 when President Roosevelt outlawed gold in 1933 with the Emergency Banking Relief Act of March 1933, 48 Stat. 1.
- 13 8. All those participating in licensed activities are deemed to be domiciliaries of federal territory. The only place that the 14 government can lawfully license anything involving the exercise of Constitutionally guaranteed rights is in places
15 where said rights do not exist, which is federal territory. This includes driver’s licenses, marriage licenses, 16 professional licenses, etc.
- 17 9. When a court asserts jurisdiction over your conduct, the questions you ought to be asking yourself and the court are:
18 9.1. Is my opponent making presumptions about my status that cannot be supported with evidence? All such 19 presumptions which prejudice constitutionally guaranteed rights are unconstitutional. See:
20

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction , Form #05.017 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 21 9.2. Where does this law say that it applies? Chances are it only applies on federal territory. What is the definition of 22 “United States” and “State” within the law? Do these definitions include any part of a state of the Union?
23 9.3. Is the court or my opponent abiding by or stretching the definitions within the code in order to unlawfully expand
24 their jurisdiction by abusing the word “includes” and thereby committing treason in breaking down the separation
25 of powers between the state and federal government? See:
26

Meaning of the Words “Includes” and “Including” , Form #05.014 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 27 9.4. Have I properly described my citizenship and domicile on all government forms I ever submitted to correctly
28 reflect the fact that I do not maintain a domicile on federal territory and am not confused with a “U.S. person”
29 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30), a “U.S. citizen” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401, or a resident alien pursuant to 30 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A)? For an example of how to properly describe your status, see:
31

Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status , Form #02.001 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

- 32 9.5. What franchises am I participating in that might have conferred jurisdiction upon this court? Marriage license, 33 driver’s license, or professional license? If I am participating in any such licenses, I should revoke them pursuant 34 to the following:
35

Liberty University, Section 4: Avoiding Government Franchises and licenses http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm

- 36 9.6. Am I using government identifying numbers that connect me to a franchise? If so, I should get rid of them. See:
37

Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee , Form #06.002 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

- 38 9.7. Do I satisfy the definition of the “person” or “individual” mentioned in the code that is being enforced? If there is 39 no definition, isn’t the law void for vagueness and unenforceable?

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

41 Your answers will become evidence in future litigation, should that be necessary in order to protect the rights of the person
42 against whom you are attempting to unlawfully enforce federal law.

- 43 1. Admit that I cannot lawfully impose a duty or obligation upon another person without their consent in some form
44 unless they are injuring my EQUAL rights.

45 "Do not strive with a man [or make him the object of law enforcement] without cause, if he has done you no

4 2. Admit that the same constraints imposed in the previous question apply to the government, because all of its authority
5 is delegated by We the People and We the People cannot delegate an authority that they themselves do not also 6 possess.

7 "Whatever these Constitutions and laws validly determine to be property, it is the duty of the Federal
8 Government, through the domain of jurisdiction merely Federal, to recognize to be property.

9 "And this principle follows from the structure of the respective Governments, State and Federal, and their
10 reciprocal relations. They are different agents and trustees of the people of the several States, appointed with 11 different powers and with distinct purposes, but whose acts, within the scope of their respective jurisdictions,

28 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
29 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the
30 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by 31 civilized men."

37 5. Admit that "the right to be let alone" implies that you are not subject to government law unless and until you 38 consensually engage in any one or more of the following behaviors:

- 39 5.1. A criminal and therefore harmful act prohibited by criminal law that injures the equal rights of others.
40 5.2. A voluntary act that is lawfully regulated by the government under the authority of civil law.

41 "With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing
42 more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another,
43 shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take 44 from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to 45 close the circle of our felicities."

1 For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You
2 shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up
3 in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

10 5.3. Making an "appearance" in a court of law and thereby conferring jurisdiction or authority upon the judge over 11 your property and rights in order to decide a dispute.

12 appearance. A coming into court as a party to a suit, either in person or by attorney, whether as plaintiff or 13 defendant. The formal proceeding by which a defendant submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court. The 14 voluntary submission to a court's jurisdiction.

15 In civil actions the parties do not normally actually appear in person, but rather through their attorneys (who 16 enter their appearance by filing written pleadings, or a formal written entry of appearance). Also, at many 17 stages of criminal proceedings, particularly involving minor offenses, the defendant's attorney appears on his 18 behalf. See e.g., Fed.R.Crim.P. 43.

19 An appearance may be either general or special; the former is a simple and unqualified or unrestricted
20 submission to the jurisdiction of the court, the latter is a submission to the jurisdiction for some specific
21 purpose only, not for all the purposes of the suit. A special appearance is for the purpose of testing or objecting
22 to the sufficiency of service or the jurisdiction of the court over defendant without submitting to such 23 jurisdiction; a general appearance is made where the defendant waives defects of service and submits to the 24 jurisdiction of court. Insurance Co. of North America v. Kunin, 175 Neb. 260, 121 N.W.2d. 372, 375, 376.

18 30. Admit that presuming that a private person called a "nontaxpayer" is a franchisee and "public officer" called a
19 "taxpayer" without any supporting evidence constitutes involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth
20 Amendment and violates the due process requirement of "innocent until proven guilty":

21 In judging the constitutionality of legislatively created presumptions this Court has evolved an initial
22 criterion which applies alike to all kinds of presumptions: that before a presumption may be relied on, there
23 must be a rational connection between the facts inferred and the facts which have been proved by competent 24 evidence, that is, the facts proved must be evidence which is relevant, tending to prove (though not 25 necessarily conclusively) the existence of the fact presumed. And courts have undoubtedly shown an
26 inclination to be less strict about the logical strength of presumptive inferences they will permit in civil cases
27 than about those which affect the trial of crimes. The stricter scrutiny in the latter situation follows from the 28 fact that the burden of proof in a civil lawsuit is ordinarily merely a preponderance of the evidence, while in
29 a criminal case where a man's life, liberty, or property is at stake, the prosecution must prove his guilt
30 beyond a reasonable doubt. See Morrison v. California, 291 U.S. 82, 96 -97. The case of Bailey v. Alabama,
31 219 U.S. 219, is a good illustration of this principle. There Bailey was accused of violating an Alabama statute
32 which made it a crime to fail to perform personal services after obtaining money by contracting to perform

34 services, or to refund money paid for them, without just cause, constituted "prima facie evidence" (i. e., gave 35 rise to a presumption) of the intent to injure or defraud. This Court, after calling attention to prior cases

10 TITLE 5 > PART 1 > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a
11 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals
12

13 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

14 (13) the term "Federal personnel" means officers and employees of the Government of the United States,
15 members of the uniformed services (including members of the Reserve Components), individuals entitled to
16 receive immediate or deferred retirement benefits under any retirement program of the Government of the 17 United States (including survivor benefits).

- 18 35.9. Corporations are officers and agents of the government granting the limited liability franchise. The corporate 19 charter is the franchise agreement which creates agency on behalf of the corporation for the general benefit of 20 the public granting the corporate franchise.

21 "All the powers of the government must be carried into operation by individual agency, either through the 22 medium of public officers, or contracts made with individuals. Can any public office be created, or does one
23 exist, the performance of which may, with propriety, be assigned to this association [or trust], when 24 incorporated? If such office exist, or can be created, then the company may be incorporated, that they may 25 be appointed to execute such office. Is there any portion of the public business performed by individuals
26 upon contracts, that this association could be employed to perform, with greater advantage and more safety
27 to the public, than an individual contractor? If there be an employment of this nature, then may this 28 company [the first Bank of the United States, established by Congress] be incorporated to undertake it.

29 There is an employment of this nature.

30 [. . .]

31 If the Bank [a federal corporation] be constituted a public office, by the connexion between it and the 32 government, it cannot be the mere legal franchise in which the office is vested; the individual stockholders
33 must be the officers. Their character is not merged in the charter. This is the strong point of the Mayor and 34 Commonalty v. Wood, upon which this Court ground their decision in the Bank v. Deveaux, and from which 35 they say, that cause could not be distinguished. Thus, aliens may become public officers, and public duties are 36 confided to those who owe no allegiance to the government, and who are even beyond its territorial limits."
